TROOPS KEEP PEACE

An Uneasy Feeling Prevails About Shenandoah.

ADDITIONAL MEN MAY BE CALLED OUT

Arrest and Commitment of Two Wounded Rioters Accomplished by Officers Under Strong Guard. Some Mines Are Started Up.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 6.-The peace of this troop protected town remains unbroken. The unsettled feeling which has been apparent for the last few days, however, continues.

Yesterday was a lively one at brigade headquarters, where all the staff officers were kept busy in connection with the movement of the troops and in keeping in touch with the situation in the entire county. There were many rumors of trouble; but, excepting at Girardville, where a workman was shot and slightly injured, nothing of a cerious nature occurred anywhere. Brigadier General Gobin was unusualby alert, however, and kept soldiers in readiness for instant use all day long. Many stories of threatened trouble reached him, but he was able in every instance to run them down without sending out a detail of men.

Officers around headquarters feel that the tension is increasing and would not be surprised if some of the troops now in camp here were sent into the surrounding region. The brigadier general says he will not send for additional men until there is need for them. It is not unlikely, however, that a battery and another troop of cavalry will be in the field by the end of the week

Probably the most important development in the Shenandoah region was the arrest and commitment to the county jail of two wounded Lithuanians who participated in the riot of last Wednesday.

The arrests were attended with considerable show of military force, they being taken into custody by constables who were surrounded by a platoon of infantrymen and marched through the streets under a strong guard. The prisoners are Antony Klimovitz and Stanislaus Zukowsky. Each had been shot in the foot during the riot and was unable to walk. They were located in a boarding house in the heart of the foreign quarter of the town. The constables feared that trouble would ensue if they attempted to make the arrests themselves, and upon their suggestion General Gobin sent a platoon of Company I of the Twelfth regiment to protect them.

Three Collieries Opened.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 6.-The Dickson colliery of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company in the Green rezion resumed operations yesterday with returned strikers. Superintendent Rose says the company has been cutting and loading coal at this mine for two weeks. The coal is now being hoisted and sent through the breaker. The company will not give out the number of men who are working. This makes three collieries now in operation in this city. The other two are the Oxford of the People's Coal company and the Cayuga of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western. Superintendent Cleveland—Washington. 6: Cleveland—Washington. 6: Cleveland—Washington. Tobey of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western said that his company will start up another colliery at once. The strikers are making no very serious effort to prevent men from working at these collieries.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6 .- The arrival of Mrs. C. A. Spreckels of San Francisco was an interesting feature of the end of the trip of the Kniser Wilhelm der Grosse.

THE GALICIAN STRIKES.

Fronble Among Pensants Said to Be Sprending.

VIENNA, Aug. 6.-The strike of Ga-Belan peasants is at present spreading to districts which have hitherto not been affected, and there have been many conflicts between the peasants and the military, A detachment of uldans attacked 500 peasants at Pothering. Many of the latter were wounded, and the soldiers made 173 arrests. The prisoners were confined overnight, densely overcrowded, in a stable and taken to jail the next day in a fainting but ball bonds and alibi for ballot-box condition, not having tasted food in twenty-four hours.

Three Ruthenian members of the chamber of deputies have protested in this matter to Dr. von Koerber, the Austrian premier, declaring the peasants to be indifferent whether they die at the hands of drunken gendarmes, brutal soldiers or the legal executioner. This protest alleges that officials are siding with the landlords instead of acting as mediators in the trouble.

A Ten Days' Sleep.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 5,-Alexander Reiss of 395 Hewitt street, until recently of Philadelphia, has been asleep for ten days and cannot be awakened. All manner of means have been tried to arouse him without avail.

Immense Ore Shipments. CLEVELAND, Aug. 5.-Reports for the month of July show that the upper lake ore shipping ports sent 4,000,000 tons and upward down the lakes. Prominent Independent Declares Opposition to Pennypacker.

giving his reasons therefor he says:

"Judge Pennypacker has himself, in the studied and deliberate article of a public magazine, given the most unreserved enlogy of Mr. Quay ever given any public man. In his judgment Mr. Quay and his methods are as near perfection as can be found on earth. If the judge should be elected governor, how could he do otherwise than make all appointments and urge and approve all legislation recommended by the man who is his ideal and idol in public life? With this logical and moral certainty staring us in the face, I do not see how men who utterly dissent from the principles and methods that have prevailed can approve such nomination.

mountains of the state there is a stern, silent protest going up against these principles and methods."

Professor Rendall spent several days in town the past week in an effort to crystallize the Republican opposition to the Republican machine into a tangible and compact organization, and a general conference will be held in this place shortly, when definite action will be taken in the maturing of campaign plans. The trend among the anti-machine Republicans of this county is decidedly toward Pattison, and the delegates sent from here to the Union party convention in Philadelphia, it is said, will use their influence in having Pattison indorsed by the convention.

In local affairs it seems to be settled that an independent ticket will be put in the field. This means that a couple thousand Republicans will be diverted from the machine ticket, in which the Democrats see a strong hope of success, providing they choose the right kind of timber for the legislature and county offices.

Ex-Governor Pattison, who enjoys the distinction of having overturned the heaviest Republican majority that is recorded in any state in the union in two gubernatorial elections, is the foremost Democrat in Pennsylvania, and by many regarded as a presidential possibillty. If by any chance he should be elected governor this fall he would go into the national Democratic convention with a very large and enthusiastic following.

reputation for a well-poised judicial Governor Pattison is certain to command a very large Republican vote in chine politics with which Quay has burdened the state for years,-Times-Herald, Chicago (Rep.).

Professor John B. Rendall, leader of the Republican-Union forces and who was elected a member of the legislature on the fusion ticket four years ago, is the first of the prominent antimachine Republicans of Chester county to announce himself as opposed to the election of Judge Pennypacker. In

"As important, or perhaps more important, than the governorship, there are being nominated all over the state the same men and the same kind of men as were in the last legislature and under the same absolute control. Pounds and pounds of promises they made, but not an ounce of fulfillment. And they are making the same promfses again today, but they are owned and nominated by the same masters who owned them before.

"Glittering promises of ballot reform and an honest count before election, stuffers after election; rippers for cities and communities that will not bow to the yoke; privileges and franchises for the select syndicate of politicians, but injunctions for the trolleys of the people.

"From the wheat fields and the INDEPENDENTS FOR PATTISON.

Previous to last November there weren't a dozen people in the state west of Lancaster county who had ever heard of Pennypacker. Then he wrote a ridiculously fulsome eulogy of Quay. That absurdity attracted attention to him as any abnormal characteristic will attract attention to any one. But it probably wouldn't have made him the candidate for governor if the quarrel with Stone hadn't turned Quay against Elkin. That gave the "old man" a chance to reward his friend and punish his enemy at once and he forced Pennypacker on his wing of the machine. - Harrisburg Star-Indepen-

The nomination of ex-Governor Pattison for a third term has been indorsed with great enthusiasm by nearly all the Democratic newspapers of the state. This was to have been expected. Among the Democrats of the interior there has been no falling off in his popularity. They will turn out in November and vote for him, and many of their neighbors who are Republicans will go along. The Independent Republican press of the state, while conceding the tempting character of the Cousin Pennypacker bait landed under their noses by Senator Quay, bear strong testimony to the character and fitness of both Pattison and Guthrie.-Pittsburg

Those people who believe "Pennsylvania has no ills that are worthy of mention" will vote for Judge Pennypacker, but the same people would vote for any candidate of Quay's selection. Those who disapprove of ballot-box stuffing, of pagged assessment lists, of "ripper" outrages, of bribery and intimidation and keep in mind the open, glaring corruption of the last legislative session will vote for Pattison and Guthrie,-Erie Herald.

There is a growing impression in Democratic circles that the Union party will nominate Robert E. Pattison for governor and George W. Guthrie for lieutenant governor. While no one presumes to speak for the Union party until the delegates to the state convention are elected, the Democratic friends of ex-Governor Pattison believe that when they assemble to name the ticket the majority will be for the endorsement of the Democratic gubernatorial candidate -- Pottstown Ledger.

It's impossible to feel a great measure of sympathy for the Quaysylvanians. They know they have a corrupt government. They proclaim their shame to all the world, and yet they submit to the rule of the oligarchy. They worship the Liberty Bell, which hangs in Independence Hall, but they have none of the spirit of their Revolutionary forefathers. That glorious old bell is debased by its political environment. It once sounded the tocsin of liberty for men worthy of self-government. It is sadly out of place in Quaysylvania.-Baltimore Sun (Ind.).

Representative men were present at the committee meeting of the Union party from 40 of the 50 senatorial districts of the state-every man a Republican in all that makes Republicanism worth while. Of the 40 not one had a favorable word for Pennypacker; many said their people had naught but opposition for a candidate who had declared that "Pennsylvania has no ills worthy of mention;" others reported a feeling of utter indifference on the part of Republican voters toward the success of the Republican ticket; still others were silent. All this is eloquent of the state of the really independent Republican mind. Where Pennypacker does not actually antagonize he fails to enthuse.-Philadelphia North Amer-

The promise of ballot reform, the most pressing political need in Pennsylvania, is made by both parties; but the Republicans have been so often hand bills, or apply to agents, or E. faithless to such promises that it is S. Post. It is one of the strange delusions that make up the great Quay myth, of which Judge Pennypacker is the prophet, that the senator is faithful to his friends. He is so while they serve his purposes. The moment they cease to be useful or become a hindrance. they are thrust aside without the least remorse. The whole state is strewn with these worn-out and rejected political tools. Quay is not different in this respect from other "bosses," except that his political system is more completely organized, more despotic, more absolutely soulless than any other that has been known. The human sentiments are not to be expected from such a machine. Its prizes are awarded not so much for past services as in consideration of services to come. Elkin has been useful, but Pennypacker can be more useful under present conditions, and the loyal devotion of the other is the very reason for his rejection. It has made him powerless in opposition and there is nothing for him to do but to submit.-Philadelphia Times. The Manila chamber of commerce, composed of as unscrupulous and greedy a lot of carpet-bag exploiters and grafters as ever followed a flag to pillage in the wake of an army, asks the president by resolution to put a stop to trials of army officers by court martials for abusing the natives. The trials are held under the orders of the president, who has declared that officers guilty of cruelty shall be punished, and this impudent gang of camp followers has the effrontery to protest against his action because it "threatens the business interests in the islands, which urgently demand the protection of the army." This business of punishing army officers for violating the rules of civilized warfare, if persisted in, says the Manila chamber of exploitation, "will result in the abandonment of the American cause in the islands."
