The flood of applications for state aid in the building of roads that was expected to follow the passage of the good roads bill has failed to materialize, and the indications are that there will be few roads built this year. Up to the present time, Road Commissioner Hunter has received but three applications, and he finds that in many instances the road supervisors are unacquainted with the provisions of the bill, and want to proceed without the cooperation of the county commissioners. Mr. Hunter has sent out letters to ascertain the road mileage in each county, and until he secures this information no important steps can be taken.

Ex-Sheriff Myers and D. B. Heddens of Danville and P. B. Heddens of Bloomsburg are guests at the Heddens' home on south Oak street.—Mt. Carmel Item Tuesday.

All bicycle sundries at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

Joseph Sands is no longer connected with the Ben Gidding clothing store. He resigned the position on Monday. Max Gross formerly clerk for Louis Gross, has succeeded Mr. Sands.

The premium list of the Columbia County fair has been issued. It contains much of interest to exhibitors and patrons. The dates for the coming exhibition are Oct. 13-16 inclusive.

J. H. Brugler of Danville, architect, made the plans for Pursel's new store front. Mr. Brugler has furnished the designs for many buildings in Bloomsburg and his work is always of the very best.

Wall paper from 8c. per bolt to 40c. per bolt at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

Mrs. Jessie Vannatta, whose husband Ben. H. Vannatta died recently of small pox at Glen Shaw, arrived at the home of her mother, at Catawissa on Saturday, where she will make her home in the future.

The swamp that has been for years along the D. L. & W. R. R. as it enters Danville will probably disappear soon. The Structural Tubing Co. will use it for a dumping ground and in this way it will be filled up.

Bicycles. New ones for $25.00 and they are worth looking at, at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

We see by the papers that a Chicago woman has just cremated the body of her fourth husband. It isn't fair that some women should have husbands to burn, while others are forced to live and suffer in the single state.

The Trolley Company should stop the practice of jumping on the cars at the river bridge at Catawissa. Scarcely a car goes over the bridge in the evening, that the boys do not jump on when the conductor's back is turned.

If you want wall paper or window curtains go to Mercer's Drug and Book store.

Moyer Lewis has been offered special inducements by the Burnham Athletic Association to play ball the balance of season. He packed his grip and left on Tuesday. Moyer played a star game with Buraham earlier in the season.

Blank books and all stationery at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

Samuel Shaffer, of Third street, who is building a house for C. H. Sands in West Berwick, fell from the second story of the building about noon on Tuesday, a distance of eighteen feet. Some of the ribs on the right side were fractured and hip and leg were bruised.

For violating the law, by selling beer and liquor at his home without license, Charles Flickinger, of Wilburton, was arrested and brought to town and lodged in jail by Constable Owen Cain, on Sunday. The commitment was issued after a hearing before Squire Lenahan.

A lawn festival and free band concert will be held on the vacant lot corner of Market and Sixth Street Friday and Saturday evenings of next week. The list of special attractions includes a gypsy camp. Proceeds will be devoted to the Public Library fund.

Second hand bicycles, some good bargains at Mercer's Drug and Book Store.

A week ago Sunday Rev. Dr. Enoch Perrine of Lewisburg preached in the Presbyterian Church in this town. On Thursday of last week his wife met with a fatal accident, her clothes taking fire from some hot coals which she had raked from the kitchen fire. She was so badly burned that she died the same day. Resolutions of sympathy were read by Dr. Hemingway last Sunday morning and the congregation adopted them by a rising vote.

The Philadelphia Press tells a story on Bishop Talbot to the effect that on a visit to Archdeacon Radcliffe, Stroudsburg the bishop after ascertaining that the Archdeacon was enjoying splendid health remarked, "I'm glad of it; for I want you to work like the devil." The Archdeacon looked up in astonishment at the dignitary, when the latter, with a twinkle in his eye, said quietly, "You know Archdeacon, the devil is always working."

PURELY PERSONAL

Special officer Witts captured an unmuzzled dog on Market Square Monday morning. The animal, a good sized, white and black fellow, took his capture very peaceably, and with the exception of biting at the rope which was slipped over his head, moved along without any fuss.

It may interest housewives to know how flies may be effectually disposed of without the use of poison. Take half a teaspoonful of black pepper powder, one teaspoonful of brown sugar and one teaspoonful of cream. Mix ingredients well together in a saucer and place in a room where flies are troublesome and they will soon disappear.

The annual Harvest Home Services under the pastorate of Rev. A. Houtz, will be held as follows: Orangeville, Aug. 30, at 10:30 a. m.; St. James, Sept. 6, at 10:15 a. m.; Zion, Sept. 6, 2:30, p. m.; and Hilday, Sept. 13, at 10:30 a. m. The altar and pulpit will be decorated with flowers and fruit, the music good, and the sermon appropriate. It is hoped that all will bring or send a suitable harvest offering unto the Lord.

The Band went to Catawissa Saturday evening and furnished music for the festival given by the band of that place. The quotation "the crowd will follow the band" worked well Saturday evening. The cars, from seven o'clock up until half past ten when a down pour of rain put an end to the festivities, were crowded to such an extent that the ride was anything but pleasant.

A life long and much respected resident of Espy, Mrs. Mary Creveling, departed this life at her home in that village Tuesday morning, from an ailment incident to advanced years. For several months past she had been unable to leave her bed. She had passed the four-score mark in the journey of life and had always been an active member of the Methodist Church. Her purposes were always high and her daily life exemplary. Her husband's name who has long since been deceased was Moore Creveling. Four daughters and one son survive. They are, Mrs. John Logan, of Harrisburg, Mrs. F. C. Hayman, of Reading, Mrs. Wesley Pettit, of Minneapolis, Minn., Mrs. H. C. Ruckle, of Espy and J. C. Creveling of Espy.

Death at Buckhorn.

After a long illness Mrs. Sarah Summers, died at her home in Buckhorn Sunday evening, aged nearly seventy-seven years. Death was due to cancer. The funeral took place on Tuesday. Rev. Buck officiated. Interment was made in the Vanderslice cemetery.

A man who recently returned from a trip abroad and who spent Sunday in town, says that in France, when a funeral passes, every man raises his hat to salute it. The deceased person may have been a child, a pauper, a beggar, it matters not, the cortege is saluted by every man, whether he be prince, millionaire or mendicant. It is a good and lovely custom.

Mother Grieved Over Suicide.

As a result of brooding over the death of her son, Barton Hawk, who took his own life at Mainville several weeks ago, Mrs. Boyd Hawk of that place became mentally deranged and it became necessary to remove her to the State hospital in Danville. She was missed from her bed at midnight, and found a mile away roaming aimlessly about on the mountains.

While playing with some boys of the neighborhood, Saturday afternoon, Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bowen, of West Third Street, had his left arm broken. About two years ago he had his right hand cut off at the Robinson Planing Mill.
