Armstrong and Orling, Buckinghamshire, of a new system of wireless telegraphy and telephony, using earth currents instead of air currents, as in the Marconi system. Operations were successfully conducted over a distance of 500 yards.

THE PUBLIC REVOLT

The Issues of the Campaign As Clearly Stated By the Fusion Candidate for State Treasurer.

In his letter of acceptance of the Union party nomination for state treasurer, Hon. E. A. Coray writes to the chairman of the notification committee, as follows:

"Replying to your letter notifying me of my selection by the recent convention of the Union party as its candidate for state treasurer, I desire to say the nomination is accepted and the high honor conferred fully appreciated.

"It was natural to expect that revolt would follow the unspeakable acts of the late legislature. It is the revolt of patriotic citizens jealous of the honor of the commonwealth. It is the revolt of long-suffering taxpayers, goaded to desperation by their plunderers. It is revolt against the machine that writes reform in its platform, proclaims it from the stump and then repudiates it in every political act. It is revolt against the further exercise of power of attorney for a great political party by men who are without pride in its traditions or loyalty to its principles and who constantly humiliate it by their practices. It is revolt against conspiracies to loot the assets of the commonwealth, from the coin of the treasury to the coal in the bowels of the earth. It is a revolt against legislation to pinch the capitalist and rob the laborer of the fruits of his toil. It is revolt against the purchase and sale of legislation. It is a revolt against politics on the bench.

"The machine fears this revolt. It strives to befog the issues. 'Yellow,' it cries at the faithful press that turns light upon its blackness. 'Anarchy,' shout the promoters of stuffed ballot boxes and treasury looters at those who strive to curb their lawlessness. Still the revolt spreads. Thousands of reputable citizens, of time-sturdy sticklers for party regularity, are joining the forces of good government—not that they love party regularity less, but decency, the honor of the state, and their own interests as taxpayers more. The revolt is born of the hope of better government in Pennsylvania. It is rooted in righteousness. It must win.

"Regarding the office of state treasurer, I would suggest that it should cease to be regarded as a 'plum tree.' It should cease to be a receptacle for padded pay rolls, or bonds of indemnity. It should not honor vouchers for contingent expenses, unless specifically itemized. It should pay no officers except those elected or appointed in pursuance of law. It should not withhold payment of appropriations for public schools or charitable institutions in the interest of favorite banks. Its transactions, its assets and its accounts should be so open that any citizen of the commonwealth, desiring to do so, may be able to make himself familiar with them.

"In brief, in connection with the state treasury and its management there should be the strictest compliance with the requirements of the law and the constitution—no secrets, no mysteries, no bonuses or 'rake-offs,' no funds for speculators; no fear of attack; no occasion for seeking refuge behind statutes of limitation, or fleeing from the jurisdiction of the state. And if elected state treasurer I pledge myself to conduct the office in harmony with the above suggestions."

AN HONORABLE JUDICIAL CAREER

Judge Yerkes' Eighteen Years' Service On the Bench—A Model Jurist.

Hon. Harman Yerkes was born in Bucks county, in 1843. In early life he became a school teacher and later studied law, under the late Judge Ross, being admitted to the bar in 1865. He at once entered upon a successful practice at Doylestown and was elected judge of the county court, in 1883, and has served continuously since, being now near the close of his second term. Before going upon the bench, he took a very active part in local, state and national politics, serving in Democratic conventions. In 1868 he was elected district attorney, and in 1873 was chosen state senator, being re-elected in 1876. His legislative career was conspicuous for ability and zeal in the performance of his duty. As a jurist, Judge Yerkes has displayed superior ability, winning the highest opinions from all classes of the people. He has been a terror to evildoers and has held the scales of justice evenly between litigants. Near the close of his first term all the members of the bar, irrespective of party, addressed to him a letter urging that he be a candidate for reelection. Unanimously nominated again by the Democrats, he was endorsed by the Republican convention and re-elected. In 1895 he was one of the nominees for the superior court.

In social life Judge Yerkes is a conspicuous figure at his home, in Doylestown. In 1869 he was married to a daughter of Monroe Buckman. He is a member of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and rector's warden. He is a member of the Society of Sons of the Revolution and of the Historical Societies of Pennsylvania and Bucks county and is a past master of the Doylestown Lodge of Masons.

For a long time in advance of the last Democratic state convention, by which Judge Yerkes was unanimously nominated to succeed Justice William P. Potter, on the supreme bench, he was unquestionably the choice of every element of his party for that exalted office. The placing of his name on the Democratic state ticket, with such enthusiastic unanimity, and the adoption of a platform aiming at the complete fusion which has been effected, was hailed by the independent voters of the state as the forerunner of victory. By Independent Republicans, as well as by Democrats, Judge Yerkes is regarded as the strongest man who could have been selected to head the fight of the people to strengthen and dignify the highest tribunal of the commonwealth.

A MOST FAITHFUL PUBLIC SERVANT

How the Reform Candidate for State Treasurer Has Fought For the People at Harrisburg.

Eliha A. Coray, Jr., is a native of Bradford county, Pa., 43 years of age. He has resided in Luzerne county, at West Pittston, for many years past. After an academic education, he learned the printer's trade and became a reporter on the Pittston Evening Gazette, which he served acceptably for six years. Taking an active interest in politics, he became a member of the Republican county committee, and was also chairman of the legislative district committee. In 1888 Mr. Coray was elected to the legislature and re-elected in 1890. Throughout both terms he was an intelligent and faithful legislator, exerting his influence upon every occasion in favor of honest and desirable legislation and against everything of a dishonest character, no matter from what source it came. After five years of retirement from public life, during which time he established himself in the real estate business, Mr. Coray was returned to the legislature, and at once took a leading position in the house. In the senatorial contest of 1897 he opposed the candidacy of Mr. Penrose. During the session Mr. Coray consistently and earnestly defended the public treasury against all kinds of selfish schemes and unjust bills. He was a thorn in the side of the machine members whenever attempts were made to secure illegal extra pay, through incidentals, special expenses, etc. He continually called attention to the pledges of the Republican state platforms with regard to reform bills and endeavored to secure a more efficient ballot law. Mr. Coray was re-elected to the house, in 1898, and again in 1900. He opposed Mr. Quay's re-election to the senate, and during the last session was particularly vigilant and active in protecting the public interests in every possible way. All the iniquitous measures that came before the house he vigorously opposed. Upon many occasions he called attention to the falsification of the vote, and several times was threatened with personal violence for the stand he took in thus exposing machine trickery. It would require much space to record in detail Mr. Coray's work during the five terms that he has faithfully served the people at Harrisburg. No man in the state has been more courageous in the defense of the honor of the commonwealth, and what he has done makes his nomination as a candidate for state treasurer the legitimate culmination of an honorable and useful public career. A comparison of the votes of Coray and Harris, the Quay candidate for state treasurer, on leading measures, clearly shows who has the largest claim upon public confidence and support. The following statement speaks for itself:

Coray Voted. Harris Voted. Pittsburgh Ripper..... Nay Yes Philadelphia Ripper..... Nay Yes Philadelphia Fish Court..... Nay Yes Street railway franchise..... Nay Yes Erie land grab..... Nay Yes $1,000,000 Capital bill..... Nay Yes Increasing clerk hire allowance Supreme Court..... Yes Yes Judges, $1,000 to $2,500 each..... Yes Yes Garner bill for mine inspectors..... Yes Dodged Requiring operators to pay miners by ton, instead of by car..... Yes Dodged Giving miners a check weighman at each colliery..... Yes Dodged Requiring coal to be weighed to compute miners' pay before being screened..... Yes Dodged Ferrishees bill taxing company stores out of existence..... Yes Dodged Cooper Label bill amendment to prevent mixing zing the press..... Yes Nay Coray amendment to general Appropriation bill to insure public schools immediate payment of $1,000,000 Government bonds..... Yes Dodged Bills creating new courts in Northumberland and Montgomery..... Yes Yes Coray bill to revoke state warrants for land under streams, and this block the $500,000 coal grab..... Yes Nay The Guffey-Kelser Ballot Reform bill..... Yes Nay

There seems to be no limit to the audacity of the Quay machine. Its disregard for the honor of the state exceeds anything ever before witnessed. The whole state government has been put to work in a frantic effort to prevent its own condemnation at the polls. Governor Stone has no sense of self-respect or official propriety; otherwise, he would not be going about making stump speeches that are in themselves extremely creditable. The executive well knows that the odious record of the past three years cannot be successfully defended; hence his feeble attempts to mislead the public, to excite the prejudices of the ignorant, and to arouse partisan feelings. But the people surely have intelligence enough to see through all this and to understand what it means. The Quay ring would be frightened into spasms if they should wake up the morning after the election and find that the brave Coray had been commissioned to take charge of the state treasury, to open the books and turn on the light. Let no voter be deceived. There is no party issue at stake. It is simply a battle for honest administration of the public finances and the maintenance of purity on the bench. Let every patriot help to bring out a big vote for Yerkes and Coray.

It is understood that the managers of the Republican state campaign have given instructions to their followers in every county to look sharply after the vote at the coming election. The machine never makes much noise when a state treasurer is to be elected, but it makes sure that its hirings are at work, all along the line. It takes no risks, and it is not taking any at this time. This fact should be sufficient notice to the people of the importance of the impending contest. Quay's battle for re-election was the hardest fight of his life and cost him and his friends a barrel of money. But he would spend as much more, if needed, to hold on to the public chest, for the special uses of his corrupt machine. There should be a great non-partisan vote this time to turn the rascals out.

Birth-marks which mark and mar the outside of the body are a grief to every mother whose children may bear them. But for every child who bears a birth-mark on the skin there are many who bear an indelible birth-mark on the mind. Nervous mothers have nervous children and many a man and woman owes an irritable and despondent temperament to those days of dread when the mother waited the hour of her maternity. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the mother for her trial. With strength comes a buoyancy of spirits and quietness of mind, which is one of the happiest gifts a mother can bestow on her offspring. By giving vigor and elasticity to the delicate womanly organs "Favorite Prescription" practically does away with the pain of maternity and makes the baby's advent as natural and as simple as the blossoming of a flower. There is no opium, cocaine or other narcotic contained in "Favorite Prescription."

A Home in the South.

Escape the rigors of another Northern Winter and enjoy the delights of the Southland. Nowhere can be found a more delightful climate than in our own Southland. Its winters are mild and balmy and in the most cases summer does not bring with it such extremes of heat as are to be found elsewhere. In fact, the South is a land where extremes of climate are avoided, and consequently, is a healthful and altogether desirable location.

The tide of emigration has turned Southward, for it is not alone in climatic advantages that this favored land excels, but it is a resource, the fertility of its soil and its mineral wealth and abundant water power commend it to the thoughtful consideration of any one who seeks a home where Northern thrift and enterprise may carve out success.

THE KEYSTONE COPPER MINING CO., Incorporated Under the Laws of South Dakota, June 15, 1901. Capital Stock, $1,000,000. Divided into 200,000 Shares of Par Value of $5.00 Each. FULL PAID AND NON-ASSESSABLE. We call special attention to the fact that one share of this Company, whose entire Capital Stock consists of only 200,000 shares of the par value of Five Dollars each, secures an interest in its property equal to 5 shares in a Company of One Million Shares of the par value of only One Dollar each, as is the case with nearly all Mining Companies offering shares at a price seemingly lower than the present price of the shares of this Company, but in reality much higher.

Property of Company. This is very extensive, consisting of four mining properties, each over one mile in length, on a great copper vein over 100 feet in width, pronounced by Copper experts as among the widest and richest copper veins known, lacking only the necessary development to place same in the front rank of the greatest dividend and copper producing properties.

It is on the same great Copper Mineral Belt upon which are located the world's present greatest copper mines, each paying many millions of dollars annually in dividends and developed to the depth of from 1000 to 2000 feet, thus fully establishing the fact that the veins are not alone inexhaustible, but widen and become even more profitable with depth. The great vein on this property is of such unusual width and so prolific in copper ore from surface that only moderate developments are needed to begin the production of ore on a scale to insure large dividends on the shares of this Company. The Company is sinking a shaft now nearly 100 feet in depth on the vein of one of its four properties, the "Pay Roll." This shaft is entirely in ore, which, by tests, gave values at the surface of from 3 to 4 per cent. copper; at the depth of fifty feet tests gave values of from 8 to 10 per cent. copper; at the depth of seventy feet tests gave values of from 12 to 14 per cent in copper, while selected samples show values as high as 12 per cent. copper and nearly $15 in gold and silver per ton. The value of the gold per ton will enable the Company to produce copper at very low cost.

As showing that this great vein is not alone of unusual width, but also of rare richness in ore as compared with some of the richest copper mines, we refer to the great "Anacanda Mine," paying over $5,000,000 annually in dividends from ore averaging less than five per cent in copper; or to the "Boston and Montana" paying over $6,000,000 annually from ore averaging less than six per cent in copper; or to the "Great Verde," paying nearly $5,000,000 annually in dividends from ore averaging less than six per cent in copper. To give an approximate idea of the amount of ore and its value, that can be opened by a moderate development in only a small part of such a vein, the following estimates are given: Estimating pay ore vein at only 25 feet in width, depth of shaft, 500 feet, length of levels, 500 feet, would open up 6,250,000 cubic feet of ore, or over Five Hundred Thousand Tons. Estimating the net Profits at Twenty Dollars per ton, would give total net profits of Ten Million Dollars, or Ten Times the Amount of the Par Value of the entire Capital Stock of the Company, and sufficient to insure dividends to amount of Ten Dollars for each share of the stock. As the length of the vein on this one property, the "Pay Roll," is over one quarter mile in length, and the depth to which it can be worked many thousands of feet, it will be seen that as a copper investment the shares of this Company offer an unusual opportunity.

The property of the Company is situated in Rio Arriba County, in the northern part of New Mexico (only 40 miles from the southern boundary line of Colorado), convenient to Railroad Station and in a section heavily timbered and one of the healthiest in the United States.

The Company has no debts or mortgages. Its property is free and clear and its management is under able mining experience.

One-quarter of the entire Capital Stock of the Company being 50,000 Shares of the par value of $250,000 has been placed in the Treasury of this Company as a working capital, of which a limited amount is offered for sale at

$1.00 PER SHARE Until October 1st, when the price will be advanced to $1.50 per share. As there are only 200,000 shares in this Company it will require net earnings of only $200,000 to pay dividends at rate of $1.00 yearly upon each share. This will require only a moderate development. Those wishing to purchase shares can make remittance, by check or otherwise, to The Keystone Copper Mining Co., Harter Building, 208 Main St., BLOOMSBURG, PEN'A
