RE FAVORS A FULL INVESTIGATION.

Senator Lodge Says His Committee In Perfectly Able to Handle the Subject-The House Discusses Pensions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 .- For the erst time this session the Philippine question was touched on in the senate. The interest taken indicates that it will occupy the attention of the upper branch of congress for some time when the tariff bill is reported. The Philippines were the subject of an address by Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts, who spoke on his resolution introduced Monday providing for the appointment of a senate committee to investigate the administration of those islands, Mr. Hoar spoke at some length regarding the unreliability of statements which have been made from time to dme regarding the situation in the Philippines and the causes which led to the outbreak.

He urged that there should be a place where any senator in his official capacity could go and ask for two witnesses to prove the correctness or incorrectness of any question upon which light is desired.

Mr. Lodge, Mr. Hoar's colleague, said he regarded the resolution as a reflection on the Philippine committee, of which he was chairman, and the necessity for the latter would cease were this resolution to be adopted. His committee, he said, was perfectly able to handle any investigation which might be conducted. Mr. Carmack (Dem.) agreed with him. The discussion was leading rapidly to an opening up of the whole Philippine question, when it was agreed that the resolution should go over until today. Mr. Mason of Illinois made a speech in favor of reciprocity with Cuba.

The house continued the debate on the pension appropriation bill and devoted much time to the proposition advanced by Mr. Rixey of Virginia to open the doors of the soldiers' homes to ex-Confederate veterans. Two nota ble speeches were made in support of the proposition, one by Mr. Gardner, a Michigan Republican, and the other by Mr. Dearmond, a Missouri Democrat.

Mr. Dearmond's eloquence aroused both sides of the house. The Republicans, with the exception of Mr. Gard- for two years and three months. ner, took no part in the discussion of the Rixey suggestion, which met with much opposition on the Democratic side on the ground that it was utterly resigned. impracticable. Mr. Lamb of Virginia read a number of telegrams from promnent ex-Confederates of Richmond protesting against it.

MANILA, Jan. 15 .- The full surrender of the forces of Colonel Marisigan, who, with Major Cabrera and a renegade priest named Castillo, gave themselves up unconditionally Jan. 10 to General Bell, who is conducting the campaign against the Insurgents in Batangas province, occurred yesterday at Taal. The insurgents created a surprise by bringing in sixty more rifles than the authorities thought Marisigan could command in the district of Toael, which he controlled.

charged with embezzling 10,000,000 The Filipinos who surrendered included three colonels, a major, five captains and twelve lieutenants. They gave up 219 rifles and one cannon. All the insurgents who surrendered did so unconditionally. General Bell ordered the men to be released.

Colonel Marisigan says he can prevail on many more men to surrender during the next few days and also obtain possession of a number of additional rifles.

General Bell says the surrender pacifies for the time being all the eastern part of Batangas.

Breakdowns of government employees have been frequent recently, including members of the United States commission. They are feeling the effects of overwork. A meeting of the commission will be held to consider the matter, and a Saturday half holiday will probably be inaugurated.

Annual Report on New York Waterways Shows Prosperous Year.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13 .- The annual report of Colonel John M. Partridge, former superintendent of public works, says:

"The Erie, Champlain, Oswego and Cayuga and Seneca canals opened to navigation on May 7 and the Black River canal June 1. The dates set for their closing was Nov. 30. The opening date was more than two weeks later than the previous season, and yet a comparison of the figures representing the amount of business actually done on the canals this year with last will show that there was an increase in tons of 74,672. A comparison of the figures week by week this year with the previous year will show that the increase which started at the very opening of the season was maintained to the last,

"The total tonnage on all canals was 3,420,613 tons as against 3,345,941 tons the previous year, the increase in tons being 74,672. Of the total freight carried 2,276,199 tons went eastward and 1.144.414 tons westward.

Father Marquette's Crucifix.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 14.-Evidence has been found that proves almost beyond a doubt that the crucifix found at Frankfort, Mich., last summer by workmen excavating for the foundation for the Ann Arbor summer hotel there was the property of Father Marquette, the famous Indian missionary. Its possession has been disputed since its finding, but it has now been turned over to the Ann Arbor Railroad company. The rust has been cleaned from its pedestal, and the date 1664 was found on one side, while on the opposite side was found the inscription, "M. and C., Quebec." Marquette left Quebec for upper Michigan in 1668 and was buried at Frankfort.

NEW PORTO RICAN SEAL.

Porto Rico has resolved to mark its doption as a colony of the United states by the adoption of a scal. To that end a committee was appointed, neluding the governor and secretary of the island, who in turn appealed for advice and aid to Mr. Gaillard Hunt, the chief authority on the great scal of the United States, and author of the distorical monograph on the subject. The old seal of Porto Rico, granted by Spain about the middle of the sixteenth century, presented three leading features: A rock in the ocean, the lamb of St. John and designs of the Spanish flag and eastle. The committee wished to retain as much as possible of this historic relic, but was compelled at last to let most of it go. The shape of the shield, however, was retained, and also the rock, after being so remodeled as to copy, with some exaggeration, the contour of the island as it appears to the voyager before entering the harbor of San Juan. Behind the rock is shown the rising

The choice of a crest, says World's Work, presented the next difficulty. No heraldic animal was suggested as baving a peculiar local significance, except the game cock, whose present popularity the government is doing its best to suppress. The native flora was thoroughly sifted with a view to finding a suitable tree. The mango was rejected because it too strongly resembles an oak, and the palm because its trunk is too snake-like. The bust of Columbus was next considered, and, though acceptable from a heraldic point of view, it was disappointing in artistic effect. One of his caravels, however, conveyed so happy a suggestion of his work and made so striking a figure above the shield that was adopted without more ado.

When it came to the motto the committee decided that Spanish was out of the question, since the new official language of the island was English, and English, because it was such an unknown tongue to most of the people, so, following the prevalent practice in armorial achievements, Latin was chosen. Mr. Hunt entered into most eminent Latinists and general scholars in the country. Of the mottoes submitted by them the most poetical had for its central thought the idea of a star shining brightly in the heart of the sea; but this was open to the objection that the star is with us the recognized symbol of statehood, a condition to which Porto Rico has not attained. The successful suggestion presently came from a Washington woman, and, almost simultaneously, from Dr. David J. Hill, assistant secretary of state. It is from Ovid: "Prospera lux oritur," literally, "A happy day is dawning." It is especially appropriate to the device of the sun rising over a flushed sea.

Very old people tell us that in the pioneer days of our locality's history, grist mills were far off and that often the early settlers went to mill on horse back with very small grists. The Week in Business. There appears to be a continued increase in all lines of business over that of the previous year. In its weekly report of the business situation

Dunn's Review says: With the unprecedented holiday business ended, transporting facilities are more nearly adequate for regular requirements. Merchandise moves to consumers more promptly, and in the iron region there is less interruption to work because of insufficient fuel. Normal conditions have by no means returned, however, and it will be some time before shippers can safely guarantee deliveries on a specified date. Buying of staple commodities is on a large scale, fully sustaining quotations at a high level, except in the few instances where efforts were made to hold prices above the point warranted by the ratio of needs to supplies. Fictitious values cannot be maintained indefinitely, and the commercial system benefits by a return to the position where distribution is facilitated. Labor controversies are few and unimportant, while the new year has brought advances in the rate of annual overhaulings were all cut down to the lowest possible limit at iron and steel plants in the effort to meet urgent demands from consumers. Coke was delivered more promptly, relieving the pressure for fuel, reflucing the premium commanded for immediate supplies, and making Bessemer pig iron more nearly sufficient for needs at Pittsburg. Foundry iron at the East is still scarce, high prices being quoted at Philadelphia, and Chicago mills cannot secure material in desired quantities. Moderate imports have resulted from the domestic deficiency, but this will not become a factor of importance it the situation continues to improve at the present rate. Although railways largely augmented supplies of rolling stock during 1901, contracts for this year's delivery already aggregate many month's full capacity of shops, and in structural shapes there is no prospect of a surplus in the near future. Weakness continues in the minor metals, copper Metropolitan Limited, which is an entirely selling 5 cents below the inflated price of a month ago, and the annual reports of output, consumption and exports indicate that the recuction was fully warranted. Tin is also weaker, and in neither metal has any active buying followed the lower quotation.
