STATE DEMOCRATS.

There will be an interesting Series of Meetings Held Throughout State.

After the State Democratic campaign has been opened on the last day of this month at Allentown there will be an interesting series of meetings held throughout the eastern part of the state.

The State Committee will make the arrangements and Chairman Hall and Secretary Meek will spend from now until election day in the city.

There will be meetings held at which the State issues will be put before the people, while in the larger cities the meetings will be addressed by well known orators.

Farmers who had large crops of this season are fortunate. The day is worth a good price now and will, in all probability, advance.

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

Of H. D. Patton of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

LANCASTER, PA., Sept. 23, '03. CHAS. R. JONES, State Chairman

DEAR SIR:—As promised I herewith transmit formal acceptance of the nomination for state treasurer, as tendered by the Prohibition state convention at Gettysburg, June 17, 1903.

public plunder, franchise grabs, grafts, a lowered tone of political and business morals, a lack of regard for law, disrespect for courts—in short, political debauchery.

MUST REGAIN LOST POWER. The growing demand for the Initiative and Referendum shows an awakening of the people to the fact that they want to retake, in some measure, the power they have yielded to the spoilsman.

CAPITAL AND LABOR. The mutual dependence and correlated interests of capital and labor should lead both to arbitration in disputes, and to the recognition of organization as a primary right of each.

LEGAL ROBBERY. The people are entitled to the best government at the lowest adequate cost, otherwise popular interests and individual rights are lost sight of and the natural functions of government are abandoned.
