A WONDERFUL YEAR

Enormous Strides Made by Our Country During 1902.

SUPPLY UNEQUAL TO ALL DEMANDS

Nearly Every Branch of Trade and Manufacture Showed an Increase Over Previous Year, According to Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31 .-- Bradstreet's review of the business year, to be issued Saturday next, will have the fellowing:

"To say that 1902 was the best year" this country has ever experienced, while truthful enough in the main, does not suggest fully the enormous strides which the United States took in the year just closed. Practically every branch of ordinary trade and manufacture showed an increase above the best of previous years, and yet this immense enlargement of output was not sufficient of itself to satisfy the growing, it might even be termed insatiable, demand for all kinds of materials. "In many cases the usual foreign outlet for our products was perforce neglected by American producers, who confined their efforts to supplying insistent domestic demand, while in others foreign production was called upon to re-enforce domestic output, with the result that new currents and channels were created in our foreign trade. Our export trade, therefore, shrunk, while our imports expanded to unprecedented figures.

"The railroads of the country in their efforts to handle the business offered them suffered as never before from cougestion, and complaint of interference with production and distribution of the products of the farm, the mine, the shop and the loom was practically universal.

"Industrial unreal was naturally marked, as it always is in times either of prosperity or of depression, and serious disorganization of some of the country's basic industries resulted for a time. In many cases, however, resort to extremes was avoided or rendered unnecessary by liberal recognition by employers of changes in the standard of living, and it is safe to say that two men obtained higher wages or had their working time reduced without resort to strikes for every one who actually quit work.

"Speculation, it is true, fell the checks imposed upon it by conservatism, by short crops in the preceding year, and last, but not least, by high rates for money, but despite the fact that stock market operations were only about onehalf those of 1901 bank clearings, those usually reliable guides of business, showed aggregates practically equal to the hitherto unheard of totals of 1901. All this was accomplished with a minimum of friction as reflected in the form of business embarrassments."

"Pauper's" Estate Valued at $100,000. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.-Several weeks ago an old man named Eli Hyman was admitted to the general hospital of the city of Toronto as a pauper. Two days later he died, and an examination of his effects disclosed he stated that he had a wife and daughter in San Francisco. A firm of Canadian attorneys took charge of the case and, communicating with lawyers here, located the wife and heir of the dead man. Mrs. Rebecca Hyman and her daughter, now a Mrs. Hort, who reside here and who have been poverty stricken for years, have established such proofs of relationship that the attorneys have no fear that any other possible claimants will be recognized. The estate is valued at $100,000.
