NOMINATED BY THE CITIZENS.

O. W. Cherrington, for President of Council, and Six Members Named.

H. G. Supplee, for Director.

Pursuant to a call, the faction designated on the posters as the citizens party, convened in the town turned out enmasse at their Town Hall Tuesday evening, for party caucus held in the Town Hall the purpose of nominating a ticket Saturday night. There was no to be voted for at the election to be friction of any kind, neither was held on the 21st of this month. The there any contests, save for the posting of the bills about town an- councilmanic nomination, and even nouncing the meeting came in the in this the two defeated ones took nature of a surprise to a great many. their medicine gracefully and with DR. DARLINGTON Even some of the party leaders becoming respect, so that everywere unable to comprehend the thing passed off smoothly. Not a significance of the move. Numer- single d ssenting voice was raised to ous inquiries of men, who are any of the motions, and the meetusually supposed to keep tabs on ing was really too tame to be interthings political, did not reveal who the sponsors of the move were. The who thought there was an oppor-

Rabb finally took up the scepter of anthority and an organization was clared the nominee, effected. E. F. Carpenter was Usually there are elected chairman and Chas. E. Kes-Mr. Carpenter asked for some indrawn and O. W. Cherrington and tion. William Chrisman Esq. were nominated. As tellers to count the vote The vote was taken and resulted in a majority for Cherrington, he receiving 84 to 34 for Chrisman. Mr. Cherrington was declared the

Then there was another hitch, occasioned by a division of senti-ment regarding the number of candidates to be nominated for council Some favored the naming of only three, while others insisted on six or none. The chairman, desirous 26. The first three were declared of ascertaining the wish of the ma-jority, hit upon a novel idea, that of dividing the house, requesting all who favored three candidates for Council to take the right side of room and those for six the left side. The result was an overwhelming victory for the former, after which the following gentlemen were Runyon 81, Hassert 63, White 53, following nominations:
Bittenbender 34, Robbins 34, Fisher First District—Judge of Election, 37, Ferguson 19, Hartman 18 and John Scott; inspector, F. B. Rupert; Hutton 12. registry assessor, Edward Myers.

Nominations for school director was next taken up. The names submitted were those of Jas. C. Brown and H. G. Supplee. The Robert Morris. first however was out of order, he being the Republican nominee, and Supplee was nominated by acclamation.

Third District--Judge of election, William Webb; Inspector, Roy Ralston; registry assessor, Calvin

At this juncture some one moved for adjournment which was carried and the meeting broke up in con-

REPUBLICANS

Caucus Attracts Large Attend. ance but Enthusiasm Was Lacking.

A FULL TICKET NAMED.

Not to be outdone by their Democratic brethren, the Republicans of

The machine had been well oiled Well, the meeting was held, and and an organization was perfected, a lively meeting it was. It simply and a ticket placed in the field in knocked the spots off the two almost less time than it takes to tell the cancuses that preceded it. Among it. Republican County Chairman those who attended were tellows A. W. Duy called the meeting to the cancer of the county who were dissatisfied with the other two meetings, and who desired the chairman, and H. J. Achenbach nomination of men more to their and W. E. Rinker secretaries, and the first bishop of the Harrisburg individual liking, others were there then the caucus was ready to re- diocese of the Protestant Episcopal ceive nominations for Mayor. Only tunity to display their leadership, one name was given, that of C. C. while not a few were attracted by a curiosity to see what would be done.

Prof. G. E. Wilbur. Instantly There was considerable delay in there was made a motion that the calling the meeting to order. Chas. nominations be closed, which was seconded and Mr. Yetter was de-

Usually there are a number of declinations when it comes to placty and G. E. Lewis secretaries. ing men on the ticket for council-At this point in the proceedings men, and it not unfrequently hap- for a unity of sentiment between pens that the caucus experiences the clerical and lay deputations. formation. He desired to know considerable difficulty in securing laymen from the first gave a mawhether it was proposed to endorse the requisite number of men who jority for Dr. Darlington, while the either of the tickets already named or to nominate a whole new ticket. There was an abund-date, Dr. Darlington and Rev. Paul A spirited discussion ensued and de- ance of material. They were on Matthews, dean of St. Paul's Catheveloped the fact that a majority fa- hand, five of them, all equipped dral, Cincinnati, being the favorites. wored lie latter course and accord- with printed ballots, and the way vored the latter course and accordingly nominations for President of they flitted around among the Rev. Frederick F. Reese, D. D., Coancil were asked for. C. C. voters distributing the paper slips rector of Christ Church, Nashville, Yetter, the Republican nominee and scattering kind words and was named but as the caucus had pleasant smiles left little doubt but D. D., dean of Trinity Cathedral, voted against endorsing any other that they were sincere in their decis- Cleveland; Rev. William Frederick candidates, his name was with ion and really wanted the nomina- Faber, rector of Grace Church,

The candidates were Charles Culp, John Deily, C. Frank Deiterthe chairman appointed C. M. Hess, ick, Daniel Sterner Sr., and Theo-J. E. Fidler and B. W. Hagenbuch. dore F Conner. As tellers to count the vote the chairman appointed B. W Hagenbuch, John Dr. Darlington, while 73 out of 98 Scott and Jacob Stiner. After a few of the lay delegates were for him. words from Mr. McKillip, explaining the method of voting so as to motion of Rev. William Dorwart, keep out any repeaters, the vote of Newport, the election was made was taken and the result was an-nounced as follows: C. Frank Deiterick, 120; John Deily, 111; Charles Culp, 97; Theodore F. Couner, 60; and Daniel Stiner Sr., the nominees of the caucus.

For Justice of the Peace C. W McKelvy Jr., was given a unanimous vote as was also Jas. C. Brown for school director.

Joseph L. Townsend and Chas. H. Kline were nominated for Town Auditors and Eugene Whitenight for constable, after which a motion placed in nomination: Fisher, Geo. was made and carried empowering D. Hartman, C. M. Bittenbender, the president and secretaries of the W. L. White, William Hutton, C. meeting to fill any vacancies that W Runyon, W. B. Ferguson, C. may occur on the ticket. This B. Robbins, W. H. Hassert, and concluded the business of the caucus W. R. Ringrose. Dr. I. L. Rabb, proper, and the representations of Bart Pursel and Will Eastman we're the four election districts were asnounced the result as follows: the room, where they made the

Second District-Judge of elec-

Fourth District-Judge of election, Daniel Stiner; inspector, Edward Gearinger; registry assessor, Wilbur Fisher.

"IF YOU WOULD BE WEALTHY, THINK OF MADE BIG SHOWING SAVING AS WELL AS GETTING." Ben Franklin.

> It is easier to get FIVE dollars than save ONE, but wealth without Saving is impossible. Learning to spend less is more important than learning to earn more. Start now if only with one dollar, and watch it grow in the

Bloomsburg National Bank

A Sound, Conservative, Safe Institution.

A. Z. SCHOCH, President.

WM. H. HIDLAY, Cashier.

ELECTED BISHOP.

Brooklyn Divine Chosen Head of Diocese on Thirteenth Ballot.

Will be Notified Tuesday.

Rev. James Henry Darlington, D. D., rector of Christ Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected to be Church, in yesterday afternoon's session of the convention at Harrisburg which began Tuesday night at St. Stephen's.

The balloting began yesterday morning upon the six candidates who had been nominated and a deadlock continued through twelve ballots and was broken on the thirteenth after a strong appeal by C. LeRue Munson, of Williamsport,

Lockport, N. Y.; Rev. William H. Van Allen, D. D., rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston,

The thirteenth ballot was taken He was declared elected and upon unanimous. The convention then with one accord arose and heartily sang Gloria In Excelsis.

The delegates then signed the testimonials of election, and by mo-tion the president of the convention, Archdeacon Baker, was authorized to appoint two clergymen and two laymen as a committee to notify Dr. Darlington of his election, the standing committee to defray the

The appointments were made as follows: Rev. Dr. W. R. Breed, St. James, Lancaster; Rev. Charles Morison, St. Matthews, Sunbury A. P. Perley, Christ Church, Williamsport; George S. Comstock, St. Luke's, Mechanicsburg. They de-cided to call on Bishop-elect Darlington Tuesday at his home in Brooklyn. Delegates said that there is reasonable assurance that Dr. Darlington will accept.

Dr. Darlington, first Episcopal bishop of Harrisburg, is a native of ated from the University of the City of New York in 1877, taking his degree of philosophical doctor at Princeton in 1884. In 1899 his alma mater conferred upon him the life of his home city and ranks high in 1882 was ordained priest and volume of verses for children. He deacon by Bishop Littlejohn. His is also editor of the Hymnal of the and Constable were apparently forgotten and an adjournment was taken without any provision having been made to fill any vacancies that may occur.

Mr. Cherrington and C. B. Robbins have declined to run and it is rumored that some others will decline.

Bear in mind the Wheelmen's talents were speedily recognized, for the Church.

Rev. Dr. Darlington said last night that he had just received word deacon of Brooklyn from 1895 until deacon of Brooklyn from 1895 until of the Cathedral. He was archiof the cathedral. He was archiof the cathedral of the Church.

Rev. Dr. Darlington said last night that he had just received word deacon of Brooklyn from 1895 until the head just received word of the cathedral. He was archiof the cathedral of the cathedral

A Bargain in Garpenter Aprons. Worth 30 cents

Now 23 cents.

FOR SALE BY

J.G. Wells.

General Hardware BLOOMSBURG, PA.

WEDDING BELLS AT BENION.

Harvey Belles and Miss Reba McHenry, Principals in Pretty Nuptial Event.

MANY GUESTS PRESENT.

Tuesday evening a gay company assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McHenry at Benton, to witness the nuptials of their daughter, Miss Reba and Mr. Harvey Belles. The wedding was one of the prettiest that has been seen in Benton in many a day. The white mantle which covered the earth and the chill north west wind, made the scene in the prettily decorated and brilliantly lit parlor, and the following reception which was tendered the bride and groom, all the more enjoyable by contrast. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McHenry of Bloomsburg, and Miss Nellie Krum, of Bloomsburg, played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. V. Frisbie, of Orangeville.

Following the ceremony, and while the reception and supper was going on, an orchestra under the direction of Harry Sutton, discoursed sweet music, which imparted an added charm to the happy

Present at the reception were the following: Mr. and Mrs. John G. McHenry, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Umbewust, Brooklyn, where he is rector of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Karns, Mrs. Christ Cathedral and very promi-nent in civic and church life. He Hess, Leona Stiles, Vida Bellas, was born 48 years ago and gradu- Della Dodson, Messrs. Marshal honorary degree of doctor of di- among the clergy of that famous vinity. In 1880 he became assist- city of churches. As a speaker he ant rector of Christ Cathedral and is widely known and has written a

BEN CIDDING

OUR HATS IN SPRING SHAPES ARE IN

We have all the new colors and styles.

The Broadway Special at $3.00 is the best on the market.

BEN GIDDING

Corner Main and Center Sts.

Come in and see us, we'll treat you right.

FEBRUARY SALE OF Carpets and Furniture.

Quality is just as important as price. Poorly made Furniture is dear at any price. We only sell such goods as we can guarantee, and you'll often find that our prices for this good kind are lower than some stores ask for the low grade kind that soon falls to pieces.

During February we will give a Discount of 10%. on all Furniture.

- - CARPETS - -

On carpets we will show you greater values than ever. You will have an opportunity to get good choice designs at low prices. It will pay you to watch this sale even if you do not use them until April.

A Discount of 10% on all Carpets During February,

THE LEADER STORE CO., LTD.

4TH AND MARKET STREETS. BLOOMSBURG, PA.