Why Can't I Get PURE SPICES?

How often you hear this question asked.

You Can If You go to RISHTON'S DRUG STORE!

I just received this week from Gilpin Langdon & Co., of Baltimore, who lead the world in PURE DRUGS and SPICES a consignment of spices put up in 2oz., 4oz. and 1 pound tin boxes, which they guarantee on every box as being absolutely pure and the very best.

The price is very little higher than the common truck sold as spices, but they are cheaper in the end because so much stronger. Come in and see them and get a book on spices.

We have the following kinds:
Allspice, English Mustard,
Cinamon, Jamaica Ginger,
Cloves, African Ginger,
Red Pepper, Mace,
Paprika Pepper, Sweet Margerum,
White Pepper, Garden Sage,
Black Pepper, Turkey Dressing.

W. S. RISHTON,
Market Square Pharmacist.

C. L. Rupert is now supplying his customers with fish twice a week. On Tuesday he receives a consignment of fresh water fish from the lakes, and on Friday salt water fish from the ocean.

The Mount Carmel Item is now appearing as a daily. It is one of the neatest country dailies that reaches our table. It covers the news field well, and the venture certainly deserves success.

Lamps to burn at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

The diagram for the sale of seats for the Normal Athletic Association's Benefit Minstrel Entertainment will be opened at Bidleman's book store Thursday morning, November 20, at ten o'clock.

The Dillon Greenhouse Manufacturing Company is constructing a green house for Davis & Weiss, the East Fourth street florists. The building is to be of concrete, and will be first class in every respect.

Sylvester Sittler of Light Street has for sale a brood mare and well-bred colt. The mare is of good size, and will work anywhere. The colt is of pacing stock. Any further information can be obtained by addressing Mr. Sittler.

The hard coal supply of the various coal dealers of this town is still low, and no large orders for the winter have been delivered. Most of the dealers have enough small orders on hand to keep them busy for a month. Wood still has a ready sale at a good price.

The Rev. James W. Diggles curate of Christ church, Williamsport, has been appointed by the Bishop to take charge of the Episcopal Missions at Berwick and Catawissa. Mr. Diggles will make his residence in Berwick and will take charge of the work early in December.

Circumstantial Evidence contains none of the "clap-trap" or blood and thunder element usually dished up with the ordinary drama of today. Its theme is pure and elevating and the story touches a strong moral lesson which is hard to forget. At the Opera House Tuesday evening.

No nicer, in fact none as beautiful as the lamps that Mercer the Druggist is selling.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul, are arranging for a moving picture exhibition to be given at some near future date. The animated scenes will equal anything ever shown here and will include among other things the great eruption of Mt. Pelee, the greatest calamity of recent times.

Eri Treibelpiece, formerly of Pine Township, this county, now residing at Benscotter's Pond, and J. R. Fowler departed Tuesday morning on a deer hunting expedition to Eddy's Lick, Clinton county. They will be out for probably three weeks, unless they should have the good fortune to capture a couple of the ruminant quadrupeds the first day, in which event they will come home on the next train.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice, and will be sent to the dead letter office November 25, 1902. Persons calling for these letters will please say "that they were advertised Nov. 13, 1902":

R. S. Harlan, Messrs Breakstone Grossman & Co., Frank Malcom, Mr. Frank Mills, Mrs. Marth Segraves, Miss Margaret Yooye.

One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

J. C. BROWN, P. M.

One of Bloomsburg's most prominent young men drove to Danville recently with a lady friend, and after taking supper at the Montour House, returned home again. When he reached the livery stable he was informed that the horse he brought back was not the one he went down with. The hostler at Danville had given him somebody else's horse. The liveryman here got matters arranged so that there was no arrest for horse stealing.

The largest line of lamps in Old Columbia County at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

A young man, one of the number of rooters who accompanied the Wyoming foot ball team to town on Saturday, caused quite an excitement at the close of the game by stealing the Normal colors from a student. In the attempt to regain it the flag was torn and the fellow, with a piece of it in his possession took to his heels and ran down town. He was hotly pursued by some Normalites and given a good trouncing. Three or four others of the visiting contingent were also roughly handled. The lesson taught them was one which they are not likely to forget very soon.

PURELY PERSONAL

Ben Gidding went to Mt. Carmel yesterday.

W. H. Coffman spent Sunday with friends at Wilkesbarre and Kingston.

J. L. Dillon is in Philadelphia this week, attending the annual chrysanthemum show.

Harry Ritchie witnessed Lincoln J. Carter's "The Darkest Hour" at Danville last night.

T. W. Nichols, of the Canning Company, is back from Philadelphia, where he spent the past two weeks.

Edward Eyer of Philadelphia visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Eyer on North Market street this week.

Deputy postmaster Edwin Ent spent Sunday with his wife, who is visiting her former home in Weatherly, Pa.

George W. Mears and wife of Rupert, and C. S. Furman of Bloomsburg attended the reunion of the Legion of Honor at Philadelphia last week.

Joseph Hendler of Wilkes Barre, was in town on Monday. Mr. Hendler was the contractor for the stone work on the river bridge here a few years ago.

Oscar Lowenberg is at the Miners' Hospital at Fountain Springs, where he underwent an operation for a split knee cap a couple of weeks ago. Dr. Biddle performed the operation. The knee was opened and the broken cap drawn together with wire. Oscar is greatly pleased with his treatment, but says it requires a deal of nerve to stay there as men are brought in almost daily in terribly mangled conditions.

If you want a hot water bottle, fountain or bulb, syringe, nipples or baby fittings go to Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

T. A. Schott of Danville owns three violins, which he values at thousands of dollars. The oldest was made in Italy in 1640 and another is a Stradivarius, made in 1730. The first instrument was brought to this country from France by Anthony Schott, grandfather of Mr. Schott. Then it came into possession of his uncle, Joseph Schott, and from him it descended to the present owner. The third instrument is a cello, which is 189 years old.

Sun & Fowler's beautiful production "Circumstantial Evidence" will be presented at the Opera House Tuesday evening next. This play is one of the strongest in the English language. It tells a story of genuine heart interest, and is interpreted by a company of exceptional merit. All special scenery will be used. Our people will recall the excellent minstrel performance given here by Mr. Sun two weeks ago. He promises something fine in "Circumstantial Evidence," and he is one of the few theatrical managers who keep their play bill promises. Seats can be obtained at Bidleman's Book Store.

Box papers from 10c. to 50c. Tablets from 5 to 25c. Envelopes from 5 to 16c. per pack. All stationery at Mercer's Drug & Book Store.

Mrs. Amanda Barch, wife of Judge Geo. W. Barch, died at her home in Salt Lake City, Utah on Monday. The deceased was born in Hemlock township, this county, in 1845 and was therefore 57 years of age. She is survived by a husband and three daughters beside a brother and three sisters, one of the latter being Mrs. T. J. Barton of Bloomsburg. The body will be brought here for burial. It will arrive on Sunday and the funeral will take place the following day from the residence of J. E. Welliver of Leonard street, a nephew.

The fifth street residence, and store building, corner of Main and Centre, the property of J. K. Lockard, are advertised at sheriff's sale, to be sold on November 20th, at the court house at 2 o'clock p. m.

TALK NO. 38.
TWO RINGS

Always travel with cupid, and two rings travel with the rings we sell—The ring itself, and the ring of honesty—honesty in material, workmanship and price.

The machinery that runs this jewelry store is honesty. If you buy a baby pin here, it will be just as represented or a new one for it. If you buy a watch here it will be as good a watch as you can buy for the money. We POSITIVELY will not misrepresent anything. Buy something and see if this isn't so.

OPTICIAN AND JEWELER, BLOOMSBURG, PENN'A.

CHANGED CONDITIONS REQUIRE NEW METHODS.

The Hour Glass of our Great Grand-fathers did very well in those days, but times have changed. The successful men of today reckon time as money, a missed train or broken engagement means something lost.

A GOOD TIME KEEPER

Is an element in character building. A Watch that is always on time inspires promptness and teaches self reliance

"Hearts of Gold," the much heralded pastoral drama, with an elegant array of special scenery, wonderful mechanical effects, and an all star cast comes to the Opera House to-night. This show has been booked since April and is undoubtedly one of the season's best rural dramatic attractions.

For threatening the life of R. M. Shultz of Benton, Abraham Peterman of that place was placed in jail yesterday. This is his fifth arrest on this same charge.

Try Dr. Hess' Chicken Panacea, it will make your hens lay. At Mercer's Drug and Book Store.
