

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1905.

IN THE COURT ROOM.

Monday's Session Was An Unusually Busy One.

Court was in session on Monday, with all the Judges present. The following business was transacted: Estate George W. Supplee, dec'd. On petition citation awarded.

J. S. Woods vs. Adm. F. C. Harrison estate. Rule discharged and non suit entered.

Dr. I. R. Wolf vs. R. S. Howell. Rule made absolute.

W. C. Johnston, auditor of public accounts, filed his report.

J. H. Maize, George Breisch and W. G. Yetter appointed commissioners on the division of Locust township into two election districts.

H. G. Gillinger, J. R. Bibby and W. G. Yetter appointed viewers to vacate and relay a road in Cleveland township, near Jacob Stine's.

S. Ralph Whitmire discharged under the insolvent laws.

Arthur B. Naylor of Bloomsburg, naturalized.

Creta Foulk vs. B. R. Foulk. Subpoena in divorce awarded.

Anna May Eveland vs. W. E. Eveland. Subpoena in divorce awarded.

Charles F. Reichard vs. Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Rule granted to show cause why change of venue shall not be granted.

In the matter of Hayman vs. H. W. Eyer. By agreement judgment entered for plaintiff against garnishee for $85.56 and interest.

Petition was presented by Berwick Land Improvement Company for the satisfaction of an ancient mortgage.

J. W. Evans presented petition for satisfaction of mortgage.

Upon petition the Benton Council was granted permission to sell the materials heretofore purchased for the construction of the water works.

Petition presented to sell real estate of William Fenstermacher, supposed to be dead.

Susan Cooper vs. Garrison Bros. Rule discharged as the case will be tried at May term.

The Overland Limited to California leaves Union Passenger Station, Chicago, 6.05 P. M. daily, arrives San Francisco the third day in time for a dinner. Route—Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Line. All ticket Agents sell via this route. Ask them to do so.

Handsome book, descriptive of California, sent for six cents postage. F. A. Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, or W. S. Howell, 381 Broadway, New York.

Sold by the Sheriff.

Sheriff W. W. Black, on Saturday sold the following properties at his office in the Court House:

Property of C. M. Krug on East Third street, to Thomas M. Landon for $3800.

Property of Amos F. Sturtevant in West Berwick to the Security Building and Loan Association for $500.

Property of Harvey Eisenhart, of Berwick, to Security Building and Loan Association for $900.

T. A. Shirk, in Berwick, for $500 to the Security Building and Loan Association.

Edwin J. Hadley's presentation of moving pictures as he advertised, are indeed of a high class. The programme is long enough to satisfy everybody and without being monotonous, because of the great and well chosen variety of selections. What in justice can be said of this attraction is that it is not only entertaining, but distinctly instructive—educational—Allentown, Pa., Morning Call, May 10th, 1904.

At the Opera House next Wednesday evening, April 16th.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." MRS. ISA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Palm Sunday in Jerusalem.

How it is Celebrated in the Holy City by Thousands.

It is Palm Sunday in the Holy City. None of the worshippers today, numbering perhaps eight or ten thousand people, mostly visitors from other lands, is too poor to have a palm branch; it may be small, but it has a value far beyond that asked by the not over-scrupulous dealer. Early as we reach the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, other thousands have preceded us, devout pilgrims have spent the night in the building in order to have a position of advantage. To see the procession of patriarchs, bishops and priests, which passes in and through the church, is worth a night of vigil; surely these earnest, simple people will have their reward.

Lenten Season at Seaside.

It is a wise provision for the general health, abstaining from so much rich food, gaieties, etc., for a short period in the early spring; but resting is not enough to truly recruit the tired brain and organs, a good tonic should be added, and one of the best is a short stay at the seashore, inhaling the invigorating salt air.

The finest place for this purpose is Atlantic City, originally a mere summer watering place it has developed into one of the greatest all-the-year-round health and pleasure resorts in the world. The wide boardwalk, nearly facing the south affords a fine warm sunshiny promenade, with a beautiful unobstructed view of the ocean, while the numerous first-class hotels have all the accommodations of those in the largest cities, and the fine sun parlors are a pleasant retreat in cool or inclement weather.

The best way to reach Atlantic City is by the Reading System, whose well equipped trains of luxuriously appointed coaches and Pullman Parlor Cars leave Chestnut Street and South Street Ferries, Philadelphia, at frequent convenient intervals. A special convenience to the busy worker is the "Saturday only" express, leaving at 1:00 P. M., and stopping, on notice, at Pleasantville, to accommodate visitors to the Atlantic City Golf Links.

The Woman's Home Companion for April is the Easter number, and well befits the season. A leading article, "Most Picturesque of Easter Celebrations," describes an Easter in Jerusalem. The second in the articles on food-adulteration comes close home in relating "How the Baby Pays the Tax." The fiction unusually good—"The King of Diamonds," by Louis Tracy, producing new and fascinating complications, and in the second instalment of "Martha and Her American Kitchen," "Marion Harland enlisting our interest still further in the woes of married couple—and the short stories are capital. "Fads and Frills of Fashion" tell, of course, about Easter hats and gowns. "Nature-Study," Mrs. Sangster's helpful talk, Mrs. Richardson's practical advice to "The Girl Who Earns Her Own Living," and other regular departments, are as full of interest as ever. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

The Prize Plow and Intelligent Farmer

There are good plows on the market, but the farseeing, intelligent, up to date farmer calls for something more than that—he wants the best. At the Fairs last Fall "LeRoy" Plows in every instance were awarded the first prize over all other Plows on the market. If you want a Plow look around, investigate, ask any farmer who has used a "LeRoy" Plow what he thinks of it, compare and suit the Plow to your convenience, not your convenience to the Plow. The "LeRoy" line is complete; you will find just the plow adapted to your needs in the "LeRoy." Sold by H. G. SUPPLEE, Bloomsburg, Pa. E. E. LOW, Lime Ridge, Pa.

Balmer's Celebrated Kaffir Boys' Choir will appear in the Normal Auditorium Saturday evening next. This is one of the most unique entertainments before the public. Every item on the program is given with a spirit that at once catches the audience. The boys sing soprano, contralto and tenor. With Mr. Balmer's bass voice, a complete quartette is formed. The repertoire of the company is as extensive and varied as it is possible to wish, consisting of upwards of sixty selections: Solos, Duets, Trios, Quartets, Part Songs, Old Melodies, etc. All of them given from memory.

The diagram of seats is now open at Bidleman's.

SUCCESS.

All the world pays tribute to Success.

President Roosevelt was on March 4th, inaugurated the chief magistrate of this great country, the first vice president ever so honored. It is worth any man's while to think over Mr. Roosevelt's life from the time he entered the Assembly at Albany until now.

And do not cheat yourself of the benefits accruing from a candid study of his career by imagining that his environments made him; for the truth is that he made his environments and blazed his own way to his present enviable place. A few lines are sufficient to tell that President Diaz has practically completed the Mexican Isthmus Route, opening a highway for the world's traffic between the oceans four days shorter than that which the Panama Canal, when completed, will afford. But if you will read the history of that great railway with its terminal ports, you will learn that every Mexican ruler since the days of Cortez tried and failed to do what Diaz has accomplished; that a score of the world's greatest contractors even during Diaz's time have brought to the project every resource at their command, without success; that the unconquerable will of President Diaz persisted to the end and has finally mastered every difficulty, and has crowned with triumph the years of failure, stretching back to the time when Herman Cortez first set foot on the narrow strip of Mexican land dividing the oceans of the Occident and the Orient. Study the life of President Diaz, in the widow's son and school-boy at Oaxaca you will find the same stuff that has enabled the man to build a modern inter-oceanic railway through a country where the world's engineers had declared it to be impossible.

All the world pays tribute to Success, yet only the few know at what cost it is attained.—Cent Per Cent for April.
