American Author's End Came Suddenly,

LONDON, May 7.-Bret Harte is dead at Camberley, near Aldershot. Mr. Harte's death was somewhat sudden. It resulted from heart failure. He had suffered from an affection of the throat since last December.

Francis Bret Harte was born at Albany, N. Y., on Aug. 25, 1839. He was a son of a teacher in the Albany Female seminary, a scholar of wide culture, who, dying, left his family practically without means.

Bret Harte received only an ordinary school education, and upon completing this in 1854 he went to California with his mother to seek his fortune. Before attaining literary fame Bret Harte was a schoolteacher, a miner, an express messenger, a printer and a newspaper editor. At various times he held offices of minor importance under the government, one of them being secretary of the mint at San Francisco. The young man made a failure of everything he andertook until he found success in literature. He first gained fame by writing "The Heathen Chinee" in 1869, and immediately his writings gained a wide popularity. His productions previous to the appearance of "The Heathen Chinee" had included both verse and short stories.

Besides the two publications of his collected works Bret Harte published in all twenty-two books, including prose and verse. The first publication of his collected works was in 1882. The inst is just out.

Bret Harte and his wife separated twenty-eight years ago, the cause being a mystery. Mrs. Harte and her two daughters removed to Plainfield, N. J., and later to New York. There were two sons. No reconciliation was ever effected.

The ORIGINAL and MOST SMOKED long cut tobacco in all the United States, manufactured with the express purpose of blending the two qualities, that of a good smoke and a good chew.

It is made of ripe, sweetened "Burley," the only tobacco from which a perfect combination of smoking and chewing tobacco can be made.

Gail & Ax Navy is known by the distinctive character of its blue wrapper (which has many imitators), it being to-day identically the same as forty years ago, and it now stands for the quality that it did then. You get the very best, and take no chances, when you buy Gail & Ax Navy.
