Rev. W. M. Tinker, of Brooklyn N. Y. preached in the Baptist Church Sunday.

Take your bike to the Bloomsburg Cycle Works, rear of Moore's store, for all repairs.

Edward Lewis played base ball with Danville against Milton yesterday afternoon. Milton triumphed over our neighboring town. Score, 3 to 2.

Bloomsburg sent a good sized crowd to the festival at Grangeville Saturday evening. There were fifty one tickets, beside the Bloomsburg Band, sold at the Lackawanna station, and quite a number boarded the special train at Main street.

The Winonas have a somewhat monotonous monotone artist, who will monologue and sing the hog the newest humoristics "Hold Fast" and "I Guess That'll be All," at their minstrel performance in the Opera House Monday evening Sept. 16th.

Rev N. Myers officiated at a happy nuptial event in Catawissa Wednesday evening. The ceremony took place at the Lutheran parsonage. The contracting party was Mr. William Roder and Miss Cora Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fox.

A small fire, caused presumably from the explosion of a lamp occurred at the residence of Charles VanLiew on East Seventh street near Park, about nine o'clock Thursday night. The occupants were out at the time, but the blaze was discovered before the building was damaged to any extent.

The Danville Bessemer Steel company management expects to start up its new tool and shovel plant about the middle of this month. The full output will be 200 dozen daily. The new machinery has cost between $75,000 and $100,000. The company has $100,000 working capital, after paying for the new machinery, etc., and is entirely free from indebtedness.

Bloomsburg captured the first game from the Reliance Club of Mt. Carmel at that place on Labor Day. The victory was the result of Frank Shaffers masterly pitching, only four hits being secured off his delivery. Coffman and Boyd Shaffer each made phenomenal catches. The score was 3 to 2. In the afternoon our boys played a good game, but were outbatted. Mt. Carmel won this contest 15 to 13. The attendance at the afternoon game was large.

Miss Rachel Long, employed as a spinner at the Silk Mill met with a serious accident at the mill Thursday last. She was reaching under her machine for a "quill" that had fallen on the floor, when her hair was caught up by the rapidly revolving shaft. Her cries brought help, but before the machinery could be stopped, a considerable portion of her hair was torn from the head. She was removed to her home and Dr. Bruner summoned. It is hoped that the hair will grow in again.

Auctioneer John S. Williams conducted a sale of bonds in front of the Court House Monday morning. The following were sold: 5 shares of Silk Mill stock, par value $100, a share for $106.50 a share, to E. F. Carpenter; $100 Carpet Mill bond to A. Z. Miss Lulu Houser left on Monday afternoon for Bloomsburg, Columbia County, Penna., where she will accept a position as instructor in English Literature and Elocution in the High Schools of that city at a comfortable salary. This is an excellent position and speaks in the highest praise of Miss Houser and her talents and as the pupil of Prof. Pinkley, and all who know this charming young lady will bespeak much and lasting success to her in her chosen profession. We truly wish that her path may be smooth and that she may impart much of her graciousness to those into whose company she may mingle.—The Times, Felicity, Ohio, Aug. 29.

The grand jury last evening returned a true bill against Jacob Evans, of Rohrsburg, who is charged with the murder of Thomas McHenry. Immediately after the finding of the jury had been announced, District Attorney John G. Harman asked for a continuance of the case until the December term. The request was granted by Judge Little and the bail of $2000, under which Evans had been given his freedom at the habeas corpus hearing was revoked, and the prisoner was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, to await trial. The continuance of the case occasioned no surprise, as it had been rumored on Monday that it would be carried over.

Evans appeared calm and collected, and displayed no signs of nervousness. He feels certain of his ultimate acquittal. To friends he expressed himself as follows:

"I am very glad that a true bill was returned, because I realize that it is only by a trial and acquittal that I can fully wipe out the stain of the arrest. When the time comes I can prove my innocence beyond a doubt."

His former bondsmen were present and offered to furnish bail in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars.

HORSES RAN AWAY.

Pierce Rhone, son of John Rhone, of Rohrsburg, was seriously injured in a runaway near Espy Wednesday. The horses took flight at one of the trolley cars, and before they could be stopped Mr. Rhone was thrown out, his head coming in contact with a telegraph pole. He sustained a severe scalp wound, and the services of a physician were necessary to relieve his suffering.

A very profitable opportunity is offered to the public at private sale, in Greenwood township.

SA FARM

of about 83 acres, with mill attached, and 80 arranged that all machinery may be attached. Also a Chopping Mill which, by reason of its central location, has a large patronage and does a big custom grinding business. Also a SAW MILL, with either steam or water power (over 30 horse). The property is in a splendid location—no hills to contend with, and will make one of the best little farms in the Greenwood valley. There is considerable timber on the farm. There is also a large, new barn on the premises. Prospective purchasers will do well to investigate, as the property will positively be sold. J. W. EVANS.

"ELITE" FRENCH CHINA.

We desire our patrons to know that we sell the famous "Elite" china, now so extensively advertised in leading periodicals. Dainty odd pieces or complete sets may be had at prices no higher than you would pay for ordinary makes. The "Elite" mark means perfection.

Have you read the story "Limoges—Its People—Its China"? If not, leave your name at our store and we will obtain a copy for you, free.
