Two Women Who Were About to Be Placed in Their Coffins.

One Lived in New York, the Other in Indiana-Consciousness Returned to Both While They Were Clothed in Buriat Robes.

Miss Louise Schaefer, of 140 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, News York, was to all appearances dead, The crape was ordered for the door. Friends and relatives had been notifled. Father and sister were making plans for the funeral.

In an adjoining room Frank Faber, an undertaker's assistant, was preparing the body for burial. He took up the limp arms to fold them on the breast, but dropped them in amazement. He was sure he felt a tremor run through the body. As he stood there estonished Miss Schaefer sat up in bed. Her eyes opened. "What do you mean?" she gasped, and then sank back into a coma, seems ingly as dead as before.

The startled Faber rushed from the house and returned with Dr. U. S. Ward, of 1808 Lexington Avenue. Hearing that Miss Schaefer had revived once from the coma, Dr. Ward resorted to heroic measures to restore heart ac

After a free use of nitroglycerin and digitalis Miss Schaefer's heart again began to beat, and again she sat up and gasped: "What do you mean?"

This was on Wednesday afternoon. All night Dr. Ward worked with the young woman, keeping her heart in action by artificial respiration. Again and again she sank into a coma, from which she was with difficulty aroused.

MRS. TAYLOR CAME BACK TO LIFE

but her case attracted so much atten tion that she was removed to a pr vate hospital, the location of which ha been kept a secret.

She and her sister, Miss Elizabet Schaefer, are teachers in the publi schools. Miss Schaefer was ill o chronic gastritis. The nursing dur ing the day was left to her old fa ther. It was on Wednesday when sh sank into a coma, from which he coul not arouse her, and thought her dead

"In all my experience," Undertake Faber said the other night, "I have never before seen any one whose ap pearance more convincingly indicate death."

Another startling case of a like na ture is reported from Brazil, Ind. Pro nounced dead by her family physician mourned over by her husband and oth ers of the family, laid out in her buria robes awaiting the hour for interment Mrs. Cyrus Taylor came back to life and is well on the way to complete re

It was a dramatic and weird scenwhen the woman so near to the gravopened her eyes upon the room o mourning. Surrounding her were number of neighbors, women who has known her for years, with tears in their eyes, recounting her good quali There was a quiver of the lip and Mrs. Taylor's cyclids twitched then were raised, and she looked into the faces of her friends.

For a moment all were too startled to move, then one woman shouted with joy and members of the household rushed to the room. A physician wa summoned and restoratives adminis

Taylor is a farmer, whose place i seven miles from Brazil. He is pros perous and well known in that par of the state. Mrs. Taylor, who is abou 40 years of age, had been sick for some time and death had been expected, a she was weakened by a fever.

Mrs. Taylor is too weak yet to talk much about her unusual experience, but it is claimed that she realized her condition for some time before she could make known to her relatives that she was alive. She knew she was thought to be dead and that active preparations were being made for her burial, and she feared she would be buried while alive.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." The way to judge of the value of any medicine is by its cures. Apply that test to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it is at once lifted high above all other put-up medicines designed for the cure of womanly diseases. Chronic forms of disease which local physicians have failed to cure, and which have yielded to no other treatment, have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. flammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Shopshire, of Ballou, Shelby Co., Ohio, writes. "My mother had an ovarian tumor which we thought would result in her death, but we had read your advertisements and we commenced using your 'Pavorite Prescription.' We got one dozen bottles to commence with, and before she had taken three bottles she began to improve; she is living to-day and we have given your medicine the credit. My mother was sixty-six years old when the tumor commenced to grow; she is seventy-six now and the tumor is all gone. She had gotten awfully large, and her limbs began to swell before we began to use your 'Pavorite Prescription."
