The Farm Journal.

Every subscriber of THE COLUMBIAN who is receiving the Farm Journal for five years as a premium, is notified that at the expiration of the five years they must notify the publishers to discontinue it. If subscribers allow it to come on after the five years, they must not blame THE COLUMBIAN if they have a bill to pay. Don't neglect it, but send a postal card to the Farm Journal, Philadelphia, unless you want the Journal continued at their regular subscription price. Don't write us about it, we have nothing to do with it.

Randall Jacobs, of Danville, who some time ago passed the mental examination for admission to the Anapolis Military Academy, has also passed the physical examination, and has been admitted.

W. S. RISHTON,

Market Square Pharmacist.

Rambler rose bushes make perfect bowers of beauty on some of the yards about town.

John McCormick whose foot was recently amputated at the Miners' Hospital is now moving about the street on crutches.

William Langfield of Fernville, formerly a railway mail agent on the New York & Pittsburg route has taken the position at the United States Express Co's office made vacant by the promotion of E. S. Fornwald.

Cigars. The Sweet Jaras are the finest in Bloomsburg for a 5c. smoke, try them, at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

William Morris has purchased Edward Broadt's barber shop fixtures and will continue the business under the post office. Will is one of our town's best tonsorialists and will no doubt win the success that he deserves.

The Wheelmen and Clerks will play base ball on Normal Field next Thursday afternoon. A majority of the players have not had a ball in their hands for years, which fact will probably lend an amusing phase to the contest.

We have a nice line of wall paper and as cheap as the cheapest, at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

Rev. F. A. Weiksell officiated at the marriage of Dr. Wesley Irvin, of Shenandoah to Miss Minnie Knapp, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Roaring Creek on Saturday. They will reside at Shenandoah.

If you have the rheumatism, get some of the castaway pieces of carbon used in the arc lights and bind them on the afflicted parts, and the chances are that your rheumatism will take its departure very suddenly for there is nothing so effective against rheumatic microbes as electrified carbon.

The Methodist church of Benton has arranged a Fourth of July celebration. As that is the only town in the upper end that will observe the day the attendance will no doubt be large. We do not know what the program includes but we suppose it will be commensurate with the occasion.

Loud and frequent are the complaints that are being made about the condition of East Fifth street. That thoroughfare is certainly in need of attention, and it is high time something is done with it. In its present condition it is hardly safe to travel.

Seven years in business is our reference. Gem Steam Laundry.

Alexander McDonald, a Standard Oil multi-millionaire, says that if a young man wants to get rich he must start a peanut stand, or some business of your own. Never work on a salary. Be your own boss. Keep off the stock markets. Earn a dollar and save a quarter of it.

No community can prosper unless its people are alive to the opportunities of the day. If you wish to see the town grow and prosper, cease your whining, take your hand out of your pockets, disregard your personal feelings and interest, join in any movement for the public good and stick to the town's welfare under all circumstances.

All bicycle sundries at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

J. G. McHenry, of Stillwater, was a town visitor yesterday. He is the same genial Gaylord of thirteen years ago, when the writer, then a youngster in that peaceful little hamlet along the Fishing creek, knew him well. A little talk over old times brought us to a realization of the velocity with which time flies.

The opening of Fairchild's Grove, below Berwick, Saturday evening was a big success. People were present in large numbers. Bloomsburg was particularly well represented, and all report an enjoyable time. This Park bids fair to become a very popular resort. It has a splendid dancing pavilion and other essential accessories.

WANTED—YOUNG MEN to prepare for Government Positions. Fine Openings in all Departments. Good salaries. Rapid Promotions. Examinations soon. Particulars Free. Interstate Cor., Insl., Cedar Rapids, Ia. 6-18 2 mo.

John Edwards was arraigned before Squire Jacoby on Monday, on a charge of assault and threats. The party aggrieved is John Shoemaker, who stated that the offence occurred on March 13th last, Edwards admitted having shaken his fist in Shoemaker's face, but denies that he struck. He was however held for court, he furnishing bail for his appearance.

Superintendent of Schools W. W. Evans and wife are attending the State Educational Convention at Wilkes-Barre this week.

Miss Blanche Millard who has been the guest of relatives and friends in town for a week or more, returned home on Saturday.

Master Sloan Andreas, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting his grand father, C. P. Sloan on Market street. Mrs. Andreas will arrive today.

Mrs. J. P. Welsh entertained a number of young people at the Normal Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Mae Townsend of Wilkes-Barre.

W. B. Mericle, of Buckhorn dropped in to see us while in town on Monday. Since the new rural delivery which started yesterday, his address is Jerseytown.

Rev. Dr. Kirkby of Rye, N. Y., preached two excellent sermons in St. Paul's church last Sunday, being here on a visit to his son, Rev. D. N. Kirkby. He returned home on Tuesday.

E. J. Flynn, Esq., of Centralia, was in town transacting business on Monday. He is counsel for John Seesolt, who is confined in jail charged with murder, and he called at the jail to see him.

Miss Sara Milleisen left on Tuesday for Harrisburg, where she will visit for a week or ten days. She was accompanied by Miss Margaret Miller, of Harrisburg, who has been her guest for the past ten days.

Jessie Sylvus of Wilkes-Barre was in town this week, having been called here by the illness of his mother who was here on a visit.

Mr. Sylvus learned his trade in the COLLEGE OFFICE fifteen years ago, and is now holding a good position in E. B. Yordy's office in Wilkes-Barre. Jess used to be prominent on the ball field.

There is a man in this town whose influence with young men is most pernicious. He is old enough to know better, but he has long been suspected of his practices, until now enough is known of him with certainty to drive him from the town should an exposure follow. He had better think the matter over, and quit.

Tires, inner tubes, cements, bell s, pedals, toe clips, grips, pumps, saddles, &c. at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

The borough of Hughesville has been made the defendant in a suit for damages to the extent of $10,000. Mrs. Annie Plankenhorn, of Muncy township, the plaintiff, is now in such serious condition, it is alleged, as a result of the accident, that her life is despaired of. It is alleged that her injuries were received in a fall due to tripping over a defective sidewalk. Bloomsburg should take warning.

Base balls, base ball gloves and mitts and all ball paraphernalia at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

The St. Ignatius' parochial school, at Centralia closed Thursday and in the evening the graduating class of five young ladies received their diplomas. An elaborate program in which many of the school children took part was presented at St. Ignatius' hall, and was witnessed by a very large audience. The graduates are: Misses Annie Curry, Mollie Farrell, Annie Haley, Katie Quigley and Annie Welsh.

Manuscript covers for typewriter and legal papers, in five colors, with name printed on, are for sale at the COLUMBIAN office.
