

LOUISE,
The Newest and Best
$3.00
Shoe for women.
Light, flexible soles.
Very Shapely and Easy.
Name Stamped on Every Shoe.
None genuine without it.
W. C. McKINNEY,
8 E. Main St.

THE COLUMBIAN.
BLOOMSBURG, PA.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1901
Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa.,
a second class matter, March 1, 1888.

APPRENTICE WANTED.
Boy wanted at this office to learn printer's trade. Must be at least sixteen years of age, and a fair reader and speller. Resident of town preferred.

Legal advertisements on page 7.
Three months from now we will be writing 1902.

Chestnuts are in market. They will be plentiful this year.

For books, of all kinds, go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

C. R. Housel has opened a fish and oyster stand on Iron street.

James Shultz has accepted a position as coachman for Paul E. Wirt.

It is rumored that P. B. Heddens has purchased the Iron street hotel property.

For a good bicycle, either ladies' or gent's, go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

A pool tournament between the first and second teams is in progress at the Wheelmen's Club House.

The Winona Company's 20th Century Minstrels are arranging to appear in Berwick in the near future.

Get your panacea for your little chicks and lice powder to kill the lice, at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

A handsome monument has been erected to the memory of the late Peter S. Harman, in Rosemont Cemetery.

Mrs. Robert Moore on Tuesday resigned as janitor of the M. E. church. A successor has not yet been chosen.

Our townsman W. H. Gilmore, together with four other well known firemen of the state, are caricatured in yesterday's North American.

Entries for the races are pouring in. It is expected that some last time will be made. Democracy, the favorite of past seasons will be here again.

J. Wesley Cornelius, a former District Deputy Grand Regent of the Royal Arcanum, was buried at Lewisburg Saturday. Prof. G. E. Wilbur attended the funeral.

Telephone.
FISHING TACKLE.
Have just received a large assortment of fine fishing tackle. Everything of the latest pattern

—AND—
Highest Grade.

Rods from $1.25 to $5.50
Reels from 75c. to $2.00
Lines from 10c. to $2.00
Flies, a Full Assortment.
Hooks, all Styles

OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT.

W. S. Rishton, Ph. G.
Ent. Building. Pharmacist

Hammocks—many styles and many prices—at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Potatoes have dropped in price. The tubers can now be purchased for sixty cents a bushel.

It is claimed that a 100,000 people paid admission to the Allentown Fair last Thursday.

Envelopes, paper, tablets, box paper and all stationery, at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

The Hazleton Standard says there is a weekly exodus of 200 foreigners from that region. They are going home.

C. B. Ent has resumed his position as conductor on the Electric railway. Mr. Ent is very popular with the patrons of the road.

The Normal foot ball team will open the season Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. They will have for their opponents the Hazleton High School.

Unless voters are aroused to the fact that an election takes place on November 5th it is said that the vote in Columbia county will be the lightest in years.

Rev. F. B. Riddle of Center street was visited by a second stroke of paralysis Wednesday morning. He is unable to use his right arm and that side of his body is apparently dead. His speech is also affected.

Michael Casey, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Casey, of Pine Street, is quite sick with appendicitis. He has been ill for over a week but the nature of his disease was only determined on Tuesday.

The Orangeville station of the Bloomsburg & Sullivan Railroad was entered by burglars Monday night and two nights previous an attempt was made to rob C. L. Sands' store at Mordansville.

Cleveland Coleman is confined in the jail charged with house breaking. A. Burke, an accomplice, is still at large. It is also reported that there was a girl with them. L. R. Jacoby of Mt. Pleasant township is the prosecutor.

The musical and literary entertainment in the Almedia M. E. church Tuesday evening was a successful event. The program rendered has been favorably commented upon by those who attended. The proceeds were devoted to the church fund.

Ralph Smoyer, who was formerly employed at the freight station of the D. L. & W. Railroad Company has purchased the grocery store on Iron Street, between Main and Third Streets, from Frank Cavane. Mr. Smoyer is a persevering young man and deserves to succeed.

Last week closed the twenty-sixth year of THE COLUMBIAN under its present management. Mr. Elwell has first become an owner of the paper on October 1st, 1875. The office celebrated the anniversary by the purchase of a new job press and some other up-to-date machinery.

The office of Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts, the nomination for which will be made next spring is already receiving the attention of local politicians. Names mentioned as aspirants for the position are: Rush Zarr, Esq., John K. Miller, C. M. Terwilliger and Through complaint of Mary O'Connell to Guy Jacoby Esq., the overseers of the poor have placed her son James O'Connell in the Asylum for the Insane at Danville for treatment. He is about twenty seven years of age and began acting queer about five years ago. He grew steadily worse until it became necessary to take the above action. He was accompanied to the Hospital by constable Betz.

The Bloomsburg Car Manufacturing Company is busily engaged on repair work for the D. L. & W. Railroad Company.

The B. F. Sharpless farm, in Scott township, and some property adjoining, has been purchased by E. B. Tustin, where he proposes to build a summer residence.

Home grown peaches have never been more plentiful or larger in size. Farmers who take care of their trees are demonstrating that peaches can be profitably grown here.

Charles Coffman of 583 West Main street celebrated his thirty-third birthday anniversary last evening. His friends were present in goodly numbers and a pleasant evening was spent.

A nuptial event of more or less interest to Bloomsburg people was solemnized at Shenandoah Thursday last. The contracting parties were Clarence M. Hower and Miss Minnie Davis. The groom has extensive acquaintance hereabouts.

Rev. D. E. Rupley a former Catawissa was on Wednesday of last week, elected Chaplain of the National Camp Patriotic Sons of America. The occasion was the twenty-first bi-ennial session of the order and was held at Buffalo.

J. J. Robinson whose home was among those burglarized Sunday evening is of the belief that the violations were committed by a lot of boys, because the tracks around the window through which they entered were made by shoeless feet.

I will exchange stock in the re-organized Carpet Works for Ingrain and Tapestry Bonds, on payment of two per cent. assessment on Bonds. For particulars apply to CHARLES H. WELLES, 4J Connell Bldg., Scranton, Pa.

George Warr and Miss Mary Umstead joined hands at the Evangelical Parsonage on East Fourth street Thursday evening. The announcement was a pleasant surprise to the friends of the young people, and was the occasion for hearty congratulations.

Miss Rose Klatka, of Numedia, was painfully injured at Mt. Carmel Saturday morning. The horse which she was driving suddenly bolted and ran into a fence, throwing her under the wheels. She sustained ugly cuts on the arm and some bones broken.

The A. & T. Biograph Company will give its unparalleled exhibition of moving pictures in the Methodist Episcopal church at Lime Ridge, Friday evening, October 18. Also D. J. Tasker in illustrated songs. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Lime Ridge grammar school.

Benjamin Burrows, an employee of the Bloomsburg Car shops was injured Friday morning. Several workmen who stood near feared that the accident would be a fatal one, and it was rumored on the street that he had been killed. An examination, however, revealed the fact that no bones had been broken, although his right arm was considerably bruised. The misfortune will prevent his working for several days at least.

Harry Rosenthal and John Smith were arrested at Wilkesbarre on Saturday. It appears that they purchased a car load of peaches and forgot to settle for them. The complainant in the case was Casper F. Hosfield, a shipper of Shippensburg. Rosenthal was placed under $1000 bail, but his partner absconded, and could not be found. Rosenthal has at different times during the past few years sold fruit of various kinds on our streets.

The raising of Belgian Hares as a food supply is a rapidly growing industry. The Belgian Hare has a light rich meat and such a pleasing flavor as delights the palate of the epicure. To those wishing to purchase for the table, I will be in position to supply the winter demand at prices within the reach of all. Those wishing to purchase stock to breed will do well to see my pedigreed stock. Call or address: BLOOMSBURG RABBITRY, 10-3 2d PAUL Z. HARMAN, Prop.

George Anderson, one of Danville's colored residents, was arrested there on Saturday by officers Mincemoyer and Voris, on charge of betrayal preferred by a young woman of like complexion, of Bloomsburg. He was placed in the "cooler" over Sunday. Monday morning he was given a free ride to this town and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Guy Jacoby for a hearing. He was unable to secure bail, and in compliance with the law was sent to jail.

PURELY PERSONAL

Robert Buckingham Esq., has gone to Philadelphia.

Miss Sarah Logan is visiting in Philadelphia this week.

Lawrence Tooley paid a visit to his mother at Danville Sunday.

Ray Hartman is home from DuBois on a visit with his parents.

Miss Lizzie Hilday is confined to her home on Iron street by illness.

John Watson has returned to Dickinson Law School at Carlisle.

Frank H. Sloan, of Baltimore, spent Tuesday with his father on Market street.

Mrs. Guy Jacoby visited her aged mother Mrs. Robert Partison at Lightstreet Tuesday.

Hon. J. M. Fritz of Nanticoke, was the guest of his cousin Hon. A. L. Fritz over Sunday.

Mrs. Judge Elwell returned from Towanda last Saturday, after an absence of several weeks.

J. C. Holt of Tamaqua, the well known pool and billiard table manufacturer, was in town on Monday.

George Appleman of Rohrsburg went to Muncy today to contest with the quoit pitchers of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Waller have closed their residence on Fifth street and moved to Wilkes-Barre for the winter.

Will Eastman and Clint Furman left on the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday afternoon for a trip to Philadelphia.

Alex Jackson Esq., accompanied by his wife came down from Berwick over the trolley Sunday. They returned home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Small of Catawissa, left on Tuesday for a tour which will include a visit to Erie and the Pan-American Exposition.

B. F. Zarr Esq., and William Mensch, departed Wednesday morning for Washington D. C., on business. Before returning Mr. Zarr expects to take in the Firemen's parade in Philadelphia.

A Reminder.

Don't forget that J. E. Roys carries a large line of Watches, Chains and Jewelry. He will have special bargains during Fair week.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Military Suits. Ben Gidding.

Monarch Shirts. Ben Gidding.

Our shirts and underwear cannot be excelled. Gross & Son.

Half weight top coats. Ben Gidding.

Come in and ask to see our black Thibet Suits at $10.00. Ben Gidding.

New goods, in the latest styles of fall and winter millinery, now open at E. Barkley's. Prices reasonable. 129 West Main street. 2t

Arrow brand collars and cuffs. Ben Gidding.

The noblest line of boys' and children's clothing, from $1.00 to $5.00, at Gross & Son's.

Mackintoshes, in cape and box. Ben Gidding.

Dress suit cases, $1.50 to $12.00. Ben Gidding.

We are handling best 5-A horse blankets for the least money that can be bought anywhere.

C. S. FURMAN.

Umbrellas, trunks, valises. Ben Gidding.

A fine line of furnishing goods at Gross & Son's.

Children's Vestee Blouse and Russian Blouse Suits. Ben Gidding.

Just received—a fine line of trousers at Gross & Son's.

Come in and see us, we'll treat you right. Ben Gidding.

We have the largest and noblest line of men's and boys' clothing ever shown in Bloomsburg. Gross & Son.

Don't forget that we make suits to order. Ben Gidding.

While at the Fair come in and see us for a suit or overcoat. Gross & Son.

Exclusive style—our double-breasted Military Sack Coat. Ben Gidding.

The largest line of hats to select from at Gross & Son's.

Our Broadway Special, the best hat in the county for $3.00. Ben Gidding.

A cart for sale, or exchange for hay or straw. Also one, or the pair of sorrels for sale. 10-3-tf. DR. H. BERMAN.

All the newest things in neckwear. Ben Gidding.

A full line of gloves and mackintoshes, at all prices, at Gross & Son's.

Hosiery, in fancy and blacks. Ben Gidding.

Town lots for sale, on easy terms. Bloomsburg Land Improvement Co. Inquire of Sanderson Woods, sales agent. N. U. Funk, Sec'y. Office, Ent Building. (4 25)

Don't forget us for your nobby overcoat. Ben Gidding.

Don't forget, we are leaders in fashion. Ben Gidding.

CLARKS'.
CASE AFTER CASE
Of reliable and trustworthy merchandise, of all kinds, have been unpacked and placed on sale in this store during the last ten days, so that the stocks in all departments are more complete than ever. Our Dress Goods, Silks, Velvets, Dress Trimmings, Linings, Coats, Capes, Suits, Trimmed Hats, Furs, Laces, Ribbons, Corsets, Underwear, &c., is now most complete. We invite you to inspect this showing of all that's stylish, trustworthy and reliable in dry goods and notions for the coming season.

DRESS GOODS.
A complete line of Black and Colored Dress Materials, of all kinds, are now ready. See these specials:
All wool Venetians at 96c a yard (a regular $1 15 grade).
56 in. Meltons at $1 25 a yard (a regular $2 00 grade).
And many other good values in Dress Goods.

COATS, CAPES, SUITS.
We are showing all that's new and up to date. The materials, workmanship and styles are the best the market shows. See our 0916-42 in. Automobile Coat. It's pronounced by all a wonder for the money, and we know it.
27 in. Automobile Coat, made of Kersey, mercerized lined, at $4 88.

DRESS TRIMMINGS.
The largest assortments, newest styles. Anything you want, and at the lowest prices. See them.

TRIMMED HATS.
The largest assortment of Ladies' TRIMMED HATS in the county. All the newest styles. Nothing but the latest effects. Made by experienced milliners, and at prices to please you. Come and see them. You will see styles not shown elsewhere, and then you can get the hat ready to put on and wear, at money saving prices. See them.

FURS.
We are showing some decided bargains in fur neck pieces, at less than market prices. You should see them.

LACE CURTAINS.
We are offering some decided values in Lace Curtains, poles, &c. See the values we are showing, compare them with any.

WAIST FLANNELS AND CORDUOYS.
We have them. All colors, choice patterns, new effects. See them.

H. J. CLARK & SON.

SHOES OF ALL KINDS,
except inferior shoes, can be found here. We offer honest material, whether it be calf or kid, and made up in an honest manner, into stylish and durable footwear for men, women and children.
Any and every new shape or style that is worthy of consideration will be found in our stock. Our ladies' shoes, at $2.00, have had a remarkable sale. Their merits have won friends everywhere. Another good shoe is Colonial Dame, at $2.50.
F. D. DENTLER.

Jewelry Wisdom.
It certainly is far from wise to buy Jewelry wherever you see Jewelry for sale. The imitation looks like the genuine at first. The wise way is to come right to us, then you'll know precisely what you're buying. You'll be sure you have your money's worth. An additional safeguard is we GUARANTEE EVERYTHING to be as represented.

GEO. W. HESS,
THE JEWELER AND OPTICIAN,
BLOOMSBURG, PA.
Store open Thursday and Saturday evenings.

Some More of Those
CHILDREN'S UMBRELLAS
At 65c. and 75c. each, and they are good quality for the price.
Call and examine them.
J. LEE MARTIN,
The Jeweler.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.
ESTATE OF GEO. M. LOCKARD LATE OF BLOOMSBURG, PA., DECEASED.
The undersigned Auditor, appointed by the Orphans' Court of Columbia County, Pa., to pass upon exceptions filed to the first and partial account of Father J. Lockard, administrator, will sit, at the office of Ikeler & Iveter, in the Ent Building, Bloomsburg, Pa., on Wednesday, October 23, 1901, at ten o'clock a. m., to attend to the duties of his appointment, when and where all parties interested in said estate must appear.
FRED IKELER, Auditor.

JAMES REILLY & SON,
BARBERS AND HAIRDRESSERS.
STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS.
EXCHANGE BLOCK, SECOND FLOOR

If your tax is not paid this week you will not be allowed to vote at the coming November election. The law requires a settlement thirty days previous to the day of election.