

"MONARCH PATS." Great Shoes, In Every Leather.

The Patent Leather Shoe That Won't Break Thro'.

Try a pair. We have the exclusive sale.

W. C. MCKINNEY, 8 E. Main St.

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1901.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., second class matter, March 1, 1888.

APPRENTICE WANTED.

Boy wanted at this office to learn printer's trade. Must be at least sixteen years of age, and a fair reader and speller. Resident of town preferred.

Now turn your attention to what we have to be thankful for.

The chrysanthemums offered for sale by local florists are beautiful.

Books, Books, Books of many kinds at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

George Splain has accepted a position in E. D. Broadt's barber shop.

For Wall Paper and Window Shades go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

An inventory is being taken of the Espy Furniture Factory, which was recently sold by the Sheriff.

As to quality and variety of odors in Perfumery we are at the front at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Mrs. B. Stohner has vacated the Farmer's Hotel property on Iron Street and moved into a house on West Street.

A cart for sale, or exchange for hay or straw. Also one, or the pair of sorrels for sale.

The weather man, after several ineffectual attempts, succeeded in giving us rain. There was a gentle and most welcome fall on Monday.

W. H. Magill Esq. has moved his library into H. R. Stees' office in the Ent building, and will shortly open a law office in Scranton.

We have the largest, nicest and best selected stock of Pocket Books in Bloomsburg, either ladies or gents at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

W. H. Gilmore on Saturday sold his bottling establishment to Charles Dushick, of Freeland. The new owner will take possession on December first.

P. B. Heddens will take immediate possession of the Iron Street hotel property which he recently purchased. He will make many improvements about the building.

Town lots for sale, on easy terms. Bloomsburg Land Improvement Co. Inquire of Sanderson Woods, sales agent. N. U. Funk, Sec'y, Office, Ent Building. (4 25)

M. & C. Telephone.

For Men Only.

Did you ever use a pair of Military

HAIR BRUSHES?

If not, you don't know what "brush comfort" is.

We have just received a direct importation of them and the price is lower than ever.

$1.00 1.40 1.75 2.50 PER PAIR. $3.00 3.50 3.75 4.00

W. S. Rishton, Ph. G. Ent Building, Pharmacist,

Legal advertisements on page 7.

Isaiah Hagenbuch is putting blinds on his residence.

Robert Kishbach has moved from Briarcreek to Shickshinny.

Local merchants are unpacking and displaying Christmas goods.

Grier Quick won the prize at the Wheelmen's euchre Tuesday evening.

Rev. D. N. Kirkby is arranging to hold services in Berwick at stated intervals.

The employees of the Bloomsburg silk mill will receive their pay to-morrow.

The first real snow of the season struck town about eight o'clock Tuesday evening.

The employees of the D. L. & W. Railroad received their monthly stipend on Tuesday.

George Ferguson has moved his family to Danville, where he has secured steady employment.

Valuable town lots at public auction, by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company. See adv't.

If you need a Lamp of any description go to Mercer's Drug & Book Store. A fine line and all prices.

The A. & T. Biograph Company will leave to-morrow morning for Millintown, Pa., to fill a two night's engagement.

Arthur Traub, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Traub, and Miss Catherine, daughter of Mr. Fred Richard, will be married at the home of the bride Thursday Nov. 28th.

There have been several changes made in the schedule of the D. L. & W. Railroad. The corrected schedule appears in this issue and the traveling public will do well to consult it.

Miss Edith Miller is slowly improving from typhoid fever with which she has been afflicted for the past several weeks, and her recovery we are pleased to state, is only a question of time.

Thos. B. Moore has a litter of pups that he says would be winners in a dog show. They stand alone for beauty. Tom has for some time past given his attention to fine dogs and he is never without one.

Warren Everett, a motorman on the Electric railway, on Saturday purchased a house and lot of H. C. Ruckle, on East Main Street, Espy. Mr. Everett will move into the house. The consideration is private.

Daniel E. Krum has purchased the W. A. Evert property on East Third Street, and has taken possession. The price paid was $2,900. Mr. and Mrs. Evert are at present boarding with Mrs. M. M. Phillips on Main Street.

Provision has been made for a big crowd at the supper to be given by the Good Will Fire Company on Friday and Saturday nights. There will be plenty of help and the boys promise good service to all who attend.

Carrie Nation, the saloon smasher, is booked to appear in Danville next month. The consignment of souvenir hatchets, has already arrived. This is probably as near to Bloomsburg as the notorious personage will ever get.

A Board of Examiners of the D. L. & W. Railroad Company are examining the operators along the Bloomsburg division preparatory to adopting the Standard Code of telegraphic signals now in use by the American Railway Association.

Location may not be an obstacle to greatness, but it is an all important matter if you would insure yourself a good profit on real estate. See advertisement of the public sale of town lots by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company.

The Market Square fountain is being prepared for the winter.

The membership of the Knights of the Golden Eagle was augmented by several new names Monday evening.

The contract for the superstructure of the Bloomsburg & Sullivan machine shop has been awarded to Yost and Herring.

Charles, an 18 year old son of Mrs. Phillip Oberdorf died of consumption at his home in Berwick Thursday and was buried on Saturday.

The Columbia and Montour Electric Railway Company has placed incandescent lights along the switch leading into the power house.

Lamp Globes, Chimneys, Wicks, Burners, Bracket Lamps, Stand Lamps, Lantern Globes and all lamp supplies at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Parents should make up their minds to the fact that they render themselves amenable to the penalties of the law if they fail to send their children to school.

Public sale of town lots, by the Bloomsburg Land Improvement Company, on Saturday, November 16 and Saturday, November 23, 1901. See advertisement.

A new coat of paint has added a wonderful improvement to A. C. Hilday's Hotel at Rupert. The vim like appearance is the first to attract the eye of the visitor to that village.

Every teacher attending Institute next week, by purchasing merchandise to the amount of 50 cents or over at the Leader Store Co. Limited will be given a handsome souvenir.

J. E. Sterling has changed his residence from Janesville to this town. He has moved into a house on First street and has engaged in the insurance business. He was formerly employed in F. P. Pursell's store.

W. P. Creveling, of East Third street, is improving his property recently purchased of a Loan Association in the Armstrong addition. The house has been repainted, the windows fitted with blinds and a new veranda erected.

Normal and Danville played a draw game of foot ball at the latter place Saturday afternoon. The eleven gentlemen who represented the school compose a team which is second in strength at that institution. The first or Varsity team went to Mt. Carmel where they succeeded in defeating the sturdy athletes of that place by a score of 6 to 0.

Pottsville people have entered decided objection to the marking of sidewalks with chalk announcing forthcoming events. The agitation has resulted in the arrest of a young man caught delating the sidewalk in this manner.

The practice is in vogue in Bloomsburg, and is meeting with much adverse comment.

For the third time within the short space of three weeks, the refrigerator of Louis Gross was robbed Sunday night. Mr. Gross proposes to put a stop to it if such a thing is possible and has accordingly possessed himself of a shot gun. He will keep a vigilant watch in the future, and will take a steady aim at any one loitering about his yard after nine o'clock at night.

Among recent improvements in Orangeville are those made to the property of Geo. F. Kindt. The house has been thoroughly overhauled, new windows and new blinds have been put in and an addition erected in the rear. The finishing touches are being put to a very nice home by painting the building. Mr. Kindt is a progressive man, and likes to have his premises in fine condition.

Will Kesty killed a gray fox on the river hill Saturday afternoon. It is necessary, in order to secure the bounty of $1.00, to remove the ears, but as this would injure it for mounting purposes "Texas" decided to do without the premium. He had figured on getting the dollar by simply producing the animal and when informed of the law on the point, he sauntered out of Guy Jacoby's office in scornful dejection.

The Lackawanna Fertilizer & Chemical Co., of Moosic, Pa., is represented in this county by Frank P. Davis who is their general agent. He has charge of all local agencies, and persons desiring to act as local agents should communicate with him, at Bloomsburg. Mr. Davis fills orders for ten brands of fertilizer, and his company stands high in the business. Farmers will do well to get prices from him before buying.

PURELY PERSONAL

Howard Michael of York, is visiting relatives and friends in town. R. Rush Zarr and wife departed Tuesday morning for Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Slate will entertain a number of their friends at a musical this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Malhera have returned to town, after an extended visit in Italy, their native land.

F. C. Williams came down from Scranton on Monday to see his father. He remained in town until Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Boddall of Pottsville, is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Peacock on Fifth Street.

J. O. Boyles, of Berwick, assisted with the orchestra music at the benefit minstrel entertainment Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. R. Ringrose has arrived home from Philadelphia where she underwent an operation at the Jefferson Hospital.

George W. Enterline, who formerly conducted a hotel in the Gilmore building, was in town last week. He is living at Wilkes-Barre.

Guy Steffy was a visitor at Shamokin on Monday. He witnessed Magician Keller's mystifying performance there on Monday evening.

Gen. C. M. Blaker of Greenwood, was in town yesterday explaining the probable course of the political campaign three years hence.

We received a call on Monday from G. E. Myers, of Philadelphia. He is a practical newspaper man and launched the Catawissa "News Item."

Wallace Yannatta, through the intercession of his brother-in-law, J. W. Lewis, has secured a position with the Pittsburg Limestone Company at Williamsburg, Blair County. He left for that place on Monday.

Arthur Fortune has arrived home from Buffalo, where he had charge of the Paul E. Wirt pen exhibit from the beginning to the close of the Exposition. He will also have charge of Mr. Wirt's display at the Charleston Exposition, which opens next month.

Mrs. Louise Dildine of White Hall, and daughter, Mrs. Frank Lewis of Fairmount Springs, who have been visiting Mrs. A. M. Derr for several days left on Tuesday evening for Michigan. They have a large number of relatives in the west and their stay will be protracted.

WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS OF character and good reputation in each state (one in this county required) to represent and advertise old established wealthy business house of solid financial standing. Salary $18.00 weekly with expenses additional, all payable in cash each Wednesday direct from head office. Horse and carriage furnished, when necessary. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Manager, 316 Caxton Build'g, Chicago. (161926)

William Fetter fell from a scaffold at the Almedia M. E. church Thursday afternoon, but was not injured to any extent.

The proprietors of the two steam laundries of town will adopt the cash system beginning January 1st next. This means "no payee, no washee."

Game is plentiful in the vicinity of Cambra. Two Wilkes-Barre hunters last week succeeded in bagging sixty quail and nearly that many rabbits, squirrels and pheasants.

We have heard that a nut and bolt mill is to be moved to Berwick, a silk mill is in course of construction, a lace factory is to follow and prospects good for a match factory. Surely our neighboring town is on the boom.

Ray Hoffman, motorman on the car which left here at 10:30 Sunday night, observed a package lying on the track a short distance beyond Park street. It was picked up and proved to be a box containing twelve phonograph records and a reproducer.

Cold weather is approaching, and it is important that every one of the fire plugs be tested, and if any are found out of repair they should be put in proper condition for full services forthwith. A little time spent in this direction may save thousands of dollars worth of property, besides human life.

Captain Alexis R. Paxton has been promoted to Major in the Artillery Corps, U. S. A. He is a nephew of the late Charles R. Paxton and Lloyd Paxton, and formerly resided in Bloomsburg where he was employed as clerk in the First National Bank. He was appointed Captain in the regular army in 1876, through the influence of Simon Cameron.

Liveryman R. C. Buckalew met with a mishap while driving in Hemlock township Friday evening. It appears that repairs to a bridge are in progress, and the party having the work left without hanging out warning lights, and the accident was the result of gross carelessness. The horse tumbled over a ten-foot embankment, taking Mr. Buckalew with it. He received numerous painful bruises.

A supper will be served in the Parish House on Thursday evening, November 21, by St. Margaret's Guild. Supper 15c, ice cream and cake extra. These suppers are very popular and are usually largely attended. The proceeds will be applied toward paying a church debt. A cordial invitation is extended to all, and some one will be present to show strangers to seats. Those who have once attended a Parish House supper are sure to come again, and those who have not been there are missing a good thing.

CLARK & SON.

We offer special inducements in the following departments, in part, as follows:

Coat and Suit Department.

Ladies' blue and grey Oxford Melton Cloth Coat, all lined, at $2.98.
Ladies' Black Kersey Coat, all lined, with storm collar, $6.67.
Ladies' Black American Kersey Cloth Coat, satin lined, $8.50.
Ladies' Black 42-inch Auto Coat, all satin lined, Kersey Cloth, $12.82.
Ladies' Norfolk Jacket Suit, real value, $14.00, now $12.00.
Ladies' Venetian Cloth Suit, $12.00 value, at $10.68.

Fur Department.

Ladies' Victoria Scarf, with six 20-inch tails, $6.78
Ladies' Long Double Scarf, 8 tails, at 5.00
Ladies' Muffs, new block, at 5.50

Dress Goods Department.

A few items mentioned here.
Regular $1.00 Colored Cheviots, at 85c Yd
Regular 75c Homespuns, at 56c "
60 in. Cravettes, all wool, at $1.50 "
58 in. Golf Goods, plaid backs, at 1.25 "

Underwear Department.

Children's Union Suits, fleecy lined, at 25c
Children's Vests and Pants, ribbed, fleecy lined, 25c
Boys' heavy fleecy lined Shirts and Drawers, 25c
Ladies' Union Suits, fleecy lined, at 50c
Ladies' Union Suits, at $1.00
Ladies' Shirts and Pants, ribbed, fleecy lined, 25c ea.
Men's Heavy Jersey Shirts and Drawers, fleecy " 42c "

Table Linens For Thanksgiving.

Heavy Cream Damask at 46c a yard. All linen.
" " " 55c " " " "
" half bl'ch'd " 50c " " " "
A nice bleached linen " 75c " " " "
A fine bleached linen " $1.00 " " " "
Table cloths, in 2 1/2, 3, 3 1/2 yards long.

H. J. CLARK & SON.

SHOES OF ALL KINDS,

except inferior shoes, can be found here. We offer honest material, whether it be calf or kid, and made up in an honest manner, into stylish and durable footwear for men, women and children.

Any and every new shape or style that is worthy of consideration will be found in our stock. Our ladies' shoes, at $2.00, have had a remarkable sale. Their merits have won friends everywhere. Another good shoe is Colonial Dame, at $2.50.

F. D. DENTLER.

OWLS HAVE BEEN CALLED WISE,

Since one, a long time ago, it is said, discovered that he needed glasses, and immediately put them on. You who are working your eyes should emulate the owl, put a pair of glasses between your eye weakness and the world. Don't let it go any further. Accurate and careful examinations are made here. Oculist's prescriptions carefully filled. Eyes tested free. Correction guaranteed. Come in to-day, any day.

GEO. W. HESS,

DR. OF REFRACTION AND JEWELER, BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Some More of Those CHILDREN'S UMBRELLAS

At 65c. and 75c. each, and they are good quality for the price. Call and examine them.

J. LEE MARTIN, The Jeweler.

Eleazer Maier, formerly of Danville now of Philadelphia, was arrested and arraigned before Guy Jacoby Monday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery preferred by W. A. Evert. It appears that Maier attacked Evert in the early part of last March and punished him to such an extent that he was laid up for three days. The case was not allowed to go farther than the squire's office.

Checkers, Dominoes, Chess and many other games at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Cash For Paper: Mill Wood. Cash will be paid for Paper Mill wood, delivered to Pennsylvania Paper Mills at Catawissa, Pa. Communicate with GRANT HERRING, Pres. or H. A. MCKILLIP, Treas., 10-31 tf Bloomsburg, Pa.

JAMES REILLY & SON, BARBERS AND HAIRDRESSERS. STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS. EXCHANGE BLOCK, SECOND FLOOR.