The Christian Endeavor Societies, of Columbia and Montour counties, will convene in thirteenth annual Bi-County Convention, in Orangeville, to-day. Every Society is expected to be represented by delegates. The convention will conclude with to-morrow evening's session, which will be a consecration service.

A woman in a nearby town, claimed that it showed lack of proper faith to tie strings around spoons when loaning them out for a church supper. At a church social one evening last week she sent a dozen without any mark of ownership on them, and got back three. The paper which chronicled her loss did not say whether she had changed her mind or not.

The Passenger Department of the Lackawanna Railroad has made another move for business in territory where the road has been dependent upon its connections for traffic. The company now proposes to work upper Canada, where it has been without a representative, and has opened an office in Toronto, the agent appointed to take charge being George Bazzard, who will look after both passenger and freight traffic.

If you want a good, clean, honest, straightforward paper that already is welcomed in thousands of rural homes throughout the country, then let us send you "Farm Journal." Its editor knows what to print, but better yet, knows what to leave out. We will send the "Farm Journal" the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904 to everyone who will pay up promptly his subscription to the COLUMBIAN; both papers at the price of ours only.

Tour of The World.

The Philadelphia Times announces that, beginning with their Sunday issue of October 28, they will publish weekly a series of articles descriptive of a Tour of the World by Dr. Edward Brooks, Superintendent of Public Instruction in Philadelphia, which will be illustrated by colored photographs in the form of supplements to their Sunday edition. These will be ten by fifteen inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper and will illustrate the most famous and beautiful scenes in a journey around the world. Each one will be a gem in itself.

Such an offer has never before been made by any newspaper to its readers. Can you afford to miss it? An early order to your news dealer for the Sunday Times will be your passport for the trip.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice, and will be sent to the dead letter office Nov. 6, 1900. Persons calling for these letters will please say "that they were advertised Oct. 25, 1900":

SITE FOR FACTORIES WANTED.

The Industrial Department of the Lackawanna Railroad has applications for sites from a great many industrial concerns, of which the following are a few:

Electric Bell Factory, wants building about 50 x 100 feet, 2 stories, or equal space. Will employ about 40 people.

Five Silk Mills, all large concerns.

Two Paper Mills.

Plant for treating iron pyrites.

Plant for manufacturing flexible tubing. Will employ 50 men.

Plant for milling laundry facings.

Plant for manufacturing photographic supplies.

Three automobile concerns. Are not the citizens of this town interested in securing some one of these concerns? If so, would it not be well to lay before the Industrial Agent of the Lackawanna Railroad any advantages which we may possess? Such information, to be of value, must be specific and not consist of the general statement that "this is a good place." It should give as definite information as possible regarding available lands and their value, of vacant buildings suitable for manufacturing purposes, of the number of people available for work, of the average wages of workmen, of the cost of living to workmen, of available power, of the rate of taxation, etc., and particularly of any natural advantage arising from favorable location, the existence of any valuable raw product, etc. The presence of this information in the office of the Industrial Agent must sooner or later result in benefit to the town. The Industrial Agent moreover will be pleased at any time to meet with a committee of our citizens for the purpose of considering plans for our industrial development and progress. Information here outlined should be sent to William B. Hunter, Industrial Agent, 26 Exchange Place, New York City.

The ball and chain punishment will have a tendency to make wandering "Willies" steer clear of Bloomsburg. They will seek other localities rather than to work on the road four days with a heavy iron ball locked about their ankle. One victim of this ordinance will complete his sentence today. He began working on Monday, down on Eighth street near Athletic Park.

GREAT STATESMAN GONE.

Death of John Sherman in Washington—A Remarkable Career. WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The death of ex-Secretary John Sherman, as announced yesterday, has removed one of the nation's greatest citizens. Funeral services will be held at the K street residence tomorrow, Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith of St. John's Episcopal church officiating. After the services the body will be taken to Mansfield, O., where it will be interred beside that of Mrs. Sherman. John Sherman was born in Lancaster, O., on May 10, 1823. He was the eighth in a family of 11 children, the late General William Tecumseh Sherman being the sixth child. Their mother's maiden name was Mary Hoyt. Their father, for five years a justice of the Ohio supreme court, was a descendant of the Rev. John Sherman of Essex, England, who came to America in 1634. On the death of Justice Sherman in 1829 the family became scattered and a cousin of the name of John Sherman took young John and sent him to school. The boy was prepared for college. Desire to become self supporting led him, however, to join a corps of surveyors and engineers, with whom he worked for two years. He then studied law in the office of his brother Charles and was admitted to the bar on May 11, 1844. He practiced law in partnership with his brother at Mansfield, O., until he was elected a representative in congress in 1854.

Somewhat before his first appearance in the national legislature John Sherman had, on Aug. 20, 1848, married Cecilia Stewart, daughter of Judge Stewart of Mansfield, O. She was his companion throughout a long public career, and her death last spring marked the beginning of Mr. Sherman's rapid decline.

Sherman was for nearly half a century a Republican leader upon financial questions and was the originator of many important laws. In particular he was the author of the specie redemption plan of the Sherman act of 1870. The length of his continuous public service a brief review suffices to show. After membership in successive congresses from 1855 to 1861 he was chosen United States senator and was twice re-elected before becoming secretary of the treasury under R. B. Hayes. He went back to the senate at the close of the four years' term in 1881 and represented Ohio until 1897, when he became President McKinley's secretary of state. From this office failing health caused his retirement two years ago. Sherman published his own record of his career in "The Recollections of Forty Years in the House, Senate and Cabinet." A volume called "Selected Speeches and Reports on Taxation" was among the publications incidental to his special work.

TIME IS LIFE

The father? Gone for the doctor. The mother? Alone with her suffering child. Will the doctor never come? When there is croup in the house you can't get the doctor quick enough. It's too dangerous to wait. Don't make such a mistake again; it may cost a life. Always keep on hand a dollar bottle of

It cures the croup at once. Then when any one in the family comes down with a hard cold or cough a few doses of the Pectoral will cut short the attack at once. A 25 cent bottle will cure a miserable cold; the 50c. size is better for a cold that has been hanging on.

Keep the dollar size on hand. "About 25 years ago I came near dying with consumption, but was cured with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, since which time I have kept Ayer's medicines in the house and recommend them to all my friends." C. D. MARY, Bristol, Vt., Jan. 10, 1899. Write the Doctor. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice, write the doctor freely. Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Backward Season

Has caused many ladies to wait longer than usual for the wool dresses. If you wait too long the choicest goods will be gone, and in many cases, cannot be duplicated. We are prepared to show good assortments of everything in Dry Goods and have seldom offered better selected stocks, and have not advanced our prices.

Black Mohair Crepon.

For separate skirts there is nothing to take their places. More dressy than any of the other goods now being shown. 69c to $2 25 a yard.

Black Cheviot.

The best wearing goods in the whole line of Dress Goods, and the most popular goods for suits. 65c to $1 50 a yard.

Broadcloths.

It is almost impossible to find more beautiful colors in any goods than we show in the 15 shades of Broadcloth, and besides, the quality is way ahead of others at same prices. $1 00 and $1 25 a yard.

Henrietta.

All wool goods, and in all of the new, pretty shades of the season. This is the newest goods offered this season for separate waists. 50c to $1 00.

French Flannels.

New line of plain colors just received. 27 ins. wide, 50c a Yd.

Ladies' Suits.

We do not boast so much on the lowness in price of our Suits as we do of the quality, finish and style. Every garment we sell must fit and please our customers, or it is not a sale. We don't try to make you believe it pleases you. Try to buy a garment of any kind, and you will see how hard we work to please you, but not to make you think you are pleased. Suits, $25 down to $6 95.

Jackets and Capes.

The season is late in starting but not so with us. Our trade has been better than usual, and we attribute it entirely to our having nicer goods, at lower prices, than others show. We have been told by buyers that Jackets and Capes are better than even larger towns are offering for the same prices.

Ladies' Jackets, $20, down to $5 00.

Children's Jackets, $10, down to $1 98.

Ladies' Capes, $15, down to $2 00.

Children's Capes, $8 50, down to $3 50.

The "New Lippincott" Magazine.

The "New Lippincott" Magazine for November opens, as usual, with a Complete Novel. The one presented this month maintains the always high standard. It possesses the charm of uncommon scene and quaint characterization. It is entitled "Madame Noel," and the author is George H. Picard, who is especially liked for his books "A Mission Flower" and "A Matter of Taste." The story has chiefly to do with the lives and loves of the four young people, and is one of strong human feeling.

The shorter fiction is plentiful and varied in theme. "The Beat that Failed" is by Albert Payson Terhune, who, by the way, is a son of "Marion Harland." It is a newspaper story beginning just at the hour of going to press; and the incident related is most exciting and realistic. Stewart Edward White contributes a tale called "The Race," which in his own words is "blood-and-thunder, but true." But it has a tender side to it. Clinton Scollard shows he is an adept in prose as well as verse by a clever sketch called "The Passing of a Poet," a study in cavalier times.

Rev. Frederick Poole, Missionary to the Chinese Colony in Philadelphia, contributes a paper on "China's Greatest Curiosity." This is so clear and anecdotic that it entertains while instructing how to read the characters which look so difficult, yet when explained are easily understood. The characters illustrated, with explanations, are very amusing in their compound meanings.

Stephen Crane's last paper in the series of "Great Battles of the World" is a tit ending to a splendid piece of work. "The Storming of Burkersdorf Heights" is of absorbing interest from the first page to the last—and then one would like to read more about Frederick the Great through Crane's brilliant pen.

"The Footprints of Bryant" is by Dr. Theodore F. Wolfe, the well-known author of "Literary Shrines of American Authors," etc.

Bliss Carman contributes verses on "Thanksgiving" beside which there are poems by Paul Laurence Dunbar, Jeanie Peet, Clinton Scollard, Dora Reed Goudale, Agnes Lee, and Edmund V. Cooke.

The "Waltzes and Wines" department opens with some bright reminiscences of funny happenings at the Paris Fair, by Miss Caroline Lockhart, who has just returned from Paris. This is followed by storiottes and jokes which are up to the most amusing standard set for this department.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Columbia County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed there will be exposed to public sale, at the Court House, in Bloomsburg, county and state aforesaid, on
