

FLAMES ARE MASTER

Conditions in Adirondacks Are Very Much Worse.

FISHERS AND CAMPERS CARELESS.

One Fire Has Burned Over Six Miles of Territory, and Loss to Lumber Traders Has Been Very Serious.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 20.—Reports received at the offices of lumber companies here who are heavy Adirondack landholders say that the conditions throughout the woods is critical...

A large portion of the population of the woods where the fires are burning the fiercest is a roving one, and as the money to pay for fighting fire is not available until next February it is difficult to secure the force that is needed...

George R. Finch of Finch, Prullin & Co., who are one of the heaviest holders in Adirondack lands, says that fishermen and campers are responsible for half of the fires that devastate the north woods yearly.

KENT WARMS A SPOT

Judge Says He Was Responsible For Girl's Death.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 19.—George Raines has served on District Attorney Warren notice of an application for a certificate of reasonable doubt on behalf of Leland Dorr Kent, who was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment.

In sentencing Kent Judge Sutherland said: "I will say that I concur entirely in the conclusion which the jury arrived at as to the manner by which Miss Dingle met her death. I have no doubt that Miss Dingle gave her consent to die, and her participation to some extent in the preliminary preparations for death would not have necessarily absolved you from the graver charge of murder if you had been indicted for that offense, because you willfully, knowingly, inflicted the mortal wound."

THE BRIDGEPORT STRIKE.

All Quiet, but Trouble is Seething Still.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 20.—The strike situation is quiet, and with one single exception there was no violence reported in the city last night. This case occurred on Barnum avenue. Abraham Munt, a coal cart driver, called out an offensive name and threw a piece of coal which struck a motor-man in the face.

Three young men were arrested for using offensive language to the non-union men, and they were held under $300 bonds.

No attempt was made to run the cars after 6 o'clock last night. Very few persons are patronizing the cars when run, and because of this fact the striking trolley men put busses on all the streets through which trolley cars pass.

Sheriff Hawley has sent notices to all the twenty-three towns in the county asking that constables of those towns report to him for duty here at noon next Saturday. The sheriff now thinks that with the co-operation of the police it will be unnecessary to call on the governor for state aid.

VETERANS REUNITE

Great Gathering of Ex-Confederates at New Orleans.

A NOTABLE SPEECH BY GORDON.

Commander in Chief in Opening Address Says the Day of Bitterness and Animosity Has Ended Forever.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—The United Confederate Veterans opened their thirteenth annual reunion under the most favorable auspices. The great auditorium erected in the center of the race track at the fair grounds was filled with a cheering, enthusiastic multitude long before the hour set for the formal opening.

As the commander in chief of the Veterans, General John B. Gordon, came to the front of the rostrum the delegates rose en masse and gave him cheer after cheer. The general repeatedly bowed his acknowledgments of the loyal and affectionate greeting and when the tumult had subsided he replied as follows:

"To my thought it is most fitting that this proud and patriotic organization should again meet in this historic city which gave it birth. The meeting of such men as you welcome today, whose past deeds will remain forever an inspiration to American valor and to future sacrifices for constitutional freedom, is an auspicious event in the country's history whenever and wherever it may occur, but how peculiarly inspiring is this reunion in Louisiana on this one hundredth anniversary of her new birth into governmental alliance with American states!"

"A Roman eye would have discovered in a meeting of such men at such time an omen of good to the cause of liberty, and American eyes should see in it nothing but good to the whole republic. It must of necessity be beneficent and only beneficent. We will not indulge on this centennial, this political millennium morning, nor at other times, in any bitterness. We feel none. We pity those who do. We have long since drawn the curtain of oblivion over the regretful and unseemly things of the past, and we cherish as Americans the valor and noble deeds of both armies and of all sections. We are satisfied with our record, and the power that would attempt to make us blush for it would be both stupid and blind."

ROOSEVELT IN NEVADA.

Welcomed at Reno—Moody Will Go to Cheyenne.

RENO, Nev., May 20.—The presidential party arrived at Reno after a 317 mile ride from Raymond, Cal. Ten minutes later the train left by the Virginia and Truckee railroad for Carson.

E. J. Barlow of Battle Mountain, a rough rider, was one of the president's callers. The president was presented with a string of Truckee river trout, fresh from their mountain home, and a case of Nevada honey when his train passed through on its way to Carson.

Secretary Moody, who joined the president at Riverside, Cal., and who was soon to have left for Washington, has accepted the president's invitation to go through to Cheyenne with him. Cheyenne will be reached Saturday week.

Roosevelt in the Yosemite.

YOSEMITE, Cal., May 18.—A furious snowstorm is raging in the mountains here. President Roosevelt is quartered at the Glacier Point hotel. The remainder of the party, numbering about thirty, will be forced down to the valley, four miles below, as accommodations are limited at the hotel.

Shortly after noon the president's party, occupying four stages, entered the Yosemite valley. The president eluded a large crowd awaiting him in the valley by taking the trail, with a few members of his party, at Chinquapin, thirteen miles from here. The colored troopers of the Ninth cavalry broke the trail through the snow, which was deep in places. The remainder of the party took horses and mules at the foot of the trail for Glacier point, one mile below the Sentinel hotel.

President Breaks the Record.

BERENDA, Cal., May 19.—President Roosevelt in a coach did the Yosemite park from Yosemite to Raymond, where his train awaited him, in ten hours of actual travel, a distance of sixty-nine miles, thus breaking all previous records.

The president passed the night in camp at Bridal Veil falls, a few miles from the post office at Yosemite. He slept soundly and when he awoke declared he had never felt better in his life. His looks bore out his words. The members of his party joined the president at the falls. Here he bade goodby to his guides, Lydig and Leonard, and mounted to his seat on the coach beside the driver.

A special train from Fresno brought members of the chamber of commerce and their friends, and they warmly greeted the president as he appeared on the rear platform of his car. He made a brief address, thanking the people for coming to see him.

RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR'S REPORT

Money Lending Jews Are Hated by Peasants.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has made the following statement relative to the Jewish troubles in Russia: "There is in Russia, as in Germany and Austria, a feeling against certain of the Jews. The reason is that the Jews will not work in the field or engage in agriculture. They prefer to be money lenders. Give a Jew a couple of dollars, and he becomes a banker and money broker."

"In this capacity he takes advantage of the Russian peasant, whom he soon has in his power and ultimately destroys. It is when the patience of the peasant is exhausted that a conflict between peasants and Jews occurs. Ordinarily the Russian is a very patient person, but it is only natural that he should entertain a feeling of resentment for the one who has wrought his ruin."
