Forest fires are raging in many sections of the State. It is claimed that the fires are started by hunters who carelessly throw lighted matches in the dry leaves.

Centralia is still without a tax collector and there is no body corporate to which the assessments can be paid. The position is evidently not a very pleasant or paying one or there would be some seekers after it.

A petition was presented to the Court at Wilkes Barre on Monday for the incorporation of a new borough out of a portion of Kingston township to be known as McKinley borough in honor of the late president.

The sale of Pan-American stamps has in compliance with an order from the Post office department, been discontinued at the local office, as well as at all other post offices. The remaining unsold ones will be sent back to Washington.

Great interest is being manifested in the meteor display, which it is believed will occur tonight and tomorrow night. This display was looked for in 1899 and in 1900. The wise ones in general appear to concur in the belief that the stars will surely fall tonight. So make a note of it and be on the lookout.

Joseph Eck, of East Market St., says the Danville News, who has been confined to the house for twenty months with a severe attack of spinal rheumatism, is recovering and will soon be able to resume his work. Mr. Eck wishes to thank Bloomsburg Council, O. U. A. M., for the benefits he received during his illness.

Roy Cox was thrown violently to the earth while attempting to board a swiftly moving trolley on Main Street Tuesday afternoon. The cars will stop upon a proper signal and there is no necessity to risk life and "jump" them, as the small boy would put it while they are in motion. Warnings appear to be useless. There are follies as catching as contagious disorders, and this is one of them.

The meeting of the Brotherhood, of St. Paul, in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, was largely attended and the work of organization was completed. A committee on entertainment was appointed and arrangements will be made for social enjoyment at the regular meetings which are held on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. The Brotherhood will have a supper in the dining hall of the Parish House in the near future.

The ladies of the Espy Lutheran Church will serve a chicken and waffle supper in the Town Hall, Espy, Saturday evening.

John Thomas is lying in a critical condition at his home in Greenwood township. The aged gentleman was visited by a stroke of paralysis on Tuesday, and his recovery is in doubt.

An oyster supper, the proceeds of which will go to Pealer Post, G. A. R. of Orangeville, will be held in the Post rooms in that town this coming Saturday evening to which the public is most cordially invited.

For years the region has had to contend with fakirs of all sorts, and not a few of the good people have been duped, but now comes a still more dangerous class—the female fakir. During the past few weeks the region has been overrun with this class selling all kinds of goods. Treat them the same as the male fakir, and when you desire to make a purchase deal with the reputable merchant.

The excellent entertainment given by Phinney's U. S. Band in Music Hall, Pittston, on Sunday evening says Tuesday's Wilkes-Barre Record is being highly praised by those who had the pleasure of being present. Arrangements are being made to have the band play a return date next Sunday evening and it is likely the hall will be filled. This organization will be at the Normal Auditorium Saturday afternoon, November 16. Secure seats at Bidleman's book store.

The editor of one of our exchanges remarks that he always feels sorry for a girl who clings to a fellow who will spend a dollar for ice cream and chocolates and three for a Sunday buggy ride for her, on a six dollar a week salary, and sees visions of bare footed children, a frowny headed woman over a wash-tub, tin cans for dishes on the table and a combination of corn cob pipe and a man in the corner. The young man who lives within his means while single, usually has means after he's married.

Rev. Dr. McAfee who was announced to speak in the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, was unable to come, and his place was filled by Rev. W. R. Campbell of Salt Lake City, who is temporarily stationed in New York city as manager of the movement to secure a constitutional amendment to prohibit polygamy.

Mr. Campbell is a graduate of Lafayette College, and the Union Theological Seminary, and has resided in the west for the past fifteen years. On Thursday he went to Orangeville to visit his father, James I. Campbell.

THE STATE AT A GLANCE.

—Hearst Frederick's 8-year-old son, George, while attempting to jump from a wagon at Selingsgrove Monday evening fell under the wheels and was crushed to death.

—There are known to exist in the vicinity of Plymouth seventy-six cases of small pox. The outbreak was discovered not very long ago and the rapid spread of the disease is alarming.

—Sparks from a locomotive at Barnesville on Sunday set fire to Isaac Reinhold's house and it was burned to the ground. A trunk containing several hundred dollars was consumed.

—The Free Bridge Association, of Luzerne county, Monday morning commenced court proceedings to compel the County Commissioners to purchase the toll bridges of the county and make them free.

—The body of a man was found Monday morning under the steps of the Stumerville School. Physicians said he probably died of alcoholism. There is nothing about him to lead to his identification.

—At Sugar Notch Monday morning Richard Munley and his wife were buried from St. Charles' church, where they were married forty years ago. Munley died on Friday and his wife expired on Saturday.

—The dead body of Charles Cooney, a carpenter at Hollenbach Colliery, was found when the men went to work Monday morning, and the supposition is that he fell from a pile of lumber and was killed.

—A gas well, which promises to excel any of those drilled by the Consumers' Gas Company, at Roullette, has been struck. Experts say that the well will produce 2,000,000 feet of gas per day. Gas was found in a 30-foot sand at a depth of 1175 feet.

—Michael Gavin, who escaped from the insane asylum at Danville four years ago, returned to Wilkes-Barre Monday and his wife, fearing he would injure her, had him arrested. The man says that for four years he has been working in the Baldwin Works at Philadelphia.

—It is feared that diphtheria will wipe out the Jacob Wetterau family, at Quakake, a few miles south of Hazleton. Within a month five children have died, and on Monday the mother succumbed to the contagion. Three other children are suffering from the malady, while the father and one son have been the only ones thus far to escape.

—While Frank Benscoter, a farmer of Ross township, Luzerne county, was out hunting on Saturday afternoon, near his home, his gun was accidentally discharged, the contents entering his left side, near the heart, and he died the same evening. He was a son of the late Anthony Benscoter and leaves his wife and four small children. He was 39 years old. Having run a rabbit into a wall, he made a search for the game and in reaching for the gun, by some mishap, he drew the hammer and exploded the charge.
