THURSDAY, JULY 4, 1901.

The Senate has finally passed the House bill authorizing County Commissioners to pay constables for services rendered in making returns to the Court of elections and for attending general, special, borough, township and ward elections and traveling expenses since January 1st 1897, in all cases where the same remain unpaid.

The Prohibitionists in convention on Thursday last nominated the following state ticket: For Supreme Court Judge, Isaac Monderan of Meadville; State Treasurer, J. J. Porter of Pittsburg. Charles R. Jones of Philadelphia was re-elected State Chairman. A platform denouncing all parties and demanding an equal rights ballot was adopted.

PHILADELPHIA AROUSED.

When the political machine in Philadelphia unceremoniously side-tracked District Attorney P. F. Rothermel for renomination, it was the last straw, and the people of that city were at last aroused from their lethargy. They found themselves in the hands of a gang backed by the Governor, the two United States Senators, the Legislature, the Mayor and the City Councils, through whose machinations the city had been robbed of millions of dollars by the street railway legislation. Then in order to prevent prosecutions for bribery and other corruption, it was necessary to get rid of Mr. Rothermel, an upright, able and fearless official, and to put in his place a tool of the machine. Such a person was found in an unknown lawyer named Weaver, who was nominated for District Attorney by the Republican convention. A mass meeting was held in the Academy of Music last Thursday night, and Mr. Rothermel nominated, and he has accepted. Measures are being taken for a vigorous campaign, and a full State and City ticket will be named, which will be supported by all independent Republicans, and which ought to have the unqualified endorsement of the Democrats. As the Democratic ringsters of Philadelphia are as corrupt as the machine, and stand in with the latter in all jobbery, no doubt the Ryan-Donnelly organization will do all in its power to force the nomination of a straight Democratic ticket in order to insure the election of the machine Republican candidates.

This gang ought to be repudiated by the State Democratic organization, and it looks as though it will be. It is with the connivance of such men that the Democratic vote in Philadelphia is almost out of sight. The Democracy must shake them off if it ever hopes to succeed.

An Act Relating to Bad Boys.

The following act relating to incorrigible boys will be read with interest by everyone except by the class of boys against whom it is intended to operate. Good behavior, however will have a tendency to reduce their cause for alarm:

AN ACT, Authorizing judges of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace, magistrates and justices of the peace to commit vicious or incorrigible minors, of the male sex, to the Philadelphia Protectory for Boys, located at Protectorsy, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., that from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for judges of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace, magistrates and justices of the peace in this Commonwealth to commit, with the consent of parent, guardian or custodian, vicious or incorrigible minors, of the male sex, to the Philadelphia Protectory for Boys, located at Protectorsy, Montgomery county, Pennsylvania.

Section 2. Such commitment shall be made by any judge, magistrate or justice, as aforesaid, upon complaint and due proof that such minor, by reason of incorrigible behavior or vicious conduct, has become beyond the control of his parents, guardians or custodians.

Approved the 11th day of May, A. D. 1901.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, July 1, 1901.

Secretary Gage is chafing under the muzzle that has been put upon him by the Administration, and some predict that it may result in his resignation. Since turning the matter over to the diplomatic corps of the Government with the hope of reaching a satisfactory settlement of the tariff war with Russia, into which Sec'y Gage's blundering construction of law plunged this country, President McKinley informed Secretary Gage that he must cease talking for publication about the acts which led to the tariff war. This Mr. Gage is inclined to regard as a double reflection on his judgment, but whether he will take it seriously enough to resign is not yet apparent. Those best informed express the opinion that the interests which placed Mr. Gage in charge of the financial branch of the government will intervene, if necessary, to prevent his resigning, as they do not wish to take any chances with a new man.

The Republican fight over the control of the Pension Bureau is growing sensational, Commissioner Evans last week made a statement—his first public resistance to the demand for his removal—that breathes defiance between the lines and may be considered a dare to President McKinley to redeem the written promise of the Republican Nat'l Committee to Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, during the campaign last year, that Evans would not be continued at the head of the Pension Bureau during his administration, if Mr. McKinley were elected. Mr. Evans intimates that in addition to the desire of the pension sharks to control the work of the Pension Bureau there are Republican politicians who wish a change because they have not been allowed to dictate in defiance of law appointments and promotions in the bureau. Taken all in all this statement of Mr. Evans would be "hot stuff" in much colder weather than that which Washington is now passing through, and his friends say he has unlimited ammunition for more of the same sort and that having become tired of being abused for doing his duty and standing between the Government and a ring of pension looters, he will use it without regard to who is hit if the fight against him is kept up. Democrats are playing the role of interested spectators in this fight. Gen. Sickles, who used to be a Democrat, and who is a leader on the anti-Evans side, was a McKinley stumper both in 1896 and 1900, and "Corporal" Tanner, who seems to be second in command, is a Republican who was summarily kicked out of the office of Pension Commissioner by the late Benjamin Harrison for doing the very thing that Evans is being fought for not doing.

The opinion is increasing among democrats that the republican talk about revising the tariff so as to hit trust-controlled articles is nothing more than a vote-making bluff. In many Congressional districts in the west and middle-west there is a strong sentiment among the republican voters against trusts. It is to keep this vote from being lost to the party that the tariff revision talk was started, and it is expected that a considerable number of republican Representatives from that section will make speeches during the coming session of Congress in favor of taking the duty off trusts: controlled articles, not because they expect or really desire any legislation along that line, but because the speeches will make good campaign documents in next year's Congressional fight.

It seems that Secretary Gage's order imposing a countervailing duty on Italian sugar, on the suspicion that Italy was paying an export bounty on sugar, was as big a blunder as that he made about Russian sugar. The Italian government has officially informed this government that it does not pay a bounty on sugar exported, just as Russia did. Matters of this sort are too important and far reaching in their effect to be determined upon without absolute knowledge of the facts.

Within a few days, probably next week, the advisory headquarters of the Ohio republicans will be established in the Canton home of President McKinley, and the adviser-in-chief will be no less a personage than President McKinley himself. Although there is no national issue involved in the Ohio campaign this year, unless the election of a legislature that will name Senator Foraker's successor can be considered such, President McKinley is very anxious that the republicans shall win, not that he would grieve to see Foraker lose his seat in the Senate, but because of its moral effect on the Congressional campaign of next year. As a shrewd politician he recognizes that unless the republicans can retain control of Congress many of his plans concerning the Philippines will be upset, as he has no idea that all those plans will be put into effect through legislation by the present Congress.

Espy and its Long-lived Inhabitants.

The little town of Espy, this county, says the Berwick Enterprise, affords a remarkable instance where longevity among the inhabitants seems to be the rule. The town has a population of a trifle more than 400 souls. In the place there are eight persons over eighty years of age, thirty-two over seventy years and sixty-five over sixty years. A safe average of the 105 persons in question is 72 years, which is certainly hard to beat in a town of less than 500 population. Good sanitation must obtain in Espy along with a general observance of the rules of health.

MR. EATON'S PROMOTION.

At the meeting of directors of the American Car & Foundry Company, held June 27th, 1901, by unanimous action of the Board of Directors the position of chairman of the board was abolished; an Executive Committee was created, consisting of William McMillan, chairman; W. K. Bixby, vice-chairman; and Frederick H. Eaton, president.

The Executive Committee were charged with the control over and general supervision of the policy and business interests of the company and of all its affairs.

Mr. Eaton, the newly-elected president, is a former Berwick resident, and was for many years employed by the Jackson & Woodin Co. It is said that his salary is $60,000 a year. W. H. Woodin has been made assistant to the president with a salary of $40,000 a year.
