Memorable Struggle For Pennsylvania Senatorship Ended.

WASSACHUSETTS RETURNS HOAR,

A Fifth Term For the Venerable Senator-McMillan Re-elected In Michigan-Clark Lacks One Vote In Montana

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16.-After a memorable struggle, which has continued for several years, Colonel M. S. Quay, regular Republican nominee for United States senator, was elected by the Penn-tylvania legislature to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of his term on March 4, 1899. Mis combined vote in the senate and house was 130, or three more than the number necessary to a choice. The house and senate will meet jointly at noon today to canvass the rote and declare an election. Mr. Quay's commission has already been prepared and signed, and he will take it to Washington this afternoon. A party of his friends will go with him to be present when he takes his seat in the senate

The Democratic vote was cast almost solidly for Colonel James M. Guffey of Pittsburg, and that of the anti-Quay Republicans was divided among nine "fa vorite sons." Representative William J. Galvin of Schurlkill, who two weeks ago voted with the Republicans on the or ganization of the house, was the only Democrat who voted for Mr. Quay. When he cast his vote, the followers of Colonel Quay broke into cheers, which continued for more than a minute. Representative L. D. Brown of Crawford voted for the Rev. Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition leader. The solid Democratic vote in the sen ate was cast for Colonel Guffey. The wildest excitement prevailed during the balloting in the house. Long be-fore that body convened at 3 o'clock the chamber was packed with legislators and spectators. The crush at the doors was so great that many members had to have the aid of police to get into the hall. The entrances were guarded by a cordon of policemen, but they were powerless to cope with the crowd. In a rush to admit Representative Galvin the door in one of the lobbies was broken down, and the hall was soon crowded to suffocation.

The election of Colonel Quay ends the struggle which began at the organization of the legislature in 1899 and has since continued without interruption. Seventy nine ballots were taken by the last legis lature without a choice, and then the legislature adjourned. The day following, April 21, Governor Stone appointed Mr. Quay to the senate, and on April 23, 1899, his appointment was rejected by the senate by one vote. Pennsylvania has since had only one United States senator, Boise Penrose.

Clark Lacked One. HELENA, Mon., Jan. 16.—William A

Clark of Butte lacked one vote of the number required to elect him to the United States senate yesterday. The first ballot for senator was taken at noon by both bouses. Two members were absent. Had the vote been in joint session Clark would have been elected, as he re cived a majority of the votes cast. A joint ballot will taken today. Meantime the absent Republican members are expected to arrive. There were 30 Republicans in the senate and house, and they voted for Senator Thomas H. Carter for the long term and former Senator Mantle of Butte for the short term. Ten labor men in the house voted solidly for A. E. Spriggs.

No Choice In Delaware. DOVER, Del., Jan. 16.—The Delaware

noon yesterday and proceeded to ballot for a United States senator. The first ballot was indecisive, as was expected. It brought out no surprise except that Senator Richard R. Kenney lacked but two votes of being re-elected for the long term, and Willard Saulsbury was one vote behind Kenney. This state of affairs was caused by the absence of three Republicans, Senator McFarlane and Representatives Ewing and Hitchen. J. Edward Addicks, the gas man, received the solid vote of the Union Republicans.

Hear For the Fifth Time.

BOSTON, Jan. 16 .- For the fifth time in a quarter of a century the Massachusetts legislature elected George Frisbie Hoar of Worcester to the United States genate. In the upper branch of the legis-28 Republicans and 1 Democrat voted for the venerable senator, while 8 Democrats voted for former Secretary of State Richard Olney. In the house 164 Republicans and 5 Democratic members voted for Senator Hoar, while 48 Democrats chose Mr. Olney, and 1 vote was cast by a Social Democrat for Charles H. Bradlee of Haverhill.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 16.—Senator James McMillan of Detroit was re-elected by the Michigan legislature, being the unanimous choice of the Republican ma-jority. He received 85 votes in the house and 31 in the senate. Thomas E. Barkworth of Jackson was given a com-plimentary vote by the Democratic mi-nority. He received one vote in the senate and ten in the house. Five members of the legislature were absent when the vote was taken.

Oil Craze In Texas.

DALLAS, Jan. 15.—The oil excitement caused by the recent wonderful strike at Beaumont is spreading over Texas. Dallas capitalists are nearly as much exercised over the discovery as the Beaumont people are. Private telegrams received re are to the effect that the flow of the Lucas gusher has not diminished. Machinery is nearly completed to control the flow and save the oil. Approximately 100,000 barrels of oil have been lost. Many strangers reached Beaumont yesterday, coming mostly from the north and northwest, to inspect the new district for prospective investors. Fully 200 new borngs have been started.

General Brabant, while addressing a conference of mayors at Cape Town, said the authorities were anxious to keep the war away from Cape Town if possi ble, but that the only hope of doing this lay in sending 1,000 men to the front. He urged that no precaution should be omitted to prevent the enemy from advancing farther south.

Sympathy For Kruger and the Boers HANOVER, Prussia, Jan. 16.-A mass meeting of Guelphs in Hanover, under the presidency of Baron von Schelo-Wunstorf, who represents one of the Hanoverian districts in the reichstag and is himself a Guelph and anti-Prussian, telegraphed to Mr. Kruger an expression of sympathy, together with the hope that God would help the Boers and the people of Hanover, which Prussia annexed, to a final victory.

TO BE TRIED IN CUBA

Supreme Court Orders Neely's Extradition. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. - Justice Harlan has announced the opinion and judgment of the supreme court in the Neely case, involving the validity of the law passed by congress on June 6, 1900. to enable the authorities to send Charles F. W. Neely back to Cuba for trial on charges growing out of his alleged emezzlement of postal funds in that island

The case came up on appeal by Neely from the judgment of the circuit court for the southern district of New York remanding him to the custody of the marshal of that district to await transportstion to Cuba on a warrant sued under the provisions of the new law. The facts in the case were reviewed by the justice and the grounds upon which Neely attacked the constitutionality of Neely's citizenship did not give him the right, said Justice Harlan, to set it up as a protection against extradition to a country where he had committed a crime in violation of its laws to be punished there for his acts.

The judgment of the circuit court remanding Neely to the custody of the marshal, thus affirming the validity and constitutionality of the extradition law, was affirmed and by a unanimous court. Upon motion of Solicitor General Richards an order was issued directing that the mandate go down at once. The Grip Everywhere,

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Special reports show that more than 500,000 persons in the grip belt, which extends across the United States from New York to the Rocky mountains, are suffering with the disease. The epidemic is greatest in the east, with a wide extension in Pennsylvania. Illinois is also extensively afflict-ed. In proportion to their size, Pittsburg. Reading and Allegheny City, in Pennsylvania, are the most seriously visited. The reports show that in the big cities of New York and Chicago the grip has spread at an alarming rate, and, although few cases are reported as fatal, the number is

England to Send Large Re- Snow Bound Passengers Perish In Russia.

A TERRIBLE TALE OF SUFFERING.

Storm Raged One Hundred Hours, No Mails Reach Odessa For Six Days-Herole Efforts to Re-Heve Stalled Trains.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Odessa correcondent of The Daily Mail sends a icartrending story of the sufferings of railway passengers snow bound while on the way to Odessa. The blizzard, he says, raged continuously for more than 100 hours over the whole of southern Russia. He describes the gradual arrival of trains at Razdyenaia with hundreds of passengers from the north who had entrained six days before.

"They had been snowed in for five days," he continues, "and fighting among theniselves for the scanty food supplies provided at the railway buffets. Women and children were weeping with hunger. while gangs of men battled with snowdrifts which were 35 feet deep in some places, and that, too, without snowplows, although these would have been useless even if they could have been

"Finally some 5,000 passengers had asembled at Razdycinaia. A regiment was sent from Kiev southward, and 1.000 troops went northward from Odessa with shovers. On the third day the relieving parties succeeded in cutting a passage for a couple of trains, which started with 2,000 persons after a mad rush, the weakest going to the wall.

"The trains proceeded for 18 hours and were then stuck again in the snow, unable to go forward or backward. The blizzard continued. Demoniacal fury and pandemonium prevailed, the passengers cursing the railway management, fainting and weeping. The trains were buried, and all passed a horrible night. When morning came, a peasant volun-teered to walk six miles to the nearest station with telegrams beseeching assistance, supplies, firewood and water having been exhausted.

"Finally, driven to desperation, 60 passengers, with Count Kapnist, determined to walk to Odessa. Count Kapnist, with 10, reached a point where he was able to secure sledges, and all arrived at Odessa, though uncertain as to the fate of those they had left behind.
"Meanwhile Governor Schuraloff had organized train sledges, with supplies, which after herculean efforts relieved the two trains. It was found that many of the passengers had their arms or legs

"Eighteen thousand troops are now engaged in the work of clearing the line. The Odessa correspondent of The Daily News wires that 120 people were frozen to death in the blizzard.

The Bucharest correspondent of The Daily Express says that five Roumanian soldiers while going home were attacked and eaten by wolves after a desperate

That Light From Mars.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 16.-Professor Pickering of the Harvard observaory says: "Early in December we received from the Lowell observatory in Arizona a telegram that a shaft of light had been seen to project from Mars (the Lowell observatory makes a specialty of Mars) lasting 70 minutes. I wired these facts to Europe and sent out neostyle copies through this country. The observer there is a careful, reliable man, and there is no reason to doubt but that the light existed. It was given as from a well known geographical point of Mars. That was all. Now the story has gone rid over. In Europe it is stated that I have been in communication with Mars, and all sorts of exaggerations have sprung up. Whatever the light was we have no means of knowing. Whether it had intelligence or not no one can say. It is absolutely inexplicable."

New York Police Bill Reported.

ALBANY, Jan. 16 .- By a vote of 7 to 3 the cities committee of the assembly has decided to report favorably the New York city police bill, which provides for a single headed commission. There was but little debate on the bill, which, it is understood, will be slightly amended on the floor to meet some objections of the minority. No date was fixed for a hearing on the Buffalo police bill, which is a measure similar to the New York city one. Attorney James Quackenbush of Buffalo, who will oppose the bill on behaif of certain lawyers and other residents of Buffalo, asked the committee to fix a date for a hearing, but owing to the absence of Assemblyman Schneider, the introducer of the measure, Chairman Kelsey refused to grant the request. It is expected that a hearing will be held in the very near future.

Beautiful Testimonials When Egyptian Monarchs Were Laid Away by the Ancients.

The center of interest for us to-day in Expet is the first dynasty time, and how far advanced in the arts of life were the men of that age may be seen by the beauty of shape of the stone and ninbaster vases that are here to view, and the exquisite workmanship of a little tollet nard or eye paint box carved out of a single block of ivory, and made in the shape of a couple of ducks whose tails are twisted together to form, as it were, the hinge of the box. The great gentleman who owned this was buried with 30 jars of offerings in his brick tomb, while 16 stone vases were near his body. He had as pillowstone a sandstone block for corn grinding and a beautiful shaped tazza of slate had been apparently placed at his head, says Atlantic. These among his vases had luin when Prof. Flinder Petrie and John Garstang brought his skull bones and his funeral furniture to the light of day.

But the table in the center of the room-it is to this we turn, for here are placed contemporary carvings in wood and ivory, weapons and pieces of the royal drinking bowls and furniture of seven of the eight kings of the first dynasty, and the work of two that preceded Aba-Mena. Here is a fragment of a slate bowl that the lips of Zeser the pre-Menite king perhaps have touched. Here is a fragment of an alabaster jar that bears upon it the name of Narmer, the succeeding sovereign, but my eyes went at once to the little bit of crystal vase which bore the name of Menn, for now I seemed to feel myth fade away and the real king who drank from a crystal goblet to the success of the city of Memphis he had built in fair fields from which he had turned the great Nile flood, seemed to stand before me.
