The philosophy of the cures effected by this marvelous medicine is not hard to understand. Life is sustained by food, digested and assimilated. The basis of health is a good appetite and a sound digestion. In almost all cases of disease loss of appetite is an early symp-tom, and this is promptly followed by a wasting of the flesh. For some cause the food eaten is not being converted into nutrition and the body and its orpaupers Cast Iron K Incidentals, Wire Fencir New Groun gans, being starved, must grow weak. NEW YORK, Feb. 18.-Mayor Van Wyck vetoed on Saturday the single police commission bill and sent it back to the senate by registered mail in the evening. "Gosh!" said Uncle Hayseed, "I've heerd of purty tough hens, but them bricklayers I heerd of in the city must beat 'em all!"-Harlem Life. MAYDOLE'S HAMMER.

(Benson's Plaster Is Pain's Master.)

When Maydole was told that he made "a pretty good hammer," he said, "No, I don't make a 'pretty good hammer,' I make the best hammer that ever was made."

Every carpenter who saw a Maydole ham-mer wanted one. It was of the best ma-terial, perfectly balanced, and the head never flew off. Hammers were divided into two classes—lst, Maydole's; 2d, all the rest. Plasters are separated by the same line of cleavage; 1st, Benson's Porous Plaster; 2d, all the rest. When, for rheumatic pain, a cold, a cough, kidney trouble or any other disease or ailment that may be treated externally, you ask for a plaster, any hon-est, reputable druggist will give you a Benson's. He knows it is incomparably the best, and he assumes that you know it too. As the name of Maydole stood for hammers the name of Benson stands for plasters-the "real thing." All the medicinal poten-cies that are valuable in a plaster are in Benson's. Capsicum, Strengthening and Belladonna plasters are out of date.

An army of physicians and druggists, and millions of the people, have written of Benson's Plasters as a remedy to betrusted.

Benson's Plasters have fifty-five highest awards. Accept no substitute.

For sale by all druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States, on receipt of 25c. each. Scabury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N.Y.

Not to Blame.

"Babbert is an awfully poor judge of whisky, isn't he?" "Yes, he inherits it. He comes from . long line of druggists."-Life.
