A new potato pest has made its appearance in nearby sections in the form of a small worm which eats its way upward in the side of the stalk, causing the plant to wither and die. Farmers fear it may prove more destructive than the potato bug. No remedy for the pest is as yet known.

The home of Arthur Pursel, on the river road, was robbed on Friday. The robbers made a complete round of the house and took nearly everything that had value attached to it. They secured some money and a considerable quantity of clothing. The crime was committed while the firemen's parade was in progress.

Mrs. J. E. Bolig died at the Mary M. Packer Hospital in Sunbury Saturday afternoon from the effects of an operation. The family formerly resided in Bloomsburg. Mrs. Bolig made many friends here and the announcement of her death has called forth genuine expressions of sorrow. She was thirty-two years of age and is survived by a husband and two children.

The entertainment given in the Lutheran Church Friday evening, by the young ladies of that congregation, was a very pleasant affair. There wasn't a weak spot in the program, it was all good, particularly the concluding portion "Sunbonnets." The entertainment was one that will bear repetition, and we believe that it would attract a large audience.

A York, Pa. wedding in which Bloomsburg has a share of interest occurred on Tuesday. The bride is Miss Aimee Elizabeth Heiges and the groom William A. Sponsler, Jr. Mr. Sponsler was in Bloomsburg for several months during the construction of the Columbia & Montour Electric Railway last summer. He was very popular with the young people. Some of the Centennial details are not generally known. A rest room was provided in the Court House by the Civic Club, where nearly a thousand women and children were afforded necessary conveniences. An ambulance wagon was in constant waiting in case of accident, with a surgeon in easy call. The Parish House was ready for use as a hospital for strangers if injured. A police patrol wagon was also in readiness and its efficiency was shown by the fact that a man lying insensible on Third street was hauled away and taken care of in less than ten minutes after the call was sent in.

Barrels of ice water were placed on the streets at various points, and were highly appreciated by the thirsty ones who were looking for water.

TALK NO. 31.

THE REASON. People ask me very often why it is that more glasses are worn now than formerly. There are several reasons. We are using our eyes much more than our forefathers did. We are doing office work on books, shop work in a bad light, type-writing, sewing and reading. While there used to be but one newspaper a week we now try to read four or five a day. The eyes are worked from early morning until late at night. Nature simply won't stand it and we have to wear glasses. Another reason is because we understand the eye better. We know the good and bad effects of lenses. We know how to relieve discomfort and suffering which a few years ago had to be endured. Thousands of people had sick headaches all their lives and knew no permanent remedy. Now more than six out of ten are cured with lenses. When we consider how slight a defect will throw the eyes out of adjustment it is a wonder that glasses are not worn even more than they are. Geo. W. Hess, OPTICIAN AND JEWELER, BLOOMSBURG, PENNA.

CHANGED CONDITIONS REQUIRE NEW METHODS.

The Hour Glass of our Great Grand-fathers did very well in those days, but times have changed. The successful men of today reckon time as money, a missed train or broken engagement means something lost. A GOOD TIME KEEPER. Is an element in character building. A Watch that is always on time inspires promptness and teaches self reliance. J. Lee Martin, OPTICIAN AND JEWELER. TELEPHONE 1842.
