THE STATE AT A GLANCE-

-Forest fires, supposed to be the work of coon hunters, are raging on both branches of the Blue Mountains near Lewistown, destroying many acres of young chestnut, cultivated for stave making.

-Some idea of the size of the Wayne county apple crop may be gained from the fact that one shipper, Cortright & Son, has thus far shipped So carloads, or 16,000 barrels, and still has on hand 20,000 barrels.

-The famous Kutztown Fair has likely seen its last exhibition. Jacob Heffner, who died a year ago, was part owner of the fair grounds, and now the grounds must be sold to set-

THE OLD RELIABLE

Death of Miss Margaret Vannatta-

Miss Margaret Vannatta, aged seventy six years, died at the home of Mrs. M. E. Walker, in Wilkes-Barre, Friday morning. Heart disease was the immediate cause of death, though she had been in failing health, owing to advancing years, for some time past. Miss Vannatta formerly resided in Bloomsburg, making her home with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Knapp, on Normal Hill. Shortly after the death of Mr. Knapp, a few years ago, she went to Wilkes-Barre, where she remained until the death angel claimed her on Friday. She was a good christian lady, and a consistent member of the Episcopal Church. The vance will get a receipt to Jan. 1 1904 remains were brought to Bloomsburg Monday morning, and taken to the home of her niece Mrs Bodine, from which place the funeral was held at two o'clock in the afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. D. N. Kirk-Five members of St. 'Paul's Episcopal Choir sang "Asleep in Jesus," and "Lead Kindly Light," after which the remains were conveyed to Rosemont Cemetery and interred in the family plot.

Among the out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mrs. George S. Robbins of New York, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walker, and two sons, Harry and Day. Mrs. Kruger and daughter, Miss Jewell, Mrs. Gamble and Mrs. Morris Ellenbogen of Wilkes-Barre.

Rev. J. D. Smith of the Baptist church performed a marriage cerethe up his estate. The fair was not such a great financial success as to warrant the managers purchasing the Miss Myra L. Conner of Benton and William M. Rupert of Blooms--Never before in its history has burg. The event occurred in the young couple's newly furnished labor, especially female help in Read home on Catharine street and was attended by a large number of relatives and intimate friends.

Thanksgiving Services.

Services will be held in St. Paul's Episcopal church on Thanksgiving Day, at 10:30 a. m. Also in the Reformed church where Rev. Dr. Hemingway will preach, and in the Presbyterian church, where Rev. J. D. Thomas will preach.

A Sad Death.

Mary Naughton, aged nineteer ears, daughter of James Naughton of Centralia, died in great agony on Sunday from the effects of burns received the night before. The young woman was mentally weak, but able to attend father with whom she lived. On Saturday evening she went to the cellar for the purpose of securing potatoes for the evening meal, carrying with her a lighted lamp. She set the lamp on the celtar floor and her clothing coming in contact with it she was soon in a mass of flames and ran screaming to the upper portions of the house. When found by the neighbors who rushed to her assistance, she was frightfully burned. Dr. Davis, of Centralia, was summoned and did what he could to allay her sufferings until death came to her relief. Much sympathy is expressed for her aged father in his sad affliction.

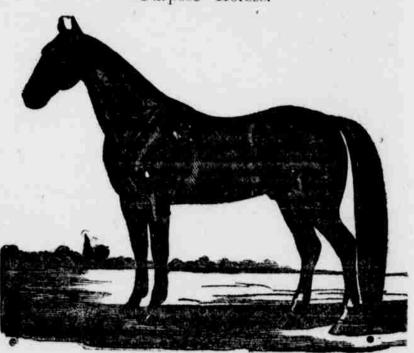

We carry a nice assortment of Twelve Mo. Books bound in cloth witness this grand production of "Jesse for 19c. Some of the more popular titles are Robinson Crusoe, Black Beauty, Black Rock, John Halifax, Arabian Nights, etc., at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.
