THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1901.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., second class matter, March 1, 1888.

APPRENTICE WANTED.

Boy wanted at this office to learn printer's trade. Must be at least sixteen years of age, and a fair reader and speller. Resident of town preferred.

The run from here to Berwick is made in one hour by the trolley cars.

For Croquet Sets, from $5c. to $2.25, go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

A case of black diphtheria has been discovered at Rupert, and some alarm is being manifested.

Envelopes, paper, tablets, box paper and all stationery, at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Valuable town lots at public auction, by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company. See adv't.

Get your panacea for your little chicks and lice powder to kill the lice, at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

The Civic Club and Twentieth Century Minstrels will parade this evening at seven o'clock, sharp. The boys will wear swell togery. Be on the lookout for them.

H. F. Everett, of Benton, is a loser to the extent of about $1,000 by reason of a fire, which destroyed the building in connection with his coal yard Saturday morning.

The bridge over the canal a short distance above town known as the Rawlings bridge has been removed. This reduces the number of these structures over the old waterway within the town limits to two.

That big game is not extinct, and can still be found in the vicinity of the North Mountain is evidenced by the capture of a bear, midway between Jamison City and Central by Noah Wolf of the latter place on Friday.

Location may not be an obstacle to greatness, but it is an all important matter if you would insure yourself a good profit on real estate. See advertisement of the public sale of town lots by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company.

The Civic Club and 20th Century Minstrels, which have been united for a testimonial to Mr. Jay Brown, held an enthusiastic rehearsal last evening. There wasn't a weak spot in the whole program. In other words, "It's all to the good." At the Opera House to-night.

M. & C. Telephone.

For Men Only.

Did you ever use a pair of Military HAIR BRUSHES?

If not you don't know what "brush comfort" is.

We have just received a direct importation of them and the price is lower than ever.

For a good bicycle, either ladies' or gent's, go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

There is a dearth of local items this week. This is a concomitant condition with election time.

The rabbit season opened Saturday. Local hunters report fine sport and an abundance of "bunnies."

Last week the Institute was announced by mistake, for the week opening November 28th. It should have been the 18th.

A cart for sale, or exchange for hay or straw. Also one, or the pair of sorrels for sale.

10-3-11. DR. H. BIERMAN.

Take a look at the program for the minstrel entertainment tonight. Merit is stamped upon every feature. Grand parade at seven o'clock.

Town lots for sale, on easy terms. Bloomsburg Land Improvement Co. Inquire of Sanderson Woods, sales agent. N. U. Funk, Sec'y. Office, Ent Building. (4 25)

The local in last week's COLUMBIAN in regard to sheriff sales should have read J. W. Perry instead of J. W. Creasy. The error was unnoticed until the entire edition had been printed.

Albert H. Jacobs, of Hazleton, was elected to the office of Sheriff by the Democrats of Luzerne Co., defeating his Republican opponent by 3,480. He is a nephew of our townsman Eckhart Jacobs.

Protracted meetings are in progress at the Christian church at Stillwater. The services are in charge of Rev. R. H. Sawtelle. Deep interest is being manifested and much good is being accomplished. Prayer is to be the subject of a special sermon on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Heim, says the Danville News, gave a children's party in honor of their baby son, Martin, at their home on Church street Saturday afternoon. Babies from nine months up were present with their attendants, and it proved to be a most interesting and unique affair.

A good sized audience was present at the Baptist Church Monday evening to hear Dr. Flippo deliver his lecture on "Keys to Unlock Hearts." The speaker won his audience by his wit, pathos and pointed logic. His words were marked by force and definiteness. Everybody was pleased with the address.

Many of the farmers in the surrounding valleys are putting up trespass notices notifying hunters not to tramp over their land in search of game. Since the enactment of the new trespass law by the last legislature the farmers are well protected and it would be well for sportsmen to remember this.

Rally Day in the Lutheran Sunday School of this town will be next Sabbath from 9 a. m. until 10.30. It will be on Luther Day, and the exercises will have a touch of Reformation history. A pleasant program has been prepared and all present and former scholars of the school are invited. A most enjoyable time is anticipated.

M. E. McLINN, Pastor.

The eleventh annual Convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, of the North Branch Missionary Society, was held at Shamokin last week, Thursday marked the closing session at which time the election of officers for the ensuing year occurred. Mrs. J. Yutsey, of Selinsgrove was made president, Mrs. W. C. McConnell, Shamokin vice president, Miss Martha Dimm, Selinsgrove, secretary, Mrs. E. B. Guie, Catawissa, treasurer and Mrs. F. H. Jenkins, Bloomsburg, chairman of box work. Catawissa was selected as the place for holding the next convention.

Hammocks—many styles and many prices—at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Don't fail to see the grand spectacular club swinging by Alfred Armstrong at the Jay Brown benefit in the Opera house this evening.

Ashland was connected by telephone by the Mortour & Columbia system on Saturday, and conversation over the line can now be had with residents of that place. Connection is made through the Catawissa exchange.

Horace Lutz died of consumption in Denver, Colorado, on Saturday in the fifty-fifth year of his age. He was a native of Bloomsburg and will no doubt be remembered by many of our readers. He was a son of E. P. Lutz, who for many years conducted a drug store in what is now Moyer Bros' building below the Post office. Horace was also a druggist, and had been engaged in that business in Wilkes-barre for many years. Many of his relatives reside in Bloomsburg.

Phinney's United States Band has been engaged to give a concert in the Normal Auditorium Saturday afternoon, November 16. This is probably the finest musical organization that has ever come our way. The diagram of seats will open at Bidleman's book store on Wednesday, November 13, at half past four o'clock. All those who wish to have their seats reserved should be on hand early, as the demand will, in all probability, be great. The admission has been placed at 25 cents.

A fair-sized audience gathered at the Opera House on Tuesday evening to listen to Hon. Henry B. Clifford, whose subject was "Copper Fortunes, or the manner in which the Bonanza Kings made their fortunes." The object of the address was to interest people in the Queen of Arizona Copper Co., and it was entertaining and instructive. Diagrams and pictures were thrown upon a screen by a stereopticon showing different mines, their productions, values, etc. Mr. Clifford is entirely conversant with his subject and talks in a pleasing manner. He referred several times to the Green Consolidated Copper Co. as one of the great companies, and he also gave some good advice by telling the holders of any mining stocks not to get frightened every time there is a fluctuation in the market.

This Man is a Wonder. Is Buried Alive for Twenty-Four Hours. Will Repeat the Experiment.

William W. Kretz, president of the Reading Society of Occult Science, who was buried alive for twenty-four hours while in a hypnotic state, is considering a plan to repeat his experiment, but expects, next time, to remain underground for thirty-six or forty-eight hours. Persons who witnessed his recent performance on Mt. Penn. think he can accomplish the undertaking. Kretz refuses to reveal his new plans, except to say that, as before, he will be hypnotized, placed in a burial case, and covered with six feet of earth. As the authorities forbade the experiment within the city limits on the former occasion, Kretz is silent about the place where the second burial will take place. There will be reliable witnesses, however, to testify to the genuineness of the feat.

Take your bike to the Bloomsburg Cycle Works, rear of Moore's store, for all repairs.

WE desire our patrons to know that we sell the famous "Elite" china, now so extensively advertised in leading periodicals. Dainty odd pieces or complete sets may be had at prices no higher than you would pay for ordinary makes. The "Elite" mark means perfection. Have you read the story "Limoges—Its People—Its China"? If not, leave your name at our store and we will obtain a copy for you, free.

L. E. WHARY.

"ELITE" FRENCH CHINA.

Two residents of Millville, William Beishline and John Ruckle, had an exciting time on our principal street Monday morning, when their horses took fright and dashed up the thoroughfare. They encountered an obstacle in the shape of an awning post in front of G. P. Ringle's drug store, which served to subdue the animals. The gentlemen escaped with their bodies intact, but it is not likely that they would care to go through the ordeal again. The wagon was badly used up.

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Pearl Hess was the guest of Berwick friends over Sunday.

Mrs. D. Z. Mench of Shickshinny is visiting her parents in town.

Miss Belle Rucke, of Espy, was entertained by Miss Zoia Koecht, at Berwick, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Waller, Jr. of Indiana, arrived in town Saturday on a visit to the former's mother on Market Street.

Richard W. Eggert, proprietor of the Danville "Gem," a newsy little weekly, was noticed on our streets Saturday morning.

Mrs. Dr. J. W. Wainey, of Benton, has been visiting Mrs. W. E. Shaffer, on East street, this week. She was a delegate to the C. E. Convention.

Percy Curran of Berwick stopped in town a little while on Tuesday. He was on his way to Williamsport to visit his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Curran.

Well Known Horseman.

William M. Hughes, of Hazleton, has been in failing health for the past year. He has been a sufferer from neuralgia for a long time. Some ten years ago he submitted to an operation and for a time was much relieved, but of late the disease has again taken hold, causing him much trouble and continued pain. In 1874 he was one of the promoters of the Hazleton Race Track Association, in which he took much interest and over which track many races took place. Mr. Hughes was the owner of the famous pacing mare Little Mary, that won nearly all the races she took part in in this and other cities. She was a sorrel mare of the kindest disposition and a favorite among the horsemen from 1873 to 1876. He sold her, much against his inclination, but the big price was the reason. After he parted with her she became famous on some of the Grand Circuit race tracks. —Wilkes-Barre Record.

Aged Resident Called From Earth.

Centre township is mourning the loss of a good citizen in the person of David Z. Remaly, whose death occurred at his home near Foundryville, Sunday afternoon. He had resided in that township for many years and died enjoying the respect and esteem of all who knew him. The cause of his death was a complication of diseases, in connection with a breaking down of the system, superinduced in a measure, no doubt, by advanced age, he being about 78 years old. He was a farmer and followed that occupation all his life. The surviving family consists of a wife, two daughters and one son. The former is quite seriously ill, with little hopes of recovery. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon.

Looked Upon as a Formidable Aggregation.

That the Normal School foot ball team is regarded as a pretty strong proposition is shown by the following item which we take from the Mt. Carmel Daily News.

"The opponents of the High School team next Saturday will be the strong Bloomsburg Normal School team. This team is not a team of boys who are just learning the rudiments of the game but rather, a team of men who have one of the best coaches in the state, outside of the large college elevens. They ran up 52 points against Orangeville and played an 18-12 game with the strong Hazleton team. It will be a battle royal and undoubtedly will be the hardest game seen on the local grounds this year."
