Mother Fights Cow to Save Her Babe.

A vicious cow on Monday attacked and badly injured Mrs. Jno. Rusnik and her infant child. Carrying her child, Mrs. Rusnik went into a field to drive the cow home. It charged her and knocked her down. The baby, which wore a red coat, seemed to excite the cow, and the animal tried time and again to trample on it. The mother, dazed and shrieking for help, fought the animal with her bare arms, grabbing it about the neck and trying to pull it away from the child.

Time and time again she was knocked down and butted, but she fought on. Twice the cow butted the child, and once trampled on it, before assistance arrived.

Two men passing saw the struggle in 1904. and beat off the cow. The mother was then unconscious. She was carried home, and, although badly bruised, will recover. The child will also recover.

The family reside on a farm a few miles this side of Wilkes Barre.
