The charter notice has been published for a new savings bank at Danville. The new bank will have a capital stock of $50,000 and that amount is nearly all subscribed.

Look after your chimneys and see that they are thoroughly cleaned before cold weather sets in. By so doing you may avoid a fire that might be disastrous to your home.

All Philadelphia papers 2 cents, by the month delivered 30 cents, 25 cents a month at the store. J. W. MOYER.

A number of Columbia county men, among them being J. E. Keefer of this town and James Harman of Orangeville are serving as coal and iron police at Audenreid.

All trains lead toward Bloomsburg this week. The big fair is on. Have a look at the entire list found elsewhere in this paper. It's pretty big—so are the entries in all the other departments.

We guarantee our work to be as faultless as human skill and modern machinery can make it. Gem Steam Laundry. J. E. Fidler, Prop.

The brick work on E. B. Tustin's Market street residence was completed on Friday. The carpenters are busily engaged on the exterior of the building and great progress can be noticed each day.

Mrs. Mary Neyhard, aged about sixty-two years, residing in Hemlock township died Sunday afternoon. She is survived by a husband and one daughter. The funeral with interment at Heller's church took place Wednesday.

The following were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Girtton on Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison of Plymouth; Mrs. Jennie Letteer of Jamison City; Mrs. Rachael Hess of Central; Mrs. William Sterner of Bloomsburg.—Shickshinny Echo.

You will be pleased with the work, and they will be pleased to serve you at the Gem Steam Laundry.

Harry S. Wilson has had the Indian maiden in front of his cigar store repainted in gorgeous colors. The two plate printing machines in front of his store are a winning card, and are surrounded by interested customers almost constantly.

The Lewisburg fair was a total failure this year. The rain came continuously throughout the three days and but ten admission tickets were sold. Notwithstanding the society's great loss, the premiums and all other expenses connected with the fair will be paid in full.

The Y. M. C. A. basket ball team won an easy victory over Shamokin in the opening game of the season Friday evening. Clayberger, an old Normal School favorite, was a member of the visiting team and played his usual good game. Lewis and Ritchey excelled for the locals.

Mr. Abram G. Colvin was married to Miss Mary E. Savidge at the home of the bride in Northumberland and not Herbert Harris as stated in our last issue. The latter acted as best man. We printed the notice as it was given us, but our informant was in error. We gladly make the correction.

Neuralgia of the heart caused the death of Mrs. Clarence Boody at her home in Catawissa on Sunday. A husband and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Reick of Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Wesley Adams of Catawissa township, and Mrs. David Fink of Catawissa survive. The deceased was about fifty-two years of age.

An attempt to rob the residence of George H. Keiter was made Sunday evening. Mrs. Keiter had gone to gather the laundry, when she discovered a man who had apparently just entered. She called for her husband, who hurried to the scene, but too late to catch the marauder, who made his escape through a window.

We go to press on Wednesday afternoon this week, in order that the employees may have an opportunity to attend the fair. The printing office will be closed the balance of the week. The business office will be open every day until noon. We shall be glad to meet many of our subscribers, and will gladly write receipts for them.

The great scarcity of coal has made it necessary to make some important changes in the Electric Railway schedule. The last car for Berwick leaves here now at 9:00 p. m. and for Catawissa at 9:40 p. m. The last car from Berwick leaves at 10:00 p. m. and from Catawissa 10:00. This schedule does not apply during fair week or Saturday nights.

Prof. Jos. H. Dennis is making arrangements to receive and give out the returns on election night. Our people will recall with pleasure the very excellent way in which Mr. Dennis received the returns last year. He will make a lantern slide of any candidate who desires it for use that evening. The only cost to the candidate will be the expense of making the slide and it will be his afterward.

Leonora Jackson, the well-known violinist, who gave a concert at the Normal a year or so ago, sailed last week for Europe on the North German Lloyd liner "Grosser Kurfurst." The young artist, since her return from abroad in 1900, has made two extensive tours of the United States, including the South and the Pacific Coast, and has won hosts of friends in all parts of the Union. Uninfluenced by the prominence she has already attained, both in the Old World and the New, she intends devoting now a year or more to special study with her former Professors in Berlin, and will meantime discontinue concerting. Miss Jackson will remain abroad two or more years.

A red bodied automobile, in which were seated Elmer E. Mears, John W. Mears, Marcus Mears and the son of J. W. Mears went whirling down Main street Monday afternoon, and was the cynosure of all eyes. The party made the entire trip from New York in the machine. They left the city on Friday and would have reached Bloomsburg on Sunday, had not the rains interfered. They will be the guests of relatives in town during the fair. The automobile is a Packard gasoline machine and weighs 2700 pounds. It is geared up now to 35 miles an hour, but is capable of going 60 miles. It has four seats, handsomely cushioned in leather, and has brass lamps and trimmings. It is the finest machine of the kind ever seen here. J. W. Mears is engaged in the automobile business in Brooklyn. The party will leave for home on Sunday, going by way of Harrisburg, Lancaster and Philadelphia.

TALK NO. 33. FRAMES THAT HURT. A good many people do not like to wear glasses because they hurt the face. Eye glasses leave deep red creases upon the nose and riding bows make the ears sore. This becomes so painful that it is more comfortable to do without the glasses than to wear them.

CHANGED CONDITIONS REQUIRE NEW METHODS.

The Hour Glass of our Great Grand-fathers did very well in those days, but times have changed. The successful men of today reckon time as money, a missed train or broken engagement means something lost.

A GOOD TIME KEEPER Is an element in character building. A Watch that is always on time inspires promptness and teaches self reliance.
