

STRIKERS USE ROCKS

Resumption of Work at Mines Prevented by Mobs.

NONUNION MEN ROUGHLY TREATED.

President Mitchell to Do Some Talking—The Relief Plan Satisfactory. Only Most Destitute Cases Have Received Aid.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 30.—President Mitchell will start this week to fill engagements he has to deliver addresses before United Mine Workers' assemblies in different parts of the anthracite region.

A crowd of 1,500 men and boys prevented the resumption of work at the Wanke washery at Duryea yesterday morning. A number of men came down from Scranton to work at the washery. They were at once surrounded by a threatening crowd. The burgess was appealed to to protect the men who wanted to work, but he thought he would not be able to do it, and he telephoned to Sheriff Jacobs. The sheriff sent four deputies to the scene, but when they arrived the mob had dispersed. The men who had been hired to work at the washery were badly frightened, and when the train for Scranton came along they jumped aboard and returned to that place. A volley of stones followed them. The operator of the washery says he will not make another attempt to resume operations.

Seven striking miners from Nanticoke have been arraigned before Magistrate Brown of this city, charged with committing an assault on William Young, an engineer employed at one of the collieries of the Susquehanna Coal company. While on his way to work Young claimed he was held up and that two of the defendants threw stones at him, one of the stones striking him on the head and inflicting a deep cut. The strikers were held in jail for trial at court.

National Board Member John Fallon reports that the strikers are satisfied with the relief plan as carried out in the Wyoming region. The first installment of the relief fund was not large, and success could be given only in the most destitute cases.

Nonunion Men Mobbled.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., July 30.—Two crowds of strikers, numbering about 3,000 men, women and children, collected at all the Reading and Union company operations between here and Shamokin last evening and hurled stones and sticks at the nonunion men. Six of the latter were captured by the mob near Richards' colliery and were badly punished. On promising to remain away from the colliery until the strike ends they were liberated. Several scores of nonunion men remained at a couple of the mines last night, afraid to face the strikers who are picketed along roads leading into town.

Workmen Cursed and Stoned.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., July 30.—One thousand men, women and children assembled at the mineral company's Cameron colliery last evening and hooted and cursed the nonunion men as they quit work. A large crowd of boys stoned several sub-bosses as they entered town. Chief Burgess Thomas and the police charged the crowd and sent them to flight. The coal company officials say they will ask for troops tomorrow if there is a continuance of the attempts to annoy the workmen.

Mine Superintendent Shot.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 29.—Superintendent Daniel Landerman of the Colliery, was badly wounded yesterday in a riot that ensued while he was trying to aid his son and a nonunion man to escape from a crowd of strikers. Landerman's son was also severely injured, and a man of the name of Frost was hit in the back with a rock.

Large Shipment of Gold.

NEW YORK, July 30.—More than 3,000,000 in gold went out of the country on the steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm, the gold bars being packed in seventy-four kegs. In the kegs was a quantity of sawdust, put there to prevent any loss of weight by the bars abutting against each other. A lot of magsmen carried the kegs on board, some of them swearing under their breath over the heaviness of these kegs of mags.

Wireless Telephone Successful.

BERLIN, July 29.—Ernest Ruhmer, a electrical inventor, has succeeded in telephoning seven kilometers by his wireless method. The speaking voice was perfectly audible continuously using the experiments. Ruhmer, who thereto has used a searchlight thirty-centimeters in diameter, will construct another of between 100 and 200 meters, expecting to speak forty kilometers, which would be a distance sufficient to cover a modern city.

Six Hundred Goats Shot.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., July 29.—On Saturday night fourteen masked men appeared on the grazing ground of the Angola Range association in 'iron mesa, where about 1,000 goats were ranging. The three herders in charge of the goats were bound, while the masked men slaughtered more than 60 of the flock by shooting and stabbing them. The loss is estimated at $4,000.

Big Indian Dance On.

WHITE EAGLE, I. T., July 29.—One of the biggest Indian dances held in the Indian Territory for years is in progress, having been started by the 'bonas, with visitors from the tribes of the Osages, the Kiowas and the Joes. Seven hundred tepees have been erected.

READY FOR ATTACK.

Secretary Sanger Says Long Island Sound Forts Are in Good Trim.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Acting Secretary Sanger has returned to the war department, having spent a day in company with General MacArthur and other officers of the army who were making a tour of the forts forming the defenses of the eastern entrance of Long Island sound, which is to be the scene of the army and navy maneuvers. They found everything in excellent condition to meet the navy in the coming engagement.

Cables connecting all the forts have been tested and found in good order, and arrangements have been made for a complete signal system. The fire control system and other features of defense coming under the signal corps were found in good condition, and before the maneuvers begin it is expected that they will be perfect.

General MacArthur is very much interested in the coming maneuvers and is giving the same care and attention to the defenses as he would if the maneuvers were not mimic warfare.

PAPAL APPOINTMENTS.

Cardinal Gottl Named For Most Important Place.

ROME, July 30.—Cardinal Gottl, prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Bishops and Regulars and of Regular Discipline, has been appointed by Pope Leo prefect of the propaganda to succeed the late Cardinal Ledochowski. Cardinal Agliardi was appointed prefect of the Economy of the Congregation of the Propaganda in place of Cardinal Vincent Vannutelli.

Cardinal Vannutelli will replace Cardinal Gottl as prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Bishops and Regulars and of Regular Discipline.

The selection of Cardinal Gottl to succeed the late Cardinal Ledochowski in the most important post in the gift of the pope is universally regarded as indicating the pontiff's personal wishes as to the personality of his successor. Cardinal Gottl has long been considered the most likely of the cardinals for succession to the papal throne.

BASEBALL SCORES.

Games Played Yesterday in the National and American Leagues.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. At Brooklyn-Pittsburg, 11; Brooklyn, 1. At New York-St. Louis, 5; New York, 1. At Boston-Chicago, 1; Boston, 6. At Philadelphia-Cincinnati, 7; Philadelphia, 1.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. At Boston-Detroit, 5; Boston, 5. At Philadelphia-St. Louis, 2; Philadelphia, 1. At Baltimore-Cleveland, 7; Baltimore, 5. At Washington-Chicago, 2; Washington, 5.

A Harmony Dinner.

BOSTON, July 25.—Nearly 4,000 Democrats gathered at Nantasket yesterday and participated in the "harmony" meeting arranged by the New England Democratic league, the new political organization which is expected to develop its strength in the fall campaign. Mayor P. A. Collins of this city acted as "moderator," as he expressed it, and presented in order Hon. Edward M. Shepard of New York, Senator Edward W. Carmack of Tennessee and Hon. William J. Bryan of Nebraska, who expounded and discussed the issues of the campaign to the marked satisfaction of the audience.

Gales Caused Great Loss in England.

LONDON, July 28.—The gale which has prevailed in England caused great destruction to crops throughout the United Kingdom. Incoming steamers report terrific weather on the Atlantic. The rough weather continued around the British coasts Sunday evening and has been general throughout Europe. A cyclone occurred in the Liege district, Belgium, Saturday. Navigation on the Liege and Maestricht canal was stopped by fallen trees, and the greater portion of the crops was destroyed or hopelessly damaged. Enormous injury was done in the town of Liege.

The Texas Floods.

DALLAS, Tex., July 30.—Trouble from the floods has shifted from the extreme west to more southern portions of the state. Reports from Hearnes and Calvert, on the Houston and Texas railroad, show that more heavy rains have fallen, and the conditions are becoming more serious hourly. The town of Bosque, just west of Waco, is surrounded by water. No loss of life is reported. The conditions west of the Texas and Pacific are improving.

Big Failure in Havana.

HAVANA, July 25.—The house of B. Duran failed for nearly $400,000. Two general commission houses in New York are said to have been caught for $150,000 and placed in an embarrassing condition. Several firms here were caught for varying amounts from $1,000 to over $100,000. Upman & Co., bankers, are reported to have lost $50,000, but are unhurt, and Zaldo & Co., the agents of the Ward Line, $30,000. The crash came like a thunderbolt.

Princeton Students in Hard Luck.

PRINCETON, N. J., July 29.—The final reports of the June examinations show that fifty-three students have been dropped to lower classes. They stand as follows: Sophomores, 24; Juniors, 14; seniors, 5; specials, 6. The names have been withheld, but it was learned on good authority that at least ten or twelve of the number are athletes, several of them being prominent in baseball, football and track affairs.

Pittsburg's Big Blaze.

PITTSBURG, July 30.—A revised estimate of losses in yesterday's big fire places the total at $138,500. Six firemen were injured, two eight-story buildings almost completely destroyed and a number of others slightly damaged on Liberty street. The fire raged fiercely for seven hours. The origin of the fire is still a mystery.

PARTY REFORM

Can Come Only By Fighting Outside Party Lines.

The Linesville (Pa.) Herald, edited by Hon. H. D. Lowing, recently contained the following editorial, which is full of good sense. Mr. Lowing was formerly a Republican member of the legislature, but of late years has refused, like a great many other conscientious Republicans, to lend his sanction to a party which no longer represents his honest views:

"Sometimes, perhaps, a party may be reformed from the inside, but it will be difficult for anyone to point to a case where it has been done. It is a vain hope which some good men indulge in. Reforming a party from the inside is like a man trying to lift himself out of the mud and mire by his boot straps.

"The only way to get rid of rings and political schemers is to turn them down, even if you have to turn down some good men with them. To do this by forming a new party requires a political upheaval amounting to a revolution.

"Generally the only practical way to accomplish any good is for the independent men, who care more for good, honest government than they do for party success, is to swing boldly over to the other side; then one man counts as much as two who, by way of protest, vote for a party that cannot elect anyone.

"The men who always vote their party ticket, right or wrong, are a part of the machine as much as the bosses who make the nominations and shape the policy of the party. The procession that follows the band wagon wherever it goes are as much a part of the machine as those riding in the box and doing the steering. Republicans are not voting now for Abraham Lincoln, Thaddeus Stevens, Governor Curtin, John P. Hale and Charles Sumner, nor for the principles of self government and civil liberty for all men, which those men carried out.

"The Republican party is controlled by men as unlike the patriarchs of the Civil War as Jefferson Davis and Howell Cobb were unlike Jackson, Jefferson and Madison.

"In the offices the Democrats and Whigs were not all pro-slavery fanatics and many of them stuck to their old parties hoping to reform them from the inside, but those in office, with the influence and money of the Cotton Kings to back them, were too much for all the good men when divided, and pushed the people into war and revolution.

"While good Republicans are waiting for reform on the inside those in control are waging a cruel and wicked war of conquest, laying waste the best settled and best civilized portions of the Philippine Islands, where the best educated and most Christian inhabitants are aspiring for independence and self government. At the same time they are in league with despotic Sultans, paying them out of the treasury and supporting them in their slaveholding imperialism.

"Is the flag of liberty that floats over the palace and harem and slave pens of the Sultan to stay put" until the Republican party can be reformed from the inside?

"Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, and one or two Republicans in the house were the only Republicans in congress who had the humanity and courage to protest against the continuance of the unrighteousness war upon those who had broken the Spanish power and were setting up for themselves.

"Must this unjust war of subjugation go on until these half a dozen, or less, reform the party from the inside, or will men assert their independence and break away from the control of the bosses and support men in other parties who believe that all men have rights too sacred to be trampled under foot by conquering armies."

PUBLIC OPINION

Opinions From Various Sources On Political Questions of the Day.

Taken as a whole the ticket is at all events a respectable and substantial one, and distinctly superior to that which Senator Quay made for the Republican organization. As to its prospects of success those remain to be determined by circumstances, the force of which cannot immediately be measured.—Pittsburg Leader (Rep.).

It is altogether likely Mr. Pattison will be heard in every county in the state, in advocacy of the cause of which he is now the chosen leader, before the campaign closes. Mr. Pattison is a speaker of great vigor. Robust in health and of commanding appearance, he is sure to make a profound impression wherever he goes. Dauphin county is quite sure to hear him more than once before November.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Judge Pennypacker will be closely watched. The judge, for a proclaimed believer in clean government, has a curious entourage. It includes not only Quay and Penrose, arch spirits in the cause of machine politics, but the watching police does not forget that Durham is also a main factor in his elevation and that ex-Senator William H. Andrews and others of that ilk assisted. These men do not make governors without some object in view. And now it is proposed to add Stone by placing him. Truly the exclusive Philadelphian is having formed for him a kitchen cabinet that will bear watching, not only by the public but by himself. Will he balk? Or will the people decline, as they should, to accept pledges that do not come from Judge Pennypacker himself, but from Quay, with the indorsement of Penrose, Durham, Andrews, Stone et al.?—Pittsburg Dispatch (Rep.).

Fantastic stories have been written of magic mirrors in which the future was revealed. If such a thing were possible many a bright-faced bride would shrink from the revelation of herself, stripped of all her loveliness. If there is one thing which would make a woman shrink from marriage it is to see the rapid physical deterioration which comes to so many wives. The cause is generally due to womanly diseases. Lost health and lost comeliness are restored by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. "It is with the greatest pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery have done for me," writes Mrs. Emma L. Bankes, of 102 North 7th Street, Harrisburg, Pa. "They have done me a world of good. I had female weakness for six years; sometimes would feel so badly I did not know what to do, but I found relief at last, thanks to Dr. Pierce for his kind advice. I have this medicine still in my house and will always keep it."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Or for cloth-bound volume send 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Reduced Rates to the Seashore.

CURRENT COMMENT

Comment on Matters Political and Otherwise of Public Interest.

ANDREW J. PALM.

The man who can deliberately declare that Pennsylvania has no political evils worthy of mention, as Pennypacker did last November, can insist with equal consistency that Hell has no terrors which deserve to be feared, and that Satan lacks but a few of the qualities necessary to make him a saint.

Republican papers have done a good deal of boasting lately about our increasing trade with the Philippines. In May our exports amounted to less than $30,000, not counting 4,000 coffins in which to bury our dead and dying soldiers. These at $8 each would amount to more than all the other exports, but of course, they must be counted in showing the great benefits of the war, as must also the whisky and beers used by our soldiers and the natives whom we have the honor of teaching the use of strong drink.

Has the Republican who thinks that Quay controls the movements of the heavenly bodies ever stopped to think of the fearful consequences to the state and nation should the Old Man peg out in one of his many cases of indisposition? According to his own statement at the last state convention, made with a voice filled with tearful sadness, he is the last buffalo bull on the plains; and one need not be a college graduate to see where the buffaloes would soon be at with the last bull gone. With "Bull" Andrews in reserve there is perhaps no immediate cause of alarm.

If the notorious Mayor Ashbridge does not object, Vanderslice will succeed Pennypacker when he resigns. Quay, Durham, Penrose and Stone, like Barkis, are all said to be "willin'" and all that remains is to know whether Vanderslice will suit Ashbridge. Of course the million voters of the state have no more to say about the matter than have the serfs of Russia. If Ashbridge has a pal whom he wants on the bench then under the circumstances, Quay, Penrose & Co. will give way. They want to use Ashbridge good and hard about election time, and just now he can have anything he asks for.

Hon. John H. Fow, who is a good constitutional lawyer, contends that no person can hereafter vote in Pennsylvania unless he is registered. He maintains, and with apparent good reason, that the passage of the constitutional amendment last fall, annulling the clause in the constitution which permitted a voter to vote by swearing that he had paid tax even if not registered, makes it obligatory now for all voters to be registered. It is always best to be on the safe side, and as no Democrat wants to lose his vote this fall, it will be well for every one to make sure that his name is on the registry list.

Perhaps it would be just as well for Hon. W. H. Andrews not to have New Mexico admitted as a state to give him a job as United States senator. He never falls to go to the limit in Pennsylvania when Quay yells for help to get himself out of a hole, and the law seems powerless to punish no matter how flagrant the violation; but he should keep in mind the fact that in New Mexico they have a habit of shooting at times when the law seems a little tardy or inefficient. William might be a better risk for the insurance companies by keeping under the protecting wing of the great Pennsylvania whose greatness, according to Pennypacker, amounts almost to genius.

The seething criticism of the supreme court by Alexander Simpson, Jr., of the Philadelphia bar, at the recent meeting of the Pennsylvania Bar Association ought to cause the people to stop long enough to ask whether a machine made court is the proper thing in Pennsylvania or any other state. Mr. Simpson is a very able lawyer and a Republican, but he is not so much of a partisan that he cannot recognize a flagrant violation of law even when perpetrated to assist in the partisan schemes of his own party; and he is not so much of a coward that he is afraid to condemn it. What annoys the Republican bosses is the fact that the large number of lawyers present seemed to thoroughly endorse Mr. Simpson's position, and the newspapers that were too partisan to praise were lost for words to condemn.

The Pennsylvania legislature unanimously passed a resolution at the two last sessions declaring in favor of the election of United States senators by the vote of the people. What have the people now to say of Quay and Penrose, who both dodged the vote on the question? It is easy to understand why such senators are not willing to risk their ease with the people, but if the people have any spark they will call on them to explain why they refused to obey their wishes as expressed by their representatives in the legislature. Penrose not only refused to support the measure, but attached an amendment to make sure of killing it. If the citizens of Pennsylvania mean anything when they say through their newspapers and their representatives that they want their senators to support a bill to allow the people of the United States to be allowed to vote on the question of electing senators they will take the opportunity this fall to resent the insult of Quay and his man Friday in not only refusing to support the bill recommended but actually ridiculing it.
