James Kisner.

James Kisner died at his home near Jerseytown, on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, aged nearly ninety-one years. His wife and two children survive him, the latter being Dr. Kisner, of Conyngham, Luzerne county and Mrs. Peter F. Reedy, of Jerseytown. Mr. Kisner was born and spent his whole life in Madison township and followed farming. He was a highly esteemed citizen and had the respect of all who knew him. The funeral will be held on Saturday at 10 o'clock, and the burial will be at Heller's cemetery.

The Olive Club.

At a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Olive Club held in the Y. M. C. A. parlor Saturday afternoon, interesting and gratifying reports were made by the various committees.

According to the report made by the Library committee, of which Miss Laura Waller is at the head, there is a snug sum on hand. It is hoped however that a considerable more may be added to it by the first of the year, when it is proposed to open a public library. Mrs. Worthington, of the Charity Committee, made a report which showed that excellent work is being accomplished by this department.

Work in the various other departments of the organization, such as Town Improvement, Municipal, Humane and Educational is being vigorously prosecuted, and the progress being made is certainly commendable.

After a careful and deliberate transaction of the business before the meeting, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. John G. Harman; Vice President, Mrs. H. H. Grotz; Secretary, Miss L. Claire Whitmoyer; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Helen Chrisman; Treasurer, Miss Harriet Carpenter; Town Improvement Department, Mrs. J. K. Miller; Library Department, Miss Laura Waller; Municipal Department, Mrs. E. R. Ikeler; Charity Department, Mrs. M. S. Worthington; Humane Department, Mrs. F. W. Redeker; Educational Department, Mrs. T. R. Crosswell; Directors, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. Robert Hawley, Mrs. R. R. Little, Mrs. E. B. Tustin, Miss Sloan and Miss Drinker.

Firemen Attend Church.

The Bloomsburg Fire Department attended service in the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. There was a good representation of all of the five companies. They marched down Main Street from the Town Hall in a double column, and made a very nice appearance. Dr. Hemingway took for the foundation of his sermon Rev. 3:12, " Him that overcometh will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out." The discourse was vigorous and convincing.

Joseph L. Sharpless has leased the room on the corner of Main and Iron Streets, and will open a grocery store about September first. He has had a large experience in the business. He was at one time, a few years ago, connected with C. H. Sharpless & Co., grocers, on Center Street, and for more than a year has been in the employ of the L. T. Sharpless Co. Limited, as clerk.

Geese & Company is a lively firm conducting a repair shop on West Fifth street. Jerry Geese the senior member is an expert at the business, a fact which needs no further proof than the large patronage which the firm enjoys. The COLUMBIAN representative visited the works Saturday afternoon. Beside the numerous bicycles and other machinery awaiting repair there was an automobile to be overhauled.

A freak in animal life was seen at George Hassert's chicken pen on Monday in the shape of a little peep with four legs. Two were in their natural places while the others protruded from the back. It lived for only a short time after being hatched.

PURELY PERSONAL

Gay Steppy went to Pittsburg on Tuesday in the interest of the Car Company. John A. Kline of Benton, attended the school directors' convention on Tuesday. Levi Fester of Fowlersville, was among our callers on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tustin are in New York City this week. Miss Mary Lewis returned to her home in Hollidaysburg on Monday, after a pleasant visit in town. Gere Jayne of Wilkes Barre, spent a portion of Monday in town. He is practicing law at that place. His parents reside in Berwick. Herbert Wyle of Danville, was the guest of Louis Gross over Sunday. Mr. Wyle is a member of the Danville "Morning News" staff. N. P. Moore Esq. of Buck Horn spent a few hours in town on Monday. His broken leg has entirely healed, but is not perfectly straight. E. S. McKillip is calling on his numerous friends in town. He is engaged as inspector for a large life insurance Company of New York. The life of Mrs. Lavina Thomas came to an end after a long illness at the home of her daughter Mrs. John B. Earhart in Light Street last night. Heart disease was the cause of death. She was 74 years of age and leaves to survive a family of eight children, four daughters and one son by her first husband and three sons by her second husband. She moved to her daughter's home last October, previous to that time she lived in Berwick. The Rescue Fire Company is making big preparations for its Fair and Festival which will open in their building on East Fifth street next Monday. A great variety of articles will be offered for sale and refreshments will be served every evening. The profits will be used to pay off the building debt and it is hoped that the patronage will be liberal. A street parade will be given on Monday evening.

SHERIFF SALES.

The following properties were sold by Sheriff Knorr on Saturday: Bloomsburg Canning Company to George E. Lockwood for $225. O. B. Ammerman property in Jamison City to Cosmopolitan Building & Loan Association for $566.56. I. J. Burcher property in Elk Grove to Louisa F. Kennedy for $200. Francis Wolverson property in Roaringcreek township was not sold. The sale was postponed indefinitely. The sale of the Hamlin Car Manufacturing Company, of Catawissa, was adjourned until Monday, and then continued until Saturday.

A DIFFERENCE.

A watch is a watch but there's a difference in watches. There is a difference in material, a difference in finish and workmanship, a difference in the time keeping qualities, and a difference in durability. It is important in buying a watch to buy only from a practical watchmaker and reliable dealer. A man who understands all of the desirable points about watches and who will stand ready to back his guarantee. I have purchased an exceptionally heavy stock of watches in all grades and sizes, for this year's trade. I have marked them at prices that are bound to sell them. I will take pleasure in showing them to you.
