POLICE BILL PASSED.

State Senate Favors Single Headed Commission.

A DEATHBLOW TO CHIEF DEVERY.

Debate on New York City Measure Was Brief, and the Assembly Will Indoubtedly Make Equally Quick Work With It.

ALBANY, Jan. 30.-The New York city police bill passed the senate at 25 minutes past 6 o'clock last evening by a rote of 31 to 14. Five senators were ab

This is the bill providing for a single headed police commission. By its terms it practically legislates Chief of Police

While the mayor has the appointment of the police commissioner under this bill the appointer may at any time he removed by the governor. His term is five years and his salary $7,500. He has two deputies, which he blusself shall choose. The bill will come up in the assembly today, and an effort will be made to jam ir through.

The debate on the New York city police bill occupied the day in the senate. Sen-ators Donnelly and Poley, Democrats, attacked the measure and profested against the partisan advantage which they claimed the majority was taking. Senators Eleberg and Slater, Republicans, of New York city defended the bill and its constitutionality. Senator Stramshap spoke as sponsor for the measure and said that it should be passed without amoudment.

The attitude of Senator Malthy, Republican, of St. Lawrence county created a stir when he spoke on the measure. His argument against the bill was even more forceful and effective than that of the Democratic senators. But in condemning the bill in its present form he declared in favor of a metropolitan police hill and said that the state should take unto itself the administration of the police affairs of New York city. One provision in the present bill, he said, should be removed, the one which gives to the governor power to remove the commission without charges. He declared that to be unconstitutional. Senator Raines spoke at length in favor of the bill. Senator Grady replied to the assertions and arguments of the Republican senators.

The debate was terminated at 6:20 e clock by Senater Elisworth, who de-fended the measure and deplored the fact that so much valuable time should have

The indications are that all of the new taxation bills of Governor Odell will have to be amended. The governor himself makes this statement about them; The bills were drawn to initiate the ideas conveyed in my message, and they may have to be changed considerably in phraseology." The bill taxing savings banks upon their surplus is the first one to be found deficient, and suggestions have already been made to Senator Krum's committee on taxation.

The Fight Enjoined.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 29.-The suit to enjoin the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight at Cinelmanti was filed in the common pleas court of Hamilton county this morning. The petition, which is a voluninous document, was completed late yesterday. The Sangerfest Athletic Association company. the principals in the fight and their managers and the Cincinnati Zoological company, which owns the ground on which Sangerfest hall is situated, are made defendants. The petition recites that the proposed boxing contest is "a public nulsance and against the peace and digni-ty of the state." Among the allegations that will be made in support of this claim is that the event would attract a large number of "toughs" to Cincinnati.

The Peoria Robbery.

PEORIA. Ills., Jan. 28.-The exact loss sustained by the revenue office from the visit of the robbers Friday night last has been determined to be $31,976. This plunder taken consisted of revenue stamps of various denominations carried off by the robbers in the original package. The weight of the plunder was nearly 300 pounds. No clew has as yet been discovered that throws the slightest light on the matter. J. W. McGinnis, revenue agent of this district, is here, as well as several of the secret service men from Washington and Chicago who are at work on the case, but apparently with little hope of success.

Bigamist Howard Plends Guilty.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.-Public curiosi ty in the George W. Howard bigamy case has been disappointed again. There was a throng of the curious in and about the county courthouse in Brooklyn yes terday morning when the case was called for trial, but the defense sprung a surprise, entered a plea of guilty, and in less than 20 minutes from his appearance be-fore Judge ward Howard had left the courtroom to go to Sing Sing, sentenced to pass the next two years and ten months of his life at hard labor. The maximum penalty under the statute is

German Capital For Philippines. MANILA, Jan. 30 .- Mr. Krueger, the German consul, visited the Philippine commission yesterday. He said he represented two German companies that are waiting to invest $10,000,000 in gold in the mines, but are unable to do anything because of the nonexistence of mining laws. Mr. Krueger says he has cabled the foreign office at Berlin asking that instructions be sent to the German embassador at Washington to use his diplomatic influence for the advancement of the Spooner bill by the Ameri-

Oil From Under the Sea. AUSTIN, Jan. 29 .- The oil excitement is increasing throughout Texas. It is conservatively estimated by those who have been keeping in close touch with the movement that fully 5,000,000 acres of prospective oil lands have been leased in different parts of the state since the great usher near Beaumont was discovered ome days ago. The demand for well trilling rigs is unprecedented. Scores of these outfits are being shipped into the state from Pennsylvania and Indiana. There has been a big jump in land values.

VERDI'S DEATH

Long Struggle For Life-General fourning For the Great Composer. MILAN, Jan. 28.-Giuseppe Verdi, the composer, died at 2:50 o'clock Sunday morning. The doctors were astounded at the extraordinary vitality displayed by Verdi. Several times a suspension of breathing gave the impression that he had ex d, and a report was cabled abroad to that effect several hours before the end actually came.

Although preceded by a struggle for life that lasted two days, Verdi's death when it came was peaceful. He did not regain consciousness. When he passed away, he was surrounded by relatives and intimate friends.

The announcement of his death created great emotion. Theaters, pleasure reserts and many stores were closed.

He was created an Italian senator in 1874 and in 1875 made a commander of the Legion of Honor. The cause of his death was congestion of the brain.

THE FULL PENALTY.

Judge Dixon Has No Clemency For Jennie Bosschieter's Slayers.

PATERSON, N. J., Jan. 30.-So far as he could Judge Jonathan Dixon, sitting in the court of over and terminer here yesterday, redeemed the failure of Jerry justice in the Bosschieter murder With shaking voice, his face hardly under control and pale beyond its wonted whiteness, be told Walter C. Me-Alister, Andrew J. Campbell and William A. Death as they cowered before him that he proposed "to destroy their lives, to obliterate every bright prospect that they might have had of becoming good and useful citizens." From the first words of the judge, who had so plainly expressed his resentment at the part he would be called upon to play, there was not the slightest ray of hope of elemency for the wretched men who shrank at every sentence as at a blow. If Judge Dixon had been passing sentence of death, he could not have been more inexorable or more moved. He imposed the limit in every case-McAlister. Death and Campbell, 30 years at hard labor in state prison (and it should have been hanging, the judge said again yesterday); Kerr, 15 years (and his crime was worse than that of the others, the ert declared). While Judge Dixon was sentencing the prisoners Hugh Kerr, the father of George, lay dying within a stone's throw of the courthouse. Mr. Kerr is dying because of the disgrace of his son George. George did not know till last night that his father was so ill.

It was from the evening papers that found out. His friends had kept his father's condition concealed from him. Equally ignorant of the son's sentence will the father remain. He does not want to hear of the case at all.

A HEAD ON COLLISION.

Five Persons Killed and One Injured In West Virginia.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 29.-Five persons dead and one severely injured, two engines and ten loaded cars wrecked, is the result of the mistake of a train crew yesterday afternoon between Petroleum and Volcano Junction, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

It was the old story of the engineer be ing asleep at his post and mistaking the first section of a passing train for the ond. Thinking both had passed, he pulled his train on to the main track and sped onward to what would seem to have nee essarily been his death. All the dead are

A Fight With Moonshiners.

JACKSON, Ky., Jan. 28 .- The sharpest fight in the history of Kentucky moutshining occurred Friday morning between a revenue party of five and a force of moonshiners on Elkhorn creek. on the line between Pike and Knott counties. Elkborn creek is ten miles from Hindman and 30 miles from Jackson, the nearest railway station, and this, added to the fact that the entire posse of deputy United States marshals was captured, prevented the news from reaching revenue officials sooner. United States Marshal James received official notification of the fight from the revenue officer at Hindman and will send a strong party of revenue officers into the country to capture the outlaws.

DISASTROUS SITUATION REPORTED.

Revolution in Eastern Venezuela Near Asphalt Deposits Increasing. Insurgents Reported to Have Retaken Carupano.

PORT OF SPAIN, Triplead, Jan. 30. According to advices just received from Caracas, a trustworthy engineer who has arrived there from Pitch lake reports that the situation is disastrous. He says that 150 English negroes who were employed to do police duty fied when the in-surgents began firing into the jungles, only 25 Americans being left to protect the property and lives of American families, The messenger from the lake implored the United States legation at Caracas to afford protection, saying that the lives and property of Americans were exposed guerrilla attacks, firing around the lake going on nightly and the Americans being too few to hold out against a heavy

Mr. Olcott, the Orinoco manager, has cturned from Caracas, where he went try to arrange for the release of the stenmers and scheoners captured by a Venezuelan gunboat near Trinidad. The British owner flew the Venezuelan flag, and the crew was not shot.

The revolution in eastern Venezuela, ear the asphalt deposits, is increasing, but the disturbances are remote from 'aracas, which remains tranquil.

Information that has reached Port of Spain says that the insurgents have retaken Carupano and will attack Cumana soon. Steamers are not allowed to land passonrers or mails at Carupano. The commander of the French cruiser uchet, which lies there, confirms this intelligence and the reported activity of the insurgents. It appears that an attempt to capture Ciudad Bolivar, capital of the state of Belivar, about 375 miles up the Orinoco, is likely to be made as soon as the insurgents have received a large supply of arms expected.

Cables to the Trinidad papers from Caracas are severely censored. The Venezuelan government threatens three American reporters with forcible expulsion and is rigorously suppressing press dispatches to the United States. Even diplomatic messages are tampered with:

MRS. NATION LIVELY.

Attacks the Governor and Other Officials of Kansas.

TOPEKA, Jan. 29,-Mrs. Carrie Na tion yesterday invaded the office of Gov-William E. Stapley in his chambers in the capital building and for a solid hour arraigned the chief executive of the state for his failure to close the saoons of Kansas. Then in turn she visited the offices of Attorney General Goddard. County Attorney Nichols and Sheriff Porter S. Cook and demanded of each that they close the saloons.

When Mrs. Nation entered Governor Stanley's office, she was followed by a crowd of newspaper reporters and others. By turns she administered to Governor Stanley a tongue lashing for his failure to uphold the laws against liquor selling or begged him for aid to carry on her crusade. She put her questions with herceness and answered them herself without giving the governor time to utter a complete sentence in his own defense. Mrs. Nation accused the governor branding her as a lawbreaker and de-manded to know if he had a better meth-the oldest member of the New York bar, od than she of ridding the state of sa- died in Brooklyn.

Baron Rothschild Dead.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 26.-Baron Wilhelm von Rothschild, who died at noon yesterday, was the grandson of Maier Anslem Rothschild, who founded the great Rothschild banking house. He was born in Naples May 16, 1828. His father, Karl, was one of the five sons of the founder and established a branch in Naples. He was the oldest son and was taken into the business by his uncle, Anslem, who had no sen. For the same reason all of the sons of Karl were taken into the Frankfort business. It is intimated that the whole Rothschild banking system represents something approaching a billion dollars. The Paris branch has a nominal capitalization of $10,000,000, but its resources can be surmised when it is said that in 1841 it lost $60,000,000, but not for a moment was the house checked in its business. The 20 Rothschild families in Europe in spite of their numerous charities cannot spend half their income.

Young Crane Had a Bad Heart. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 28.-The autopsy on the body of Curtis L. Crane, who died while boxing with his closest friend, George R. Ainsworth, at Harvard university Saturday, shows that Crane died from heart disease. The autopsy was performed by Dr. Swan, the medical examiner for Middlesex county. He said one side of Crane's heart was very much enlarged, while the other side was very small, and any excitement or un-due exertion was likely to cause death. The excitement and the exertion necessary to boxing was stated to be the cause of death. As soon as the autopsy had been performed the body was taken to his parents' home in Brookline. The police on hearing the report of the med ical examiner decided to take no further action.

WANTED ROYAL VISITORS.

Paris Disappointed That More of Them Did Not Attend the Exposition.

Disguise it as you may, republican France has been bitterly disappointed at the absence of the principal crowned heads of Europe from the exposition. but most of all at that of the Russian sovereign. France considered and not unjustly-that so much was due to her from the son of a father whose memory is perpetuated in Paris by one of the most striking and beautiful monuments ever devised by an art-loving nation. France will not admit that the absence of crowned visitors of the first rank and their beirs was due to her own folly. She who is always preaching the solidarity of republicans all over the world will not admit that there may be such a solidarity among monarchs. And, even if she did admit it, she would fall to see the reason why Nicholas II. should not have made an exception in her favor. She thinks, though she does not say it, that her quondam ally owed her this, says the London Illustrated News.

There was no proof that Oscar of Sweden and Norway, Leopold of Belglum, and George of Greece are not as solicious of the prestige of their fellow sovereigns as the rest, but all three felt that they owed something to France and they were determined to acknowledge the obligation in that way. Orenr is of purely French descent; Leopold's father indirectly owed his crown to France, who fought the battles of Belgium against the Dutch, without which battles there would have been no Leopold J. George had to thank Napoleon III. for being where he is. These three sovereigns have shown their gratitude, and France, who can be very generous, will not forget this.

A TOUGH OLD SALT.

Admiral Keppel Has Spent a Lifetime in the British Marine Service.

The Keppel family, of England, of which the brave old admiral bearing the name is a member, is notorious for its toughness. Sir Harry, as the admiral is called, was conspicuous among the guests at Lady Mary Keppel's wedding a couple of weeks ago. Sir Harry retired from the royal navy in 1879, afer spending no less than 57 years in that service. In the China war of 60 years' back, he had command of the Dido, and won distinction, and he was quite an old fighting hand when he served in the Baltic and Black seas during the Crimean war. After the close of the Crimean compaign he returned to China and covered himself with glory in the desperate work in Fatshan creek. Keppel bay, in Borneo, now an old-established settlement, was called after him. Forty years ago he asked the electors of his beloved Portsmouth to let him go to parliament, but they insisted on keeping him to the quarter deck. The admiral is a fine specimen of the old-fashioned sea dog. and is as young yet as many who might be his grandchildren.
