Old soldiers are warned to beware of a swindler who is offering to sell a book and a certificate which he claims will make it easy for their wives to get a pension after they are dead. He asked one dollar down and two more on the delivery of the book.

Dr. Bierman calls attention to a change in his office hours, which will be from 10 o'clock mornings, to 2 o'clock afternoons, and from 6:30 to 8 evenings. The change is made in order to devote more time and attention to the treatment of the eye, and especially to the fitting of glasses.

There was a tragic ending of a wedding at Good Hope, on Wednesday. Rev. Henry Middleton, of Greenfield, was pronouncing the words which made his nephew, Harry Middleton of Fruitdale, and Miss Vena Rogers, of Good Hope, man and wife, when with the last words of the ceremony the minister dropped dead of heart disease.

Adam Nasbaum of Stowe township, Allegheny county, has a valuable pet horse, which he has been giving a lump of sugar daily. Wednesday, while he was working about the horses, he felt a tug at his hip pocket, and turned in time to see his pocketbook disappearing in the mouth of his favorite. There was $160 in bills in the wallet.

In St. Edward's parsonage at Shamokin on Thursday a unique wedding was performed by Rev. Father J. C. Thompson, the contracting parties being John C. Myers, of Lancaster, and Miss Kate Bonskowsky, of Shamokin, both mutes. The services were written on paper, which the young couple read and responded to. After the ceremony they were tendered a reception by a large number of mutes at the home of the bride's parents.

Charles Walters, an engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was instantly killed in a collision, about a week ago. He was well and favorably known in this town, having been a member of the engineer corps which made the first survey for the Bloomsburg & Sullivan Railroad. He married a daughter of our townsman, John Pifer, of West Third street. He and his wife were in Bloomsburg on a visit for about three weeks in September. Mrs. Walters with three children, survives.

Orangeville went down before the superior playing of the High School boys, at the Park, Saturday afternoon. The visitors looked big and heavy enough to wallop the life out of the locals, but their team work was very poor. The score, after two twenty-minute halves, was 12 to 0. George McLinn and Fred Allen each scored a touchdown, and Harry Beckley very gracefully made them both good by kicking goals.

The destruction by fire, early Friday morning, of the large furniture factory at Hughesville, was a sad blow to that town. It was the principal, if not the only industry in the town. The loss is estimated at about $75,000. The Citizens' electric light plant was also destroyed by the flames. We have it, from an uncensored source, that the factory will be rebuilt.

The "Farm Journal" is cheap, but not too cheap to be good; it is full of ginger and gumption, and has as many other good things in it that you can use as any paper at any price. We have a clubbing arrangement by which the COLUMBIAN is sent one year, and the "Farm Journal" nearly five years (remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904), both for $1.00. Pay in advance and get two big prizes.

Jeremiah Lyons, of Millintown, Pa., presiding judge of the district comprising Juniata and Perry counties, and president of the Millintown National Bank, dropped dead on Wednesday of last week, while visiting in Philadelphia. Judge Lyons was walking on Wallace street, above Twelfth, when he was stricken with apoplexy and groped into the open hallway of a house. He had barely reached the vestibule when he fell headlong into the entry. A colored servant, realizing that the strange stranger, who was well dressed and of distinguished appearance, screamed for assistance. A physician arrived in a few minutes and found the man dead.

Members of the Benevolent Order of Elks can obtain address cards with handsome designs at this office. 1t
