Mrs. Stephen Pohe.
After a patient illness of long standing, Mrs. Stephen Pohe departed this life at her home in Espy early Sunday morning at the age of seventy-one years. Mrs. Pohe's ill-health had its beginning several years ago and she has been under the care of a physician nearly all of the time. Mr. Pohe is her second husband, he with two children Mrs. Daniel Hughes of Espy and H. S. Pohe, of Bloomsburg, survive. Harvey and Rush Hess, of Berwick, children by her first marriage, are also living, together with the following step children: George Pohe, of Chicago; Charles Pohe, of Catawissa; Joseph Pohe, of Sandusky, Ohio and Mrs. S. A. Lutz, of Bloomsburg. The funeral took place from the house yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the Almedia cemetery.

The Weekly Paper is the Best Advertising Medium.
A contemporary has been vigorously sounding the advantages of the daily paper as an advertising medium, but it fails to give any reasons. All who want to believe this argument can do so, of course, but the merchant who fails to advertise in the weekly papers is cutting himself off from family patronage. The daily papers are hastily skimmed, then thrown aside. The weekly paper is read, re-read, and kept for reference. Women are the most profitable patrons of the stores and few women glance at more than the marriage and death notices in a daily paper. Besides the advertising rates of the weeklies are so much cheaper than the merchants can explain more fully what they have to offer. These observations are addressed to merchants, but they are equally applicable to all advertisers. We do not say this because the COLUMBIAN is a weekly, but because the reasons advanced will commend themselves to every one who gives the matter any thought. Not to advertise in the weekly papers is to cut yourself off from family patronage—that is the plain truth in a happy epigram.

GAME COMMISSION NEEDS MONEY.
Number of Important Prosecutions on Hand With Nothing To Secure Counsel.
The Board of Game Commissioners needs money badly and its members are making efforts to secure funds through donations from sportsmen throughout the commonwealth.
J. Q. H. Denny, of Ligonier, has been placed in charge of the work of raising the money required and is sending appeals to the various associations of sportsmen which have manifested an interest in the work of the board.
The appropriation from the state is but $1,500 per year, and this barely pays the salary of the clerk and postage. The expenses for prosecutions for violation of the game laws must be defrayed from the fines collected and contributions from those who want game protected.
At present the board has a number of important cases on hand and its finances are depleted, at least $1,000 being needed. The defendants in the cases have retained excellent attorneys and equally good legal talent is needed by the board.

An Enemy of the Peach.
The peach season is opening up in this state, but the indications are that the crop will be small. Peaches have been falling for a month or more and no person seemed to know the cause.
It is now discovered that the curculio, a special enemy of the plum, is attacking the peach and apple. The insect lays its eggs in the fruit and forces them into the hearts.

Sheep Murders Active.
It is learned that in addition to killing a Mexican sheep herder named Sam Gallaxan near Landers, Wyo., and slaughtering several thousand sheep, a band of 150 masked men has surrounded all the sheep camps and forced the sheep men to abandon their flocks.
After killing one herd of 2,000 sheep, twenty-five other herds, amounting to about 65,000 sheep, were driven into the mountains and left to shift for themselves.
The sheep men have been threatened with instant death if they go after their flocks. The sheep are now the prey of wild animals and the loss will be very heavy.
The scene of the lawlessness is 115 miles west of Landers, in Fremont county. The militia may be called out to protect the sheep men.

Checks as Autographs.
Why Mr. Kipling's Bank Account Showed Big Balance.

An experiment once tried by Kipling for the purpose of checking household expenses had a somewhat different result than was anticipated. He opened a small account at a local bank in order to pay every bill with a cheque. Many of the cheques were for very small amounts, and the shrewd shopkeepers soon discovered that they could get more for the cheques from autograph collectors than from the bank. The consequence was that at the end of the month Mr. Kipling's bank account showed a bigger balance than the counterfoils of his cheque book.
This puzzled him very much, until he happened one day to call at an office where the head was an enthusiastic autograph collector, and found one of his cheques framed and hanging on the wall.

Home Love is the Best.
Some Real Good Advice to Young Women.

An exchange says: "Home love is the best love. The love that you are born to is the sweetest you will ever have on earth. You, who are so anxious to escape from the home nest, pause a moment and remember that this is so. It is right that the hour should come when you in your turn, become a wife and a mother and give the best love to others; but that will be just it. Nobody—not a lover, not a husband—will ever be so tender or so true as your mother and father.
Never again, after strangers have broken the beautiful bond, will there be anything so sweet as the little circle of mother, father and children, where you were cherished, protected, praised and kept from harm.
You may not know it now but you will know it some day. Whomsoever you marry true and good though he may be, will, after the lover days are over and the honeymoon has waned, give you only what you deserve of love and sympathy—and usually much less, never more. You may watch and be wary, lest you lose that love which came in through the eyes because the one who looked thought you beautiful.
But those who bore you loved when you were that dreadful little object, a baby, and thought you exquisitely beautiful and wonderfully brilliant—they do not care for faces that are fairer and form that are more graceful than yours. You are their very own and so better to them always than others.

Treat Your Horse Humanely.
During the hot weather horsemen should pay particular attention to their horses. These animals are often reined up so tightly by the short bearing or check rein that their flexor muscles have no play at all. It is sheer torture to keep them so, hour after hour, merely to give a stylish appearance.
To drive without any check line is un-practicable, a number have tried it, but have abandoned it. The horse gets his head in the dust and dirt, and soon presents a sorry appearance.
However a plea is entered for a loose check rein. Horses are so faithful that gratitude as well as self-interest should be on the side of kindness.
Now that the heat is intense attention should be given to the watering of horses.

Wheeler Claims Land Worth $60,000,000

Alleging to be the owner of 10,- 300 acres of valuable coal land, located principally in Northumberland county which is now being operated by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, venerable O. H. Wheeler, of Wilkes Barre, was at Sunbury on Tuesday to hunt abstracts from the original warrants, which he claims are on the record at the court house.
He says he has instituted suit for the recovery of the land in the United States court in Pittsburg.
The land is situated in and around Dontyville, and the Coal and Iron Company collieries at Locust Gap tap the coal bed.
He alleges that the late Franklin B. Gowen took possession of the land for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company and operated on it for coal, and declares that this company has maintained the ownership of it. Wheeler says that he is the sole owner of the land, which he claims to be worth $60,000,000.

A ROMANCE OF THE RAIL.

Most everybody has seen the new car cards which the Lackawanna Railroad has been putting out this season. They tell a story in a series of bright little pictures that belies the old saying about the course of true love, for in this romance love runs smooth "on the Road of Anthracite" and the wedding feast is served in the dining car before the lovers leave the train. The entire set of cards has been put into the form of a booklet entitled "A Romance of the Rail." It will be sent free to anyone who will send a cents in stamps to cover postage to T. W. Lee, General Passenger Agent, 26 Exchange Place, New York City.

Leases, 3c each, 30c a dozen.
Notices to quit, 10c a dozen. For

ITS CARE.
A good watch is like a good horse. Treat it right and it will serve you well for years. Neglect it and you will shorten its days of usefulness. Good treatment consists of regularity in winding and cleaning and oiling. Always wind it in the morning. Your time of rising is more regular than your time of retiring. You carry your watch during the day and it needs the full strength of the mainspring. Don't let it run without attention till it stops. Choose some day of the year [your birthday is easy to remember] and have it cleaned and oiled regularly on that day. It doesn't take much oil to satisfy a watch, but when it does need, it needs badly. Carry a good dust proof case and never open the back. Always have a watch maker regulate it. He won't charge you for doing it and he knows just how. By following these rules a good movement will last you a life time. When you're done with it it will still be a good time keeper for your boy and your boy's boy to carry in turn.

CHANGED CONDITIONS REQUIRE NEW METHODS.

The Hour Glass of our Great Grand-fathers did very well in those days, but times have changed. The successful men of today reckon time as money, a missed train or broken engagement means something lost.

A GOOD TIME KEEPER

always on time inspires promptness and teaches self reliance
