the affairs of our commonwealth. New York, an empire in itself, with its vast population, its many and diverse interests, demands from its chief executive the greatest conservatism, wisdom as to its needs and that its business affairs shall be transacted with economy and good judgment.

UNANIMOUS FOR OUAY. Republican Caucus Names Him For

HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.-Colonel Quay was the unanimous choice of the joint convention of Republican senators and members held last night in the house chamber to nominate a candidate for United States senator. The caucus was attended by 123 legislators, or four less than the number necessary to a choice in the joint convention of the senate and house which will be held Jan. 16.

On the balloting Mr. Quay received the votes of 23 senators and 93 members of the house. Before the result was announced the names of Messrs, Dalzell and Stewart were withdrawn, and the nomination of Mr. Quay was made unanlmous, and he was thus given a total of

With one present and not voting, two absent on account of illness, all three of whom, it is claimed, will abide by the caucus decision, a vote of 126 for Quay on joint bailot is indicated. As the names of certain men who had been counted in the anti-Quay column were called and they announced their vote for Mr. Quay there was a demonstration of great approval on the part of the great crowd present.

The Quay people are jubilant over the result of the caucus, as the number present exceeded their expectations, and they claim that before the vote is taken on joint ballot for senator they will have many more than the number necessary

While the caucus was in session in the house chamber a secret meeting of the anti-Quay Republicans was held at their headquarters at the Commonwealth ho-tel. At the close of the meeting the pledge of the anti-Quayites binding themselves together to oppose Mr. Quay's re-election was made public. The pledge contains 68 names.

Both branches of the legislature met at noon yesterday, and the feature of the oc-casion was the battle between the Quay Republicans and the allied forces of the anti-Quay Republicans and Democrats for control of the house of representatives, resulting in a victory for the Quay

William T. Marshall of Allegheny was the choice of the Quay forces for speaker, while the Democrats and anti-Quay Republicans were lined up for General William H. Koontz of Somerset, anti-Quay Republican. The membership of the house is 203, there being a vacancy in the Six teenth Philadelphia district. Of these 154 are Republicans and 49 Democrats. Senator Snyder of Chester county was the choice of the Quay faction for president of the senate and was elected by a vote of 36 to 13 over Senator Nidler (Dem.) of Cumberland.

AUSTRALIAN FEDERATION.

Great Celebration In Progress-Gov-SYDNEY, Jan. 2.-The city was brilliantly illuminated last evening with unique and appropriate designs, and the shipping in the harbor was all affame from stem to stern. The crowds gave every sign of rejoicing. Melbourne, Brisbane and the other cap itals have all been celebrating the federation on a smaller scale and swearing in the local governors. The Earl of Hopetoun was sworn in as the first governor general of the federated Australian colonies amid scenes of pageantry such as never before had been attempted in the antipodes.

Stain and Cromwell Pardoned. AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 1.—The governor and council have unanimously granted pardons to David L. Stain and Oliver Cromwell, who were convicted in 1888 and upon whom the responsibility for for the murder of J. Wilson Barron. eashier of the savings bank at Dexter, On Washington's birthday, 1878, Cashier Barron was found dead in the bank supposed to have been murdered after being bound and gagged. Ten years afterward Stain and Cromwell were ar-rested, tried and convicted. The case on account of its unique features attracted attention throughout the country. The trial lasted several days, and the jury was out 12 hours. The case was carried to the law court on exceptions and a motion for a new trial made, which was decied. The men were sentenced in 1890 by the then Chief Justice Peters to the state prison at Thomaston for the cause of these men as a heritage, as his father defended Stain at the trial. The counsel for the petitioners proved by affidavits that Stain and Cromwell were nt Medfield, Mass., 200 miles away, at the time of the tragedy, thereby proving GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

Cape Town Situation Gives British Little Comfort.

AYEAR'S FIGHTING WITH SMALLGAINS

Boer Invaders Said to Number Five Thousand-Their Furtiles Tactics Over Vast Territory Bender Kitchener's Task Difficult.

LONDON, Jan. 2 .- "The aspect of affairs is scarcely less gloomy," says the Cape Town correspondent of The Times, "than at the beginning of 1900. The in vading Boers are numerically fewer, but they have penetrated farther south, and their presence in such centers of hostile Dutch feeling as Granf Reinet constitutes an element of danger which did not exist last January.
"The proclamation calling for volunteers comes very late. The invaders have been enabled to obtain fresh horses. All the horses in the colony ought to have been commandeered or bought at the first sign of invasion."

The correspondent complains of the inertin and reticence of the authorities. General Kitchener has telegraphed to the war office as follows from Pretoria; "General Knox, who has been fellowing up De Wet, reports that he has captured some horses, five wagons with supplies and 0,000 rounds of amountition.

"He has released and allowed to go to their farms 76 Boer prisoners who were taken at De Wet's langer and who were being forced to fight. "General French recently captured 12 prisoners and a large quantity of carts and cattle. Among the prisoners was a dispatch rider bearing a letter from Beyers for Smuts,"

Johannes Smuts was formerly private secretary to Sir Gordon Sprigg, governor of Cape Colony. He served on the staff of V division in Natal in 1899-1900.

The Cape Town correspondent of The Dally Mail, who dwells upon the gravity of the position in Cape Colony, The Boer invaders now number 5,000, The western invasion gives the most concern. It has split into two divisions, which are marching like the prongs of a fork, one by way of Sutherland toward Malmesbury and the other toward Beaufort West. "The enemy are now ranging over immense tracts of territory, necessitating the employment of an army corps to deal with them. Lord Kitchener has poured troops into the disturbed areas, but the fugitive factics of the Boers have to a large extent neutralized his precautions.

"It was felt that the only means of excluding the inveders from the rich districts in the western part of the colony was to call out the farmers. Today's telegrams promise a splendid response from the eastern portion, but the western is doubtful, not 30 per cent of the population being regarded as loyal. Hence the Boer concentration in that di-

WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION.

President and Mrs. McKinley Inaugurate Social Season.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 .- In the long line of New Year's receptions at the White House which each year inaugurate the social season at the national capital none perhaps was more brilliant than the one which ushered in the twentieth century, and perhaps no feature of it was so universally gratifying to the distinguished throng which came to extend the greetings of the New Year to the chief executive of the republic as the fact that the mistress of the White House was able to participate and with the president receive the felicitations and well wishes of all.

The Marine band, stationed under the stairway, discoursed national airs and lively marches throughout the ceremony. The members of the enbinet and their wives, together with the ladies of the receiving party, were the first to arrive. They laid aside their wraps in the state dining room and ascended to the private apartments of the president, where they exchanged greetings with President and Mrs. McKinley. The ladies of the re-ceiving party entered the red and blue parlors and took their places behind the Meantime the embassadors and ministers of foreign countries, with the atgorgeous and resplendent court uniforms, had gathered in the state dining room.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the sounded the approach of the presidential party, and, led by Colonel Bingham, the master of ceremonies, and Major Me-Caulcy of the marine corps, the president and Mrs. McKinley descended the main staircase, followed by the members of the cabinet and their wives.

It was 2 a'clock when the end of the line appeared, and the president, waving a final salutation to the lingering guests, escorted Mrs. McKinley to her apart-

A GREAT GALE.

Much Damage to Shipping on English Coast.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Incessant reports of innumerable shipping casualties show that the gale was one of the worst known in many years. Probably several days will elapse before the full extent of the damage becomes known.

The British bark Pegasus, Captain Bailey, from San Francisco Aug. 17 for Queenstown, where she arrived on Dec. 23 and sailed Dec. 26 for Sharpness, was incorrectly reported to have foundered off Penarth Roads. One man of the crew of 34 was landed at Cardiff, and the statement of the vessel's loss originated with this sailor. It appears that the Pegasus grounded off Lavernock point, she was subsequently floated and towed to a place of shelter. When she grounded, her boats were made ready for lowering and the falls of one of them carried away, precipitating five men into the water. They were all drowned with the exception of the sailor landed at Cardiff, who was picked up by a tug. The Austrian bark Capricorn was driven ashore near Bude, Cornwall. Nine of the crew were drowned, one was sayed, and four are still on board, with little likelihood of being rescued, as they are unable to avail themselves of the rocket apparatus. Two other vessels are ashore on the Cornwall coast.

Several were stove in at Ilfracombe harbor. The bark Ragna was wrecked off Trevine, near Cardiff, three of her crew being drowned and nine being rescued by rocket lines.

Wales appears to have suffered the worst effects of the gale both on land and sea, but everywhere the telegraph wires are much disorganized, and reports are therefore incomplete.

Considerable damage to property inland is certain to be reported. Some 50 barges and sailing craft broke from their moorings in the Thame alone. At Oswestry a theater was destroyed.

ALEJANDRINO ESCAPES.

Filipino Leader Eludes General Grant.

MANILA, Jan. 1.-General Alejandrino, the rebel commander who was fol-lowed to Mount Arayat by a force under General Frederick D. Grant, made a successful attempt at midnight Sunday night to break through the cordon drawn around his forces by the American troops. He lost a few men wounded. General Funston will re-enforce General Grant with five companies of the Twenty-second infantry. On the northeast slopes on Friday night Lieutenant O'Shea of the Fourth cavalry and Lieutenant Wright of the Twelfth infantry, with 42 men, had a two hour engagement with a rebel force under Colonel Tecson. The insurgent colonel, who was wounded, escaped disguised as a priest.

Nebruska Legislature In Session. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 2.—The Nebras-La legislature convened at noon yesterday for its twenty-seventh session. manent organization was effected in both houses according to the programme outfined by Monday's Republican caucus, William G. Seers of Burt county, the caucus nominee, was made speaker of the house by unanimous vote on motion of the fusion minority after they had given a complimentary vote to D. W. Hamilten of Butler county, Populist. There was no opposition to Senator C. F. Steele for president pro tem, of the senate. The house appointed a committee on privileges and elections to take up contest cases as early as possible. Today the legislature will canvass the vote of the November election.

Famine Threntened In Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 2.-A dispatch received here from Vladivostok reports that famine threatens the Amur and maritime provinces. The crops there are bad and the railways, being almost wholly engaged for war purposes, cannot be used for the transportation of food to the inhabitants. In addition the prohibition of foreign coastwise trade has prevented importations into the threatened provinces. The situation is deplorable and becoming worse.

Crop Estimates.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The wheat crop of 1900 is 522,220,505 bushels. The area of winter wheat planted is 30,282. 564. The condition of the growing crop Dec. 1 was 97. The production of corn in 1900 is estimated at 2,105,102,518

Accepts Fully the Joint Note Chinn of Foreign Powers. PEKING, Dec. 31,-The Chinese plenipotentiaries have been unexpectedly ordered to sign the preliminary joint note and have notified the foreign envoys to that effect. The Chinese themselves were greatly astonished at receiving the imperial in-structions. Neither Li Hung Chang nor Prince Ching has expected success in persuading the court under ten days.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards and also as to the places where these are to be located.

The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Massachusetts Legislature,

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Thirty Republican members of the senate held the usual caucus last evening at the state house and nominated without opposition Hon. Rufus A. Soule of New Bedford as president, Henry D. Coolidge of Concord clerk and Rev. Edmund Dowse of Sherborn as chaptain. David W. Remington, the efficient doorkeeper of the senate for many years, was then nominated as sergeant-at-arms, but he immediately de-clined, and in the ballot which followed Major C. G. Davis, the present incumbent, through the appointment of the governor, was nominated.

Caught In a Prairie Fire.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 81.-Gotlieb Stacker and his family, moving from Stillwater, O. T., to Roger Mills county, were caught while asleep in their wagen in a prairie fire Friday night. A 17-month-old baby was roasted to death, and a boy will die. A young lady will lose both her limbs, and no hopes are entertained of saving the mother's life. In their roasted condition and with the eyes and hair of their borses burned out, they reached a dugout a few miles away. The fire was fanned by a wind traveling 60 miles an hour.

Many Kentucky Killings.

LONDON, Ky., Dec. 31.-Four men have been killed and ten wounded in Clay county fights within the past two weeks, while two other Clay county men were killed and two wounded in a fight just over the Clay county line during the same period, making a total of six killed and 12 wounded within two weeks. The factions are again becoming hostile, and drastic measures may be necessary to | quell the feudists.
