Philadelphia's Under Side.

Startling Revelations the Result of an Investigation Made by the Noted Josiah Flynt.

A protracted investigation of the nether side of Philadelphia, in which this famous criminologist devoted days and nights together with trusted friends, unknown to the police and unrecognized by the "graffers," will be reported in the great Philadelphia Sunday Press, beginning next Sunday, October 13. The facts are recited coldly, carefully, dispassionately, with detail and correctness—what the thief, the speak-easy proprietor and the tramp think of our great cities and of Philadelphia in particular from the standpoint of protected graft. It is a story of stupendous meaning to every taxpayer and voter in the United States. In order that you may be certain of reading it, you had better order a copy of next Sunday's Press from your newsdealer in advance.

FINISHED HIS TRADE.

Charles Casey completed a three years' apprenticeship in this office, on October 5th. He is now a full-fledged journeyman printer. He is a young man of excellent character, industrious, careful, willing, and of an affable disposition. He takes pride in his work and does it well, and is a first-class printer either at the case or in the job department. He will continue as an employee of this office. Mr. Casey is a son of the late ex-sheriff John B. Casey.

The raising of Belgian Hares as a food supply is a rapidly growing industry. The Belgian Hare has a light rich meat and such a pleasing flavor as delights the palate of the epicure. To those wishing to purchase for the table, I will be in position to supply the winter demand at prices within the reach of all. Those wishing to purchase stock to breed will do well to see my pedigreed stock. Call or address: BLOOMSBURG RABBITRY. 10-32t PAUL Z. HARMAN, PROP.

Money Was a "Cincher."

George B. Appleman, of Rohrsburg, had an easy time with Muncy's much exploited quitters, at that place, Friday afternoon. He went there alone, without even having met any of the gentlemen before, and came away with forty-eight out of fifty-one games to his credit. He won from Thos. Opp by a score of 27 to 144 in sixteen games; from William Crawford by a score of 177 to 91 in twelve games; from Charles Rooker, by a score of 90 to 17 in six games; from Morris Kelly, by a score of 45 to 18 in three games, and from Fred Peterson, by a score of 65 to 15. The distance pitched was fifteen feet. In the fifty-one games pitched Appleman scored 599 points to 258 by his opponents. Another match has been arranged to take place at Jerseytown.

THE STATE AT A GLANCE.

—John T. Davis, a well-known citizen of Mahanoy City, was found dead in a heading at Tunnel Ridge colliery Saturday afternoon. How he met his death is a mystery.

—Only a portion of Lloyd McGinnis' body could be found Saturday morning, after eighteen cars had run over him on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He was a brakeman, and fell under. He lived at Uniontown.

—Governor Stone on Saturday ordered a respite for George W. McMurray, Jr., the Allegheny county murderer, condemned to be hanged on October 8. The case has not yet been disposed of by the Board of Pardons.

—By a fall of coal at Draker colliery shortly after noon Saturday John Couihan, of Frackville, was literally cut in two. He went up into the breast to make measurements, when he was caught by a fall of a piece of coal about as large as a mine wagon, with the above result.

—Hugh P. Brisling and wife of Luzerne county, have lost their entire family of children from diphtheria within a week. A son and daughter died on Wednesday and were buried together. Another son died on Friday, and Monday evening another son passed away. Their ages were from 3 to 9 years.

—At an early hour Saturday morning T. J. Lawall, one of the oldest residents of South Wilkes-Barre, died of valvular disease of the heart, aged 65 years. He was engaged in the coal business for many years. Mr. Lawall was born at Wapwallopen and moved to Wilkes-Barre thirty years ago. He is survived by two children.

—When David Boland was a young man several of his friends were killed in a railroad accident, and he vowed he would never ride in a train. Monday he arrived in Wilkes-Barre from Chicago on a visit to friends whom he had not seen for thirty years, and he walked all the way. He is a well-to-do farmer, and he could afford to pay fare.

—A man believed to be A. Griesing, of Jersey City, procured lodging at a hotel in Wilkes-Barre Saturday night. Sunday morning the odor of gas was smelled coming from his room. The door was broken in and the man was found dead on the bed. He had stopped up all the crevices in the doors and windows and then turned the gas on.

Bruce Keller has taken the place of W. B. Johnson, as ticket agent and operator at the Bloomsburg & Sullivan Railroad Station at Orangeville. He resigned a similar position on the C. P. & W. Railroad at Rohrsburg, to accept the new one.

New Test of Citizenship.

It is said that when foreign born men apply next time for papers before the Luzerne county courts they will be required to say whether or not they are anarchists or have tendencies in that direction. If they believe in anarchy or show any sympathy for its principals they will not be passed.

McKinley Photographs.

Photographs of President McKinley while making his last speech, at Buffalo, on Sept. 5th, for sale by G. Edward Etwell, Jr. Orders may be left at this office. Prices, 3x4 inches, 25 cents; 9x9, 50 cents.

The President's Name.

The name of the president of the United States is somewhat of a stumbling block to those who have not informed themselves as to its orthoepy. Some pronounce it Roosevelt, others Roosevelt, others Roosevelt, and so on in great variety. The president himself, and all members of the Roosevelt family, who ought to be taken as authority on the subject, pronounce it as if spelled Rose-a-velt with the accent on the first syllable.
