THE STATE AT A GLANCE. —Pottsville's school board has increased the salary of the trust officer from $5 to $25 a month and a night school will be opened.

Public sale of town lots, by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company, on Saturday, November 16 and Saturday, November 23, 1901. See advertisement.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice, and will be sent to the dead letter office Nov. 19, 1901. Persons calling for these letters will please say "that they were advertised Nov. 5, 1901":

—About two months ago Mrs. Jacob Myers, of Williamsport, had a number of teeth extracted. A few days later she became ill and the doctors diagnosed her disease as hasty consumption.

—Mrs. Helen George, of Sharon, Pa., claims the distinction of being the oldest woman in America. She is said to be 121 years of age, so stated at a birthday celebration.

—Thomas Shannahan, an employee for the railroad company at Osceola, died at that place on Tuesday evening. He was supposed to be very poor, but after his death money to the amount of $5,500 was found on his person, sewed up in the lining of his clothes.

An Important Decision. That Will be Hard on Dealers Selling on Installment Plan. By a decision of Judge Ralston, in the criminal court of Philadelphia, Tuesday, a purchaser of goods on the installment plan who does not pay the bill may only be held responsible in an action at civil law.
