HON. ANDREW L. FRITZ ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS IN MONTGOMERY CO.

The following is taken from the Danville Intelligencer, a paper owned by the late Hon. R. K. Polk.
Hon. Andrew L. Fritz, of Bloomsburg, announces in this week's issue as a candidate for Congress in this county for the next full term. The District is composed of Montour, Columbia, Northumberland and Sullivan counties.

Mr. Fritz was born in Northern Columbia county, and during his younger years worked on a farm and in the lumber woods. This experience has been the means of keeping him in close contact with the people, so that when a member of the Legislature he looked after their welfare by working to have laws passed to protect the interests of the farmers and laborers. He taught schools for a number of years. After receiving a thorough academic education he studied law with Senator Buckalew, and has been in active practice in Bloomsburg since his admission to the bar.

When a student at law he was Deputy Sheriff several years. He was afterwards receiver of taxes, town auditor, and Secretary of Town Council, which positions he filled with credit, and by his kind and obliging disposition he made many friends. He was a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for eight years. He served on the Judiciary General, Ways and Means, and Appropriation Committees, the three most important in the House. He also served on a number of other committees. He took a prominent part when a member of the Legislature by laboring earnestly in the interests of the taxpayers, for equal taxation, the public schools, and to economize the expenses of our State government, and he was one of the most active and hardest workers during his entire service as a Member. He was against all measures to create new offices and to increase salaries. As a legislator he has met with marked success.

He won the confidence of the people with whom he was thrown in contact, and did such excellent service in the legislature that the Democratic leaders of the State gave him the caucus nomination for Speaker, which position gave him the Democratic leadership of the House. He is truly a representative man of the people, and has gained a strong hold upon the Democrats of the State, and his personal popularity and upright life have won for him the respect of the people of all parties. His untiring industry and devotion to duty, together with his conceded ability, commend him to public favor, as is attested by his long service in the Legislature, where he possessed the high esteem of all, and where he was looked upon as one of the most popular and conscientious members of the House. There were few if any whose influence upon legislation was more potent for good than that of Mr. Fritz. He was always a great worker and scanned legislation closely, and was a forcible and ready debater, a good parliamentarian, and a Member whose close watch upon all matters of legislation kept him always prepared to intelligently discuss any measure that came up for action in the House.

This extended legislative experience will be very valuable to him as a member of Congress. He is regarded with great respect in business and social life, and in all the positions which he has filled, he was held in high esteem by his fellow citizens of all shades of political opinion.

Mr. Fritz has no opposition for Congress in Columbia county. He received the nomination in that county in 1896 and in 1898, but at the conference of the four counties he was defeated on the claim that Montour or Sullivan was then entitled to the nomination, and gave his conferees to those counties.

After the District nomination he worked and traveled for the Democratic nominees, first from Sullivan in 1896, and afterwards in 1898 and 1900, for our late Congressman. No man in the District worked harder and more effectively for Mr. Polk during his two campaigns previous to the November election than Mr. Fritz. His extended experience and high standing as a legislator and citizen will make him a strong candidate, and his past training will enable him at the beginning of the next term to take a prominent part in Congress.

Alexander Knouse, of Jackson township, is a candidate for Associate Judge. He announces his name this week, and he lays claim to the nomination because his section of the county has not been represented on the bench since Cyrus McHenry's time. In 1888 Mr. Knouse was a candidate for the nomination for sheriff and made a good run, but was defeated by John B. Casey. He submitted gracefully, and warmly supported the ticket. He has always been an active Democrat and believes in rotation in office. His section gives a big Democratic vote, and he and his friends feel that they are entitled to this recognition. Mr.
Knouse asks for your votes at the primary election in June.

JAMISON CITY.

Dr. I. L. Edwards, of Benton, and A. L. Fritz, Esq., of Bloomsburg, were in this end of the county on Monday looking after the interests of the Pennsylvania Mining & Copper Co. Dr. Edwards is President and Mr. Fritz attorney for the company.

Drum Bros., successors to A. W.
Vaughn & Co. in the mercantile business, are doing a nice trade.
They have a large general stock.

M. Forbes took charge of the City Hotel on February 1st, succeeding J. P. Hill. Mr. Forbes has been in the business here for several years and is well known to the traveling public.

The hotel business is not what it was in this section a few years ago.
At one time there were seven licensed places within a few miles' radius, five of them in Jamison and two at Central. They all boomed for a while, but the trade has fallen off, and four of them have closed up. Proctor Inn has not been open for the past four years.

Speaking of Proctor Inn, we notice handbills posted announcing the sale of all the personal property remaining there on Friday of this week. The real estate will also be sold at that time. It is a shame that such a fine property should have to be abandoned for want of patronage. It cost about $16,000, and there were few better furnished hotels in the state. Its location made it a most delightful place to spend a few days for recreation and rest, and lovers of nature had a bountiful opportunity to gratify their tastes by roaming around among the rocks and rills. But for some reason it did not draw sufficient patronage to make it a paying investment, and for the past few years it has been occupied by William Graham as a private residence.
We understand that it can be bought very cheap.

The saw mill started up again on Monday after several weeks idleness. They have a large number of logs on hand, most of which are brought down the west branch of the Pentecost railroad. About thirty five hands are employed at the mill.

The Tannery is running seven hours a day now. Great quantities of hemlock bark are being prepared.

The Morning Press publishers have hung out a neat and attractive sign over their entrance to their office in the Dentler building.

I Coughed

"I had a most stubborn cough for many years. It deprived me of sleep and I grew very thin. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was quickly cured."
R. N. Mann, Fall Mills, Tenn.

Sixty years of cures and such testimony as the above have taught us what Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will do.

We know it's the greatest cough remedy ever made. And you will say so, too, after you try it.
There's cure in every drop.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows.
Leave it with him. We are willing.

Spring Medicine

There's no season when good medicine is so much needed as in Spring, and there's no medicine which does so much good in Spring as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Do not delay taking it.
Don't put it off till your health tone gets too low to be lifted.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Will give you a good appetite, purify and enrich your blood, overcome that tired feeling, give you mental and digestive strength and steady nerves.

Be sure to ask for HOOD'S, the best medicine money can buy. It is Peculiar to Itself

Bad Feelings in Spring—"In the spring I was feeling very badly. My blood was very poor. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me much good. I think it is a wonderful spring medicine and recommend it to all sick and suffering."

EAST BENTON.

The great amount of prospecting for hidden treasures in the earth by mining and boring, and in which so many people invest all their possessions in the hope of becoming speedily wealthy, without effort, suggests the following lines in rhyme.

Know all men by these presents,
That the earth is big and round; Whether rich, or poor, or distressed, Millions of wealth, we have found.

All the land that we have leased, In valley, hill-top, or mount;
From morn till eve, have not ceased To search the Country all around.

Gold, silver, oil and copper, Fill our treasures "heapin" full;
Sure, and this is not a whopper, For each of us had a pull.

Sure, and we have not "buildin" been,
Such fine castles in the air;
Nor "dreamin" of a fairy land, Where one never knows despair.

Home and friends we've sacrificed, To appease our thirst for gold;
And no joke nor jesting here, Our hopes turned to rust and mould.

Of course, while we believe that it is proper and right to develop our mineral resources by prospecting, at even some financial risk, we do not think that it is wise to risk all the savings of a life time for something that is entirely out of sight, in the hope of striking a rich find, which so frequently does not materialize.

A. U. Leshar's mother died at Bendertown last week and was buried in the St. James Cemetery last Saturday. She was a sister of Mrs. Stott McHenry of Stillwater.
Mrs. Susan Beishline of Jonestown died at the home of her brother-in-law, Harvey Ash near Stillwater last week and was interred in the Jonestown Cemetery last Sunday. Mrs. Beishline was the widow of A. W. Beishline of Bendertown who died a number of years ago.
She is survived by a circle of friends and a daughter who lives in Hazleton.

At this writing the roads alternate to good and bad. O, what bad patches of roads!

Mrs. Alvin Dresler of this place is no better and great solicitude for her recovery is universally felt.
But great apprehensions for the worst are feared.

Mrs. Sarah, relict of the late Philip Hess, died at her home in Espy Sunday night, at the age of seventy-eight years. Four children and a sister, Mrs. Franklin Shuman, and a brother ex-county commissioner Stephen Pohe, survive. She was also a half-sister of Mrs. Samuel Turnbach, of Bloomsburg. The remains were interred in the Afton Cemetery yesterday morning.
