TO KEEP STREAM CLEAN.

Fish Commissioner Meehan Confers With Owners of Tanneries.

Fish Commissioner Meehan has been in consultation with owners of tanneries in the northwestern part of the State and has about reached an agreement with them in regard to a method of preventing the pollution of fish streams by these industries.

The Commissioner says that the source of revenue to the State under the fish basket license law would be small. Not more than twenty-five applications are expected for this means of catching fish and the fees will be small.

Applications for gold fish for educational purposes in the schools in the counties, cities and districts will be received by the Department of Fisheries. Only public schools will be supplied.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., postoffice, and these letters, will please say that "they were advertised Sept. 3, 1903".

Mrs. George H. Brant.
