

SULTAN A PERJURER

France Severs Relations With Turkey.

TURKISH EMBASSADOR IS WARNED.

A Semi-official Note Declares That Negotiations For a Settlement of Differences is Now at an End.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—A semi-official note just issued says:

"On Aug. 17 an arrangement concerning the various disputes between France and Turkey was effected with the note. The terms were drafted by the Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, Tewfik Pasha, with the approval of the sultan, who promised M. Constans, the French ambassador to Constantinople, that the full text would be handed to him on Aug. 18. M. Constans telegraphed on Aug. 19, that none of the terms promised had been fulfilled.

"On Aug. 21 M. Constans, the minister of foreign affairs, telegraphed M. Constans that in view of the complete disregard of its undertakings by Turkey France was unable to continue the negotiations. M. Delcasse requested M. Constans to inform the porte that he had received orders to leave Constantinople.

"M. Constans communicated this to the porte on Aug. 23 and announced that he would depart on Aug. 26. As none of the terms promised had been kept on that date M. Constans left Constantinople.

"With the departure of M. Constans from Constantinople the relations between France and Turkey may be regarded as having been broken off.

"Munir Bey, the Turkish ambassador to France, who is absent from Paris, has been requested by telegraph not to return here, in order that the government may not be compelled to hand him his passports.

A newspaper here, announcing that M. Constans, French minister to Constantinople, has been recalled, adds that France is prepared to send a naval division to the Bosphorus to repair the injury done by the sultan, who has twice perjured himself. This news is discredited. The Journal des Debats declares that the French demands on Turkey have not been definitely accepted and adds that the previous reports of a settlement were too optimistic.

Chun's Delay Causes Comment.

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—In view of the fact that the expiatory mission of Prince Chun, brother of the emperor of China, was one of the conditions of peace embodied in the demands of the powers the interruption of the journey of Prince Chun, who is now in Basel, Switzerland, has created considerable comment. The excuse of sickness is nowhere entertained seriously. Taken in conjunction with the sudden detention in Shanghai of the expiatory mission to Japan, it is believed to indicate fresh complications with reference to the signing of the protocol in Peking. The German papers, which comment in a guarded way, suggest that the delay of Prince Chun is due to an intimation from Emperor William as to certain matters of ceremony and etiquette with which Prince Chun is unable or unwilling to comply without permission from the Chinese court.

The bodies of the old gentleman and daughter were recovered. The bodies of the two boys have not been found.

DRIVEN TO CANNIBALISM.

Party of Klondike Gold Seekers Nearly Starved.

ORWEGO, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A letter just received from William C. Brown, a Klondike gold seeker, relates a startling story of starvation which drove the members of a party to the point of preparing to become cannibals.

Brown relates that George Dean, Jack Huston and Joseph Thierry, prospectors started several months ago from their camp on Portage creek in an endeavor to reach civilization. Their progress was impeded by swollen streams, and they left that route to seek another. Their provisions gave out, and for 22 days they subsisted on snails, grass, roots and the eggs of wild fowl.

The day after Dean's death Louis Reich and George Wood, who were prospecting in the neighborhood, were attracted by peculiar cries as of some one in distress. They made their way to the river bank and there discovered Huston and Thierry, who had cut flesh from the body of Dean and were about to cook it. The rescuers were just in time to prevent this.

MANILA, Aug. 27.—A dispatch from Mindoro describes how Lieutenant Hazard of the Third cavalry, commanding a troop of Mancebo scouts, captured the American deserter Howard, who as a leader of the Filipinos had been annoying the Americans for many months.

Ferguson, one of Lieutenant Hazard's civilian scouts, disguised as an insurgent, with eight Mancebos, penetrated into the camp of Colonel Atienza, commanding 240 riflemen and 200 bolomen, at night. They found Howard, bound and gagged him and led him away without disturbing the camp.

DOVER, England, Aug. 28.—Mr. Holbein, who on the anniversary of Captain Webb's swim from Dover to Calais started from Cape Gris-Nez, between Boulogne-sur-Mer and Calais, in an attempt to swim to Dover, narrowly escaped drowning. He covered the course to a point within six miles of Dover and then collapsed after having been in the water 12 hours and 46 minutes.

Allowing for his zigzag course, it is estimated that he swam 26 miles. When he was taken from the water, Dover was about five miles north-northeast. His next attempt he promises to make next year.

The man who can hardly crawl, and has just strength to get through a day's work, has no strength left for family life. He wants to be quiet; to be alone, out of sight and sound of everybody.

What a difference between such a man and the healthy, hearty man, who romps with his children and rides his laughing baby to "Banbury Cross."

What makes the difference? Usually disease of the stomach, involving the entire digestive and nutritive system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When these diseases are cured the hindrance to the proper nourishment of the body is removed and strength comes back again.

"I am happy to say I am getting to feel fine," writes Mr. A. J. Vanderwater, of 573 West Division Street, Chicago, Ill. "I have taken six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four or five vials of the little 'Pellets.' They have done me worlds of good. These medicines have brought the great change in me from a slow mope of a man that could hardly crawl, tired and sick all the time, and could do no work. Now I can work, sleep, eat and feel fine, and that tired feeling is all going away. I am very thankful that I wrote to Dr. Pierce. His 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his little 'Pellets' have almost made a new man of me. I feel young as I did at thirty years. No other doctor for me, only Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
