

A HUMAN NEEDLE CASE.

More Than a Hundred Needles Extracted From French Girl's Body. PARIS, April 17.—A dispatch from St. Germain, near this city, describes the extraordinary case of Juliette Landrieux, a servant girl, from whose body dozens of needles are being extracted. The girl complained of considerable irritation of the skin and last Thursday went to a local druggist, who found a number of needles protruding from various parts of her body. He extracted them with pliers. The girl has returned several times a day since, and up to yesterday morning the druggist had drawn out 120 needles from her arms, hands, feet, breast, the lobe of her ear, her eyelids and the corner of her right eye. The girl experiences no pain until she feels the needle piercing the epidermis. The needles always emerge thick and fast and unless immediately extracted disappear again. Two reputable newspapers, the Matin and the Temps, have investigated the matter and vouch for the authenticity of the story. Mlle. Landrieux says that five years ago, when she was 11 years old, she amputated herself, with other children, by swallowing quantities of needles. She swallowed 40 in one day and never felt any inconvenience until recently and has enjoyed the best of health. While relating the foregoing to the reporter of the Temps who saw her at the druggist's, she exclaimed, "I feel one in my eye now." The druggist then returned her right eyelid and with a magnet drew out four fragments of needles.

HEAVY FINE FOR MRS. NATION.

Judge Tells Her Missouri Is No Place For Short Haired Women. KANSAS CITY, April 16.—Mrs. Carrie Nation was fined $750 by Judge McAuley in police court yesterday. "I'll give you a stay until 6 o'clock to-night," added his honor. "If you're found about Kansas City after that hour, the fine goes. I advise you to leave the city at once and the state too. Missouri is no place for you. This atmosphere does not agree with short haired women, long haired men or whistling girls. Go back to Kansas." Mrs. Nation had been occupying a seat of honor on the bench. She was speechless. All the comment she made was, "Sentence, humph!" Mrs. Nation came to Kansas City with Mrs. Mary E. White of Topeka. They created a disturbance at M. A. Flynn's saloon at 117 East Twelfth street. The two had dropped in at the saloon in the course of an exhorting tour. They took exception to its pictures. "You strip your mothers and hang them up here to drag young men to hell!" she shouted. Then Bartender Montville bounced her, and Detective Sparks, who happened along, found her holding forth to a crowd in the street. He called the "hoodlum wagon," and Mrs. Nation and her companion were haled to the Central police station.

The healthy old man wears his gray hairs like a silver crown. What if he be three-score and ten if there is still fire in his eye, firmness in his step, command in his voice and wisdom in his counsel? He commands love and reverence. Yet how few wear the mantle of age with dignity. Dim eyed, querulous of speech, halting in step, childish in mind, they "lag" superfluous on the stage," drooping on the lag end of life in a simple existence, the secret of a healthy old age is a healthy middle age. The man who takes care of his stomach, who keeps his body properly nourished, will find that the body does not fail him in old age. The great value of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery lies in the preservation of the working power of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. From this center is distributed the nourishment of the whole body, phosphates for the brain and for the bones, albumens for the brain and nerves. A sound stomach means a sound man. A man who keeps his stomach sound by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" will wear the crown of gray hairs as befits a monarch, with dignity and ease. The critic feels that he is safe because he seldom does anything worth criticizing.
