The "Farm Journal" is the booted-down, hit-the-nail-on-the-head paper, cut to fit the farmer and villager who know what's what. The "Farm Journal" for nearly 5 years, remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, and the COLUMBIAN one year, will both be sent to every new subscriber to our paper, and to every old subscriber who pays up. Walk right up to the captain's office.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

The issue of a weekly newspaper immediately after election is by far the hardest to edit of the whole. All the exchanges are filled with politics, making it impossible to get any matter from that source, and there is always a lull in other doings about election, and as a result the paper is not very newsy.

In our last issue says an exchange, we stated that a mule child had been born to our esteemed friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cale Babbit. The goggle-eyed printer who couldn't distinguish between 'a' and 'u' in our copper plate chirography has recovered from his injuries and is now enroute for new pastures on foot.

Geo. W. Hess has made some improvements in his jewelry store. The entire side to the left of the entrance has been fitted up with shelving and made to harmonize with the opposite side. This will give Mr. Hess an opportunity to properly display his beautiful line of watches, clocks, cut glass and jewelry, which is as large and varied as any shown in the larger cities.

If interested in horses, cows or sheep, take the "Farm Journal." It is a wonderfully good little paper and you ought to take it. We can send the COLUMBIAN one year and the "Farm Journal" nearly five years (remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904), all for $1.00. This only to new and old subscribers who pay in advance. Pay up.

Lyman H. Howe's moving picture machine is still popular here, notwithstanding that he has exhibited in Bloomsburg for the past three seasons. The Opera House Friday evening was taxed to its utmost, and many people, unable to obtain seats, went home. Mr. Howe gives an excellent entertainment, and is deserving of the patronage extended.

Keen, indeed, was the sorrow felt by a host of admirers in town when the sad intelligence reached here of the death of Thomas Byron, which occurred at his home in Scranton on the 1st inst. He graduated from the Normal School last June. This season, and the two previous summers, he played third base on the school's base ball team, and was one of its strongest members.

The Danville High School was an easy thing for the Bloom High School boys at Athletic Park Saturday afternoon. Danville's play was tame throughout the entire struggle and our boys advanced almost at will the score after two twenty minute halves was 21 to 0. The locals are fast rounding into first class shape. Their team work was excellent. That's right boys, keep right at 'em.

A two year's courtship was happily consummated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Cox on Ninth street, at noon on Tuesday, when in the presence of a number of friends their daughter Miss Gretia, became the wife of Harry G. Quick a popular young resident of the village of Rupert. Rev. W. M. Fryinger of the Methodist Episcopal church spoke the words that joined the two lives. A sumptuous wedding dinner followed after which the happy couple departed amid a shower of rice and good wishes, for a wedding tour. May the blessings of a gracious providence be with them always.

Foot ball is the favorite sport with the young men of town just now. Scarcely does a day pass without a game. Tuesday evening's struggle between the High School and the Clerks was quite an interesting affair and a good sized crowd shivered through two ten minute halves to witness it. Owing to the fact that the school boys did not reach the Park until nearly five o'clock, it was late before the game started, and the last half was played by the light of the moon. The Clerks were weak at nearly every point, there wasn't a semblance of team work, or unity, and they went down before the onslaughts of their opponents like ten pins before a sixteen pound bowling ball. Score 18 to 0.

Successful Hunters.
Paul E. Wirt, C. W. Funston and Frank R. Drake spent Monday on the River Hill, hunting. They returned home in the evening, heavily laden with game.

A picture of our townsman Fred Ikeler, Esq., appeared in Sunday's Philadelphia Times, and in connection with it the following:

"Fred. T. Ikeler, of Bloomsburg, Democratic candidate for Representative from Columbia county, although but 30 years of age, is one of the leading attorneys of the Columbia County Bar, and has already gained a State reputation as an orator. During the campaign he has addressed meetings in many of the larger towns and cities throughout the State, his services being so greatly in demand that he has been forced to decline many appointments made for him by Chairman John S. Rillings."

Crouching

In every cough there lurks, like a crouching tiger, the probabilities of consumption. The throat and lungs become rough and inflamed from coughing and the germs of consumption find an easy entrance. Take no chances with the dangerous foe. For 60 years there has been a perfect cure. What a record! Sixty years of cures.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

soothes and heals the wounded throat and lungs. You escape an attack of consumption with all its terrible suffering and uncertain results. There is nothing so bad for the throat and lungs as coughing. A 25c. bottle will cure an ordinary cough; harder coughs will need a 50c. size; the dollar bottle is cheapest in the long run. "One of my sons was spitting blood with a high fever and was very ill. We could hardly see any signs of life in him. The doctor's did him no good. But one bottle of your Cherry Pectoral cured him and saved his life." G. A. STEPHENSON, Nov. 10, 1899. Pukwana, S. Dak. Write the Doctor. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice, write the Doctor freely. Address Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.
