WILDWESTWRECKED

One Hundred and Ten of "Buffalo Bill's" Horses Killed.

A COLLISION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Out of Two Carloads of Horses Only Two Animals Escaped-Final Engagement of the Season Canceled.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 30 .- One hundred and ten of the ring horses of "Buffalo Bill's" Wild West show were erushed to death in a railroad wreck near Lexington. Among the horses killed was Old Pap, Colonel Cody's favorite saddle horse. Old Eagle, the star ring horse, was killed, and his mangled body fell on top of one of the wrecked engines. The mules that drew the Deadwood coach were also killed. Colonel Cody spent the day at the scene of the wreck and is heartbroken over the slaughter. He says his loss is $60,000.

The accident was the result of a head end collision between a fast southbound freight train and the second section of the show train and was due to a misunderstanding of orders. rested." Several train hands were injured, but no one was killed.

Twelve thousand people greeted the Wild West show in Charlotte, and it left at midnight for Danville, Va., where it was to have made its last stand of the season. At Danville the show was to have disbanded and the animals sent to Bridgeport, Conn., to go into winter quarters.

The show left here in three sections. Near Lexington, as the second section was going twenty miles an hour. a fast southbound freight train crashed into it. Both engines were wreck-Next to the engine of the show train were two large stock cars, containing the horses, and this is where the slaughter occurred.

The cars were smashed into a huge, distorted heap of debris, and only two horses escaped alive. The scene was sickening. From the mass of wreckage blood poured in a small_rivulet. Colonel Cody's engagement at Danville was canceled in consequence of the disaster, which marked the close of a very successful tour.
