Liquor Tax for Soda Water.

Commissioner Yerkes, of the internal revenue bureau, has given a decision in which he rules that druggists and others who sell soda water drinks, claret soda or similar beverages to which distilled spirit, wine or any compounds thereof are added in any quantity, however small, are required to pay special tax as retail liquor dealers under the internal revenue laws.

Under the old ruling druggists were allowed to add to soda water rade and Wyoming and western Neand other soft drinks an inappreciable quantity of distilled spirits or wines for flavoring purposes. The former ruling is revoked to take effect January 1, 1903.

The commissioner also has decided that producers of sweet wines, who are not distillers, may withdraw wine spirits (grape brandy) from special bonded warehouses free of tax to fortify their wines.

Thus for instance a line of temperature, forty degrees, ran up from Galveston, Texas, to Buffalo, N. Y. then turned and ran down to Louisville. Ky. where it again looped and ran up to Portland, Maine,

Elsewhere West it was generally cooler, with zero weather in the extreme

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other dist eases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years docto s pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. In the meantime, the President is making the present situation a pretext for urging Congress to appropriate for six new battleships during this session. With this end in view he has entertained a number of congressmen at a dinner at which he presented his views and advanced the proposition that it was futile for Congress to expect the President to uphold the Monroe Doctrine without maintaining a navy of the first class.

Secretary Root is actively lobbying for his two bills, one providing for the reorganization of the army and the other for the reorganization of the militia, the latter with a view to establishing a reserve force of perhaps 500,000 men who can be called upon for active service by the President whenever Congress shall declare war. The democrats have discovered a number of provisions in the latter bill which they have shown to be unconstitutional and the Secretary is now

Senator Quay has made a gallant national platform of both parties. He has met with severe opposition from Senator Beveralge and his supporters but in no instance have they gained any advantage over him. On Tuesday it was determined by mutual consent to postpone further consideration of the measures until Jan. 5. the day on which Congress will reconvene. Senator Quay still insists that he will win and there are many members of the Senate who agree with him, although the republican machine is exerting every effort to accomplish his defeat.

The new Cuban treaty has been received in Washington and forwarded to the Senate. While there is likely to be little open opposition to the bill, on the floor of the members of the Foreign Relations committee are endeavoring to open up a discussion which will at least postpone the ratification of the treaty and which may be so prolonged as to defer its ratification until after the 4th of March.
