The tribute paid to the memory of President McKinley on the day of his burial was such as the world has never seen before. Memorial services were held throughout the land, and at the hour when the casket was placed within the tomb at Canton, all traffic ceased. Railroad trains and trolley cars stopped for five minutes, vehicles also stopped and the dense throngs on the city streets stood still and men took off their hats. It was a fitting tribute to a soldier, a statesman, and christian gentleman, who in all the walks of life to which he had been called, had proven faithful to the trust. The death of President McKinley has cemented the people of this nation into one band of lawloving patriotic American citizens, as no event has ever done before.

It was with great difficulty that the leaders of the Democratic party cheerfully in the arrangement which and the opportunity to remedy all could restrain the late state con- had been made and they escaped wrongs is the rightful heritage of all the Ryan-Donnelly gang out of the party and out of the convention. THE COLUMBIAN took the position from the first that they were traitors and ought to be turned out. But for the sake of peace they were tolerated, and a committee of six Democrats was appointed by the convention to assist Governor Pattison in Philadelphia to reorganize the party. Their efforts were a total failure. Under orders from Ryan and Donnelly, the city convention last week utterly ignored Pattison and Guffey and Creasy, and refused to nominate a fusion ticket. In so doing they obeyed the orders of the Durham-Ashbridge machine, and proved themselves the traitors that they have long been accused of being. Governor Pattison at once resigned as chairman of the city committee, and his action is endorsed by Col Guifey. They will now endeavor to organize a new Democracy in Philadelphia, and by fusion with the Union party will endeavor to overthrow the corrupt Republican machine and its Democratic annex. The Ryan-Donnelly gang should never again be permitted to enter a Democratic convention.

It is small wonder, in view of these facts that the reform press of the State rejoices over the change in the affairs of the Philadelphia Democracy.

Make your threats and lay your plans for wilder orgies of riot, and bacchanals of blood! But know ye that the giant of law is awaking from his sinful steep and criminal indifference; and with his strong right arm, panoplied with the power of God, will speedily smite you with the stroke of retribution and bitter death. The battle is the Lord's. God help us to gird the loins of our manhood with the girdle of righteousness!

It seems almost incredible that within the lifetime of a middle-aged man, so many administrators of human governments have been assassinated. The Czar of Russia, three Presidents of the United States, the Prince of Servia, the Duke of Parma, the Prince of Montenegro, the President of the French Republic, two Sultans of Purkey, King Humbert of Italy, and Empress Elizabeth of Austria: while repeated attempts have been made on the lives of Wm I, of Germany, the late Queen of England, the King and Queen of Spain; and men in high official capacity, in many countries, as Bismark, Lord Lytton, Lord Frederick Cavendish, and M. Crispi.

How shall we speak of these men who call themselves anarchists? Men, did I say? Heaven save the mark! In both intellect and heart, they carry nothing but the base counterfeit marks of that divine manhood, which God coined out of His own life, and made current in both earth and Heaven.

But once more the execrable deeds of these haters of mankind have shocked the world. The people of a great nation stand today with bowed heads and broken hearts, as with eyes that pierce all distance they look upon the silent features of their fallen leader. Great heart! God's son! brother to all races who love liberty, and do the truth! for the moment we are orphaned, and for all coming days impoverished, by the untimely stilling of the pulses that have always throbbed with hope and courage for the betterment of men, and the ushering in of Liberty's more perfect day. His was a manhood, which as a son, and husband, brother and friend had come to an almost perfect blossoming; and in which as diplomat and statesman, it had reached an almost golden zenith. Smitten with astonishment, and bowed with a sorrow that finds no due expression, we turn for comfort to his last brave words: "God's will, not ours, be done," and offer as a prayer both for our country and ourselves, the words he chanted with his dying breath, "Nearer My God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee.'

"My captain does not answer, his lips are pale and still; My Father does not feel my arm, he has no pulse nor will. The ship is anchored safe and sound, its voyage closed and done. From fearful trip the victor ship, comes in with object won:

Exult O Shores, and ring O bells, but I with mournful tread Walk the deck my Captain lies, Fallen, cold and dead.
