

XMAS GIFTS

In looking for suitable while to inspect our line of ladies' and gent's rings, jewelry and Sterling silver articles. We have a splendid assortment of these goods, and the special advantage we offer is hand engraving of every article bought from us, and engraving it nicely. We invite you to call and see samples of our work. An article beautifully engraved enhances its value, but an article poorly engraved depreciates its value.

THE COLUMBIAN, BLOOMSBURG, PA.

J. S. Williams & Son, BLOOMSBURG, PA. Public Sale Criers and General Auctioneers.

General Auctioneer. When you need a good auctioneer it will pay you to call on the undersigned. I have had 13 years experience. I deal fair with my fellow-bidders, therefore, I am able to get you the best returns of any sale cryer in this section and I charge the least for it. Residence, C. R. Buckle farm, Light Street, Bloomsburg, Pa. Post office address, Bloomsburg, Pa. Letters addressed to me will receive prompt attention.

J. H. Ertwine. Mrs. Lizzie Hartlieb, a domestic in the employ of Julius Heim of Danville, who, it was thought, had committed suicide, was discovered Sunday morning, hiding in the attic. She disappeared apparently Tuesday morning of last week. On Wednesday Mr. Heim and family came to Bloomsburg to attend the wedding of his son to Miss Blanche Gross. The house was closed for several days. The woman has acted strangely at different times and it is believed that her mind is affected. She has a husband in Germany from whom she is estranged.

For drunkenness and inglorious conduct Christmas afternoon and evening was the worst day and night Centralia has ever experienced. A gang of young men, the names could not be ascertained, started out to make trouble in the day. They went from one place to another, drinking and fighting, until the whole populace was alarmed and apprehensive for the safety of ladies who chanced to pass along the streets. They concluded their round of ruin by totally destroying twenty-two street lamps which had been instituted only a few weeks before, leaving the town in darkness. Strange as it may seem no arrests have yet been made.

The moving picture entertainment given by the A. & T. Biograph Co. in the Opera House last Friday and Saturday evening for the benefit of the M. E. Church, was very creditable to the excellent young men who have engaged in this enterprise. The pictures are fine, and the entire outfit is first class. Mr. Tasker's singing, with illustrations on the canvass, was greatly enjoyed, and heartily endorsed. His illustrations are the best ever used here. The attendance might have been larger.

Progressive Euchre for the Library. The arrangements for the progressive euchre party, on Tuesday evening, were complete in every detail, and the even handed people, who gathered at K. G. E. Hall, spent a most enjoyable evening. Mrs. Dr. Arment was the most active one of the committee of the Civic Club having the matter in charge, and the Doctor, too, lent very valuable assistance. The hall was donated by the K. G. E. Music was furnished by Breen's orchestra, and refreshments were served at 11:30. A neat sum was realized for the library fund.

The A. & T. Biograph Company has been engaged by the Methodist church, of Danville, to give an entertainment in that town.

The largest line of juvenile books and prices right at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

An impressive service was conducted in St. Paul's church by Rev. D. N. Kirkby, on Monday night beginning at 11:30. The vested choir was present, and the attendance was large. After the Penitential Office, and the singing of several hymns, the Rector made some appropriate remarks, and then all knelt in silent prayer just before 12 o'clock, and when the church bell tolled the knell of the dying century the congregation arose and repeated the creed. The new year and the new century were welcomed by all singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." It was a beautiful and inspiring service, and will probably be an annual feature hereafter.

Up-to-date Green Grocers. Bloomsburg has now the best market for green groceries it has ever had. Housel & Son are up-to-date, and are sparing no effort to serve the people with everything in the vegetable and fruit line that can be found in the city markets at this season. For this endeavor on their part, they merit and are receiving liberal patronage. The only way to keep up good markets is to patronize them. Besides the lines named Housel & Son also keep home boiled ham, smoked ham, salt and fresh fish and dressed poultry.

A Successful Columbia Countian.

The following dispatch, from Baltimore, recently appeared in the Music Trades, New York. The subject of it is a son of the late John J. McHenry, of Benton, and is well known here, where he has many friends, who will be pleased to learn of his success. The dispatch says: "One of the largest retail piano sales recorded in this city for many a day was made last week by Mr. Charles J. MacHenry, with the firm of Wm. Knabe & Co. He succeeded in disposing of twelve Knabe uprights of a certain style to the Roanoke College, Roanoke, Va. To accomplish this he did not have a walkover for the Knabe pianos were in competition with a dozen or so celebrated makes. Salesmen were there from several houses in this city, while representative piano men from Richmond, Washington and other points were on the ground, anxious to make the big sale. Not content with this extraordinary sale Mr. MacHenry stopped off at Danville, Va., where he sold a Knabe baby grand, and had a Knabe customer from the South waiting for him when he arrived in Baltimore. As it is so near Christmas time it seems very probable that Mr. MacHenry will be remembered in a very substantial manner by Santa Claus when he hangs up his stocking Christmas eve."

His Name is Not Billington. The "Cowboy" who has been living at Catawissa the past summer and masquerading under the assumed name, of H. W. Billington, has been identified. His real name is George Zimmerman, and his home Monroe, Wisconsin. A dispatch from that place last week, which appeared in the Catawissa News Item is as follows: "George P. Zimmerman was administrator for the estates of Amelia Klass and David Klass. Fred Klass and Herman Klass, his brothers-in-law, were his bondsmen for ten thousand dollars. He disappeared suddenly on April 5, taking with him $5,800, the entire estate belonging to Henrietta Klass, his mother-in-law, who was the sole beneficiary, and six hundred dollars belonging to his father. Reward of one thousand dollars is offered by his bondsmen who made good the sum for which he was in default. He has a wife and two sons, aged six and thirteen. He was formerly a highly respected farmer of Spring Grove. The money taken by him was drawn from the bank the day he left. His photograph and description was sent to every police officer in the United States and Canada. Embezzlement is the charge against him. Sheriff Gardner and Zimmerman's wife will go to Huntington to bring him here." He was located at Catawissa through the betrayal of a woman in Huntington, West Virginia, whose acquaintance he had formed while there.

70,000,000 PEOPLE DEAD! Practically the whole population of these United States, now living, will be under the sod before another century dawns upon America.

An artist, employed by a leading trade journal, pens a picture of an A. D. 2001 Department Store. In this artist's vision he saw a building 40 stories high, covering four city blocks. Tunnels had been constructed over the intersecting streets, through which the regular city traffic was conducted. The entire outside of the edifice was constructed in show windows, balustraded platforms being built in front of these, at each story, to support the window gazing throngs, who passed up and down at will on flying machines. The floors of these platforms were movable and conveyed the people past the displays. On the uppermost floors were factories, which turned out goods for stock. On the roof was the flying machine department. Bicycles and automobiles, at that time, having become a thing of the past. Bloomsburg may not reach the realm of that artist's vision by 2001, but Bloomsburg will progress, and ere long have a better dry goods store than it has to-day.
