Why Can't I Get PURE SPICES?

How often you hear this question asked.

You Can if You go to RISHTON'S DRUG STORE!

I just received this week from Gilpin Langdon & Co., of Baltimore, who lead the world in PURE DRUGS and SPICES a consignment of spices put up in 2, 4, 8, and 16 pound tin boxes, which they guarantee on every box as being absolutely pure and the very best.

The price is very little higher than the common truck sold as spices, but they are cheaper in the end because so much stronger. Come in and see them and get a book on spices.

We have the following kinds:
Allspice, English Mustard,
Cinnamon, Jamaica Ginger,
Cloves, African Ginger,
Red Pepper, Mace,
Paprika Pepper, Sweet Margerum,
White Pepper, Garden Sage,
Black Pepper, Turkey Dressing.

Thanksgiving Turkeys Will be High.

Reports received from the farmers of adjoining counties are that many householders who usually had their tables adorned with a turkey for their Thanksgiving Day dinner must this year substitute a duck, chicken, or a roast of beef. Prices, it is predicted, will be much higher than last year.

Few turkeys have been raised. Farmers attribute the scarcity to the rainy period in the spring. The first crop of turkeys was ready for the market at the end of April, but a month or two before bad weather set in, and the birds contracted colds and many of them died. The second crop is small. A few turkeys were offered in the city markets last week and were quickly secured by local dealers.

Turkeys are reported to be fairly abundant throughout York and adjacent counties, and the prospects are that the markets will be well stocked with them, but prices will be exceptionally high.

The first turkeys appeared on the York market Saturday and eight and ten cents a pound was asked for them. A York poultry dealer predicts that the birds will sell at fifteen cents per pound before Thanksgiving Day.

Several city dealers have agents in the country districts buying turkeys, but farmers are disinclined to sell, as they prefer to wait until the market price advances. They argue that since meats and all other staples have risen, turkeys will also go up.

President Roosevelt was forty-four years old on Monday.

Clinton Herring, Esq. has been appointed a Notary Public, his commission being dated October 21st.

You will be pleased with the work, and they will be pleased to serve you at the Gem Steam Laundry.

CANDIDATE FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

VICTORY IN SIGHT.

FINAL APPEAL OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

Chairman Creasy Earnestly Asks the Zealous Co-operation of All Friends of Reform—The Outlook in the State.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 28.—The following address has been issued by the Democratic State Committee:

To the Citizens of Pennsylvania—

The convention which met in Erie in June last nominated candidates for the State offices, to be filled at the coming election, on a platform which discarded partisanship and earnestly invited the co-operation of all good citizens in the great work of redeeming the Commonwealth from the debasing control of those who have misused official power for selfish and corrupt purposes. The men named as the people's standard bearers in this contest, of high character, ability, experience and devotion to the public welfare, were called to leadership by the free will and unanimous voice of delegates who owed no allegiance to any boss or influence other than that exercised by patriotic freemen of a long-suffering State.

APPEALING TO THE PUBLIC CONSCIENCE.

The trust thus bestowed was accepted in the spirit of true patriotism, and their campaign has been conducted in strict accord therewith. They have appealed to the purest impulses of the people, and everywhere the response has been unprecedented. In every county multitudes of voters, irrespective of party, have crowded the largest halls available, testifying in every way possible their sympathy with this movement for the rescue of government from unclean hands and manifesting their determination to do all in their power toward the election of honest and capable State officers and members of the Legislature.

Gov. Pattison, Mr. Guthrie and Mr. Nolan, assisted by many able speakers have presented the issues of the hour with candor and truthfulness. They have in no instance made charges which could not be substantiated. They have not sought to arouse public prejudice nor passion, but to show the imperative need of overthrowing the cohorts of bossism at Harrisburg and the restoration of clean and honest government. They have ably and most effectively done their whole duty. Their work has been faithfully supplemented by the cheerful and self-sacrificing services of many citizens, who have sustained the management of the campaign in all legitimate ways. It has been preeminently a contest of the people against the most formidable forces in American politics, against methods unknown in any other State. The loyalty and zeal of the Democratic and Independent Republican press is most gratefully acknowledged.

WHAT THE OPPOSITION STANDS FOR.

Never before in the history of Pennsylvania was a candidate for Governor presented so absolutely the creature, clearly shown and self-confessed, of tyrannical one-man power. Never before was the manifest choice of delegates representing their constituents so ruthlessly set aside, through influences of the most debasing character. The man who was thus defiantly robbed of the nomination he had fairly won, in an open contest, has since, made the declaration that he was defeated by a manipulated convention. Forty delegates were taken from him by direct orders of the boss. Every Republican who believes in fair play should unite to rebuke the author of this shameless political crime.

A BRILLIANT RECORD.

Gov. Pattison's record during eight years' administration, comprises the most earnest suggestions, along broad-minded humanitarian lines, and approval of wise and just laws. Of the 58 labor enactments upon the statute books, 50 were approved by him, a larger aggregate than that of all Republican executives during the past twenty years. His services to the cause of labor have been invaluable and have been gratefully acknowledged in many ways by those specially concerned.

The issue is now with you. The hour is near when the final decision must be rendered at the polls. We rejoice in the inspiring evidence on every hand of the success of our labors, the indications of a sweeping victory over Quayism and the allied forces of iniquity in Pennsylvania politics. We believe that a full vote and honest count will result in the election of Pattison, Guthrie and Nolan and an anti-machine majority in the Legislature. We the electors look with confidence for earnest and effective work on the part of all who stand with us in this great contest. Let the honor of our beloved State be vindicated, the rights of its self-respecting citizenship be maintained on Tuesday next.

WILLIAM T. CREASY,
Chairman Democratic State Committee.

Vote for William Krickbaum for Associate Judge. He is the choice of the Democratic party and if elected he will look after the interests of justice.

Fall styles in suitings for custom work, and in ready-made clothing are now tastefully displayed at Townsend's Star Clothing House. Better put in your order for that winter suit or overcoat.

Vote for Dickerman for Congress the man of mature years, of wide business experience and long devotion to Democratic principles.

Why should any Democrat vote for Godcharles? Republicans say, because he is a nice young man, and a good hand-shaker. But those are hardly sufficient qualifications for a congressman.

Sylvester Sittler of Light Street has for sale a brood mare and well-bred colt. The mare is of good size, and will work anywhere. The colt is of pacing stock. Any further information can be obtained by addressing Mr. Sittler.

The minstrel entertainment to be given under the auspices of and for the benefit of the Athletic Association of the Normal School will be held Saturday evening, November 8th. A program of unusual merit will be presented.

Prohibition Meeting.

A Prohibition meeting will be held at Buckhorn on Saturday Evening, Nov. 1st. Meeting will be addressed by Rev. M. E. McLinn, E. M. Kester, M. P. Lutz and F. B. Hartman. The Buckhorn Band will furnish the music. The ladies are cordially invited.

Sale Adjourned.

The sale of the McKelvy-Neal farm was adjourned from last Friday to tomorrow, Friday Oct. 31, at 2 p. m. at the Court House. The last bid was $98 an acre, but as this was too much like giving it away it was continued for a week. The terms announced were 10 per cent, down, 15 per cent, in 60 days and balance in one year. These terms can be varied to suit purchaser.

Are These People Fools?

Three of five persons to-day look upon the world through glass. Do they wear glasses for "style," for "looks," for "fun?" Are all these people fools?—Would they continue to wear them unless deriving great benefit therefrom? Properly adjusted glasses are to-day a panacea for many of the so-called chronic diseases, which medicines have failed to benefit. But don't get the idea that glasses CURE anything or anything. Nature does the curing. Glasses simply stop nerve-leakage, allowing Nature to resume her normal way in the performance of natural functions. Our business is the scientific adjustment of glasses for the improvement of vision and the stoppage of nerve drain and strain.

Valuable Farm Land.

The McKelvy-Neal land, known as the McClure farm, will be sold on Oct. 24th. It must be sold to close two estates. It is the best farm land along the Susquehanna. It will be sold at auction at the Court House at 2 p. m. See advertisement on 7th page.—2t.

There are a number of young girls in Bloomsburg who by their conduct are increasing the cares, embittering the lives and bringing the gray hairs of their parents in sorrow to the grave. How bitter some day will be the doom of those children who are dishonoring the lives of their best earthly friends.
