Dief Comment On Political and Other Matters of Public Interest. (ANDREW J. PALM.)

The result of the recent election in Chicago shows what the people think of municipal ownership and what they will decide if they but get the opportunity of expressing their wishes. The voters of the Queen City were asked to express their opinion as to whether the city ought to own the street railtoads, gas, water and electric light plants within the city limits. The result was that six times as many voted in favor of such ownership as against L Any different result would not have been expected from a sensible lot of voters, unless a still larger majority might have been looked for. The people who will vote to give their own valuable franchises into the control of grasping individuals are stupid, or corrupt, or both.

Quay was anxious to have the pleasure of owning a governor, and used this as a reason why he wanted Stone four years ago. The Old Man's ownership was absolute for a time, but it is evident that Stone has grown weary of playing political dog and refuses longer to obey his master's call. Elkin isn't Quay's choice, for he well knows that Elkin owes allegiance to other bosses whom he would serve. The truth is that Quay has reached that point in his political career when he can no longer dictate to the other big bosses in his party. His political power is on the wane, and much as he may dislike the fact and try to conceal it, he will be obliged hereafter to fall in and go along, or suffer defeat at the hand of younger and more vigorous men who have graduated in his political school. Quay has but little choice in the matter, for it becomes more clear day by day that Elkin will be nominated whether the Old Man wants him or not. . . .

It is high time that the honest Democrats of the state should see to it that no more Democratic traitors be sent to the legislature to disgrace themselves and their party. The treachery of a few men, elected as Democrats, to the last two sessions of the legislature deserved death as much as treachery in the army ever deserved it, but since physical death cannot be visited upon them, either legally or morally, let their political death be sure and swift and so certain that it will place them beyond hope of resurrection. For decency's sake, and for the sake of honest government let every honest Democrat take a solemn vow that he will do his utmost to keep all such men from being nominated to represent his party. Better far elect a machine Republican than a Democrat tainted with Quayism. There are certainly enough Democrats of influence, character and self respect in every county of the state to prevent the disgrace of sending Quay Democrats to the next legislature, no matter whether they want to do their dirty work in the house or the senate. . . .

Every man who has attempted to defend our brutal and treacherous dealings with the Filipinos has contradicted himself as well as the truth when trying to explain the situation so as to make our course harmonize with what ought to be expected of a civilized nation. In his testimony before the senate committee General Otis declared that he believed Aguinaldo to be strictly honest in money matters, but having few equals in duplicity. Aguinaldo must differ very widely from all his American brethren, for if there is any one thing which will bring out their duplicity it is money matters. More lies are told, more deception practiced and more downright deviltry of all kinds perpetrated because men are not like Aguinaldo, strictly honest in money matters, than from any other cause. Otis, like all the others who have been called to justify our outrageous conduct in the Philippines, dislikes to lie, but dislikes still worse to tell the unpleasant truth which convicts us of treachery and rankest hypocrisy in our dealings with the Filipinos. Our whole conduct toward them from start to finish has been simply outrageous and Otis knows it. . . .

Mr. Flinn, the gentleman from Pittsburg, announced some time ago that he has retired from politics, and, acting on the theory that repetition enforces truth, he repeats the assertion at regular intervals, that no one may make a mistake and think he is still toing political stunts. It is almost certain that any political cause would suffer in the public estimation if it were suspected that it had Mr. Flinn's sympathy. It is a question whether politics didn't really shrink from Mr. Flinn before he decided to perform the retiring act. It is true that he does not retire very honorably, but it is equally true that it would be impossible for him to remain in politics with honor to himself or credit to any party with which he might ally himself. The reason why Flinn was a political failure is that he devoted his whole energies to furthering his personal interests. In other words, he was in politics for what there was in it. Had he stood up and done battle for the pubifc interests and the cause of good government, he would today be an honored leader, and could do much toward overthrowing those who are still lead ers, but who are dishonored because they, too, have no thought above personal gain. Flinn never had a political friend that he would not betray, when betrayal would advance his selfish interests; he never had a po-Htical principle that he would not cast to the winds if he could profit personally by so doing. May his kind grow smaller and smaller, until Durham, Stone, Eikin, Quay and the whole corrupt crowd has passed into politient oblivion.

WHAT THEY SAY

Extracts From Various Sources Indicating Democratic Opinion Concerning Questions of the Day.

The Republicans who are so wise in the condemnation of free silver at the present time forget that the Republican state platform of 1892 commended the silver purchase act as a "long yet prudent step toward the free coinage of silver." What was meant by that if it did not mean that the Republicans of Indiana were in favor of free silver?-Michigan City (Ind.)

The charge that Senator McLaurin was bribed to vote for the ratification of the treaty of Paris, and the counter charge that Senator Tillman in making it has slandered his colleague, stand undisposed of by the senate. Both are of the highest importance and dwarf into comparative insignificance the matter of fisticuffs, gross and unseemly as that was, to which the senate has addressed itself .- Washington Star.

The logic of the imperialistic organs is something wonderful to behold. They tell us that the natives of the Philippines are savages, barbarians, heathens and blood thirsty head-hunters, and in the same breath boast that we are violating the articles of civilized warfare by enlisting the aid of these same barbarians. The logic of the imperialistic organs may be depended upon to answer itself .- Com-

At any rate it might be well to arrange a few large Boer demonstrations on coronation day so that the true sentiment of the people may be made known to offset the demoralizing influence of the president's act. When the real feeling of the people is expressed the president may regret the concession he has made to the monarchial and aristocratic ideas which have developed with the progress of imperialism.-Muncy (Pa.) Democrat.

The United States senate is the busiest body of men one most ever heard of. From the days of the great Sanhedrim to this good hour no set of legislators ever had so much to do. And what are they doing? They are sweating over subsidy schemes and canal projects and high tariffs and imperialism and the reception of princes and the subjugation of far-off islanders and a whole lot of other things which will result in no good to the toiling and struggling masses whom they misrepresent.-Lexington (N. C.) Dis-

It is neither fair nor just that the enormous newspaper interests of the country-interests in which the general public is deeply concerned, to say nothing of the hundreds of thousands employed by the newspapers-should be bled for the benefit of the woodpulp trust. Among the lattest utterances of President McKinley was one in favor "of remitting those taxes which experience has shown to be most burdensome to the industries of the people." And to nothing more burdensome than the tariff duty on wood-pulp could his words be applied.-Cincinnati Commercial Tribune (Rep.).

The sentiment in favor of tariff revision is gaining in spite of the herculean efforts of a few party leaders in the Republican camp to keep it in the background. The pernicious system of protecting the giant monopolies with their accumulated millions, is so grossly wrong that a revolution must shortly set in that will demand a revision of the whole protective system. The principle of the protective system is grossly misrepresented under our present tariff laws, and instead of affording protection to our industries, permits and encourages a "community of interests" for the restraint of legitimate trade,-St. Mary's (W. Va.) Oracle.

The testimony given by soldiers at the trial of Major Waller, on the charge of killing natives of Samar without trial should be interesting to Secretary Root, who declares officially that it is not true that there has been 'marked severity" in the conduct of warfare by the American troops. The execution of 12 unarmed natives without trial may strike the secretary as an instance of "marked humanity and magnanimity," but some persons are likely to regard the evidence in the Waller case as justification of General Miles' very moderate condemnation of military methods employed to assimilate the Filipinos.-North American. Philadelphia.

Senator Hoar, in a recent speech in the senate, referred to the fact that an order had been issued by the Philippine commission prohibiting the reading of the Declaration of Independence in the Philippine islands. The senator further pointed out that by the law promulgated by that commission it was a penitentiary offense to read the Declaration of Independence. The declaration is said to be barred from the Philippines on the ground that it is an incendiary document. Is this not a curious charge to make against that document? It sets forth certain self-evident truths and discusses the inalienable rights of man. Are we as a nation in a position to punish people for believing in that declaration or in reading it aloud to others? Imperialism has certainly brought us into a strange situation, and one is forcibly reminded of the time when a christian monarch felt it necessary to suppress a publication which contained extracts from the Bible condemning monarchy. If we are going to have imperialism we will find it embarrassing to preach free government here while we practice imperialism elsewhere.-Commoner.

The Dinner Pail

Of the American working man is generally well filled. In some cases it is too well filled. It contains too many kinds of food, and very often the food is of the wrong kind—hard to digest and containing little nutrition. As a consequence many a work-ing man develops some form of stomach trouble which interferes with his health and reduces his working capacity.

Where there

where there is indigestion or any other indication of disease of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will almost invariably produce a perand permanent cure.

in the stomach, and my food would not digest, then kidney and liver trouble and my back got weak so I could scarcely get around. At last I had all the complaints at once, the more I doctored the worse I got until six years passed. I had become so poorly I could only walk in the house by the aid of a chair, and I got so thin I had given so to die, thinking that I could not be cured. Then one of my neighbors said, 'Take my advice and take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and make a new man out of yourself.' The first bottle helped me so I thought I would get another, and after I had taken eight bottles in
