Miss Roosevelt In German Cartoon. RERLIN, March 26.—Simplicissimus. an illustrated journal noted for the brutality of its cartoons and which has often been confiscated by the police because of its irreverence toward high personages, appeared yesterday with a drawing representing Miss Alice Roosevelt at sea in an open boat, an immense fat hog in one end of the boat and Miss Roosevelt standing in the other holding a pig wrapped in the stars and stripes. This drawing is inscribed, "We received your prince; you must admit our hogs."

Cecil Rhodes Is Weaker.

CAPE TOWN, March 26.-Cecil Rhodes experienced a bad heart attack yesterday evening, from which he did not rally as he has done from previous attacks of this nature. At midnight he was weaker than at any time during his illness. Oxygen is administered to the patient daily, and he is frequently tapped for dropsy. His friends entertain little hope for his recovery.

Alice Roosevelt's Name Honored. BERLIN, March 21.-Emperor William has ordered that a small yacht now in the service of the German admiralty at Wilhelmshaven shall be named the Alice Roosevelt. The yacht has just been put into commission. She has hitherto been without a name, but was listed in the navy as D. 2. An Oll Gusher In Ohio. BARNESVILLE, O., March 21.-The Unity Oil company of Pittsburg has struck an oil gusher a few miles southeast of here. "I am glad to be retired," said the general. "I have been a long time in harness and am ready for a little leisure. When I feel like work. I have enough private business to keep me interested. I will not travel. I've had enough of that. I won't even write a book."

General Otis is in excellent health, despite his sixty-four years of strenuous life.

OLEO BILL DENOUNCED.

Dishonest and Unjust. Says Money.

Rhen Unsented In the House, WASHINGTON, March 26.-A sharp attack on the pending oleomargarine bill was made in the senate yesteday said to have descried to rebels in south- by Mr. Money (Miss.). He denounced the measure as "unconstitutional, immoral, dishonest and unjust." He said It was a proposition to tax out of existence one industry for the benefit of another and was "protection gone mad." On behalf of the working people of the country he appealed to the senate not to enact the bill into law and declared that if it could be voted on by secret ballot it would not receive a dozen votes in the senate.

The house by a majority of 10 unseated Mr. Rhea (Ky.), a Democrat, and seated in his place J. McKenzie Moss, who was formerly a Democrat. but who, according to his brief, is in accord with the Republican party on the dominant issues. The Republican majority in the house is 43. While only two Republicans, Hanbury and Vreeland (N. Y.), voted with the Democrats, enough Republicans remained away or declined to vote to reduce the majority to 10.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chanevville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lang trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Doctor Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Allogether I have taken righteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription, and five vials of 'Pelets.'
