THE COLUMBIAN.
BLOOMSBURG, PA.
THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1903.

Noted at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

ROSEMONT CEMETERY.

To whom it may concern:
Several notices have been sent requesting payment of bills for burial lot or for other expenses, due the Rosemont Cemetery Company, to which little or no attention has been paid.

If the several amounts due are not paid by or before the 20th of August now next, they will be put in process of collection. The Managers hope there will not be any necessity for such action; but that all persons having relatives or friends buried in said grounds, will sufficiently respect them, to pay for the place of their rest.

By order of the Managers,
JOHN G. FREEZE,
3t. President.

The meeting for the election of officers of the Choral Society should have been held last Monday evening, in the Normal Gymnasium, that being the time fixed by the rules. There were present nearly all the members at the Normal, and four only from down town. There not being a quorum present, twenty being required, there was no meeting and consequently no election. The Executive committee will be called together soon and fix a time and place for a meeting down town. It will probably be on Thursday of next week.

Miss Caroline Creasy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Creasy, was married yesterday afternoon at two o'clock to Mr. George McAlarney, of Plymouth. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on East Fifth street, by Rev. W. P. Eveland. Miss Lenore Campbell and Miss Elsie Yorks were flower girls and Miss Emma Burns, of Scranton, played the wedding march. Guests from many cities and towns were present.

A bill in equity has been filed by a number of property owners near the canal, against the Town of Bloomsburg to prevent the using of the canal as a sewer, and to compel its being put into such a condition as not to be a menace to health. A preliminary injunction was issued. The time for a hearing has not been fixed.
The pupils of rooms 5 and 6, of the Fifth Street school took a trolley ride to Catawissa on Wednesday afternoon. They were in charge of their teachers Miss Fox and Miss Robbins. They filled two special cars. The trolley company gave them an excursion rate of ten cents for the round trip. The little folks enjoyed themselves greatly.
