Entered at the Post Office, Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

WEDDED LAST WEEK.

Two Well Known Young People of Town, Plight Their Truth at Philadelphia.

Mr Arthur Heimiller and Miss Natalie Foulke, both well known and popular young people of Bloomsburg, gave their many friends a big surprise last week by announcing their marriage, which took place in the Chapel of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, 16th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Rector of St. Mark's, Rev. Dr. Mortimer officiated and the beautiful ring ceremony was used. Those who witnessed the happy event, were Mrs. E. J. Shaw, the bride's aunt, Miss Edna MacMullan and Miss Margaret P. Laubach.

Mr. and Mrs. Heimiller, for the past week have had apartments at "The Walton," Broad and Locust Streets. Yesterday they left Philadelphia for an extended tour which will include a trip up the Hudson River and other points of interest throughout New York State.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Foulke, and has for years been a member of St. Paul's Church Choir. She possesses a brilliant quality of soprano voice, and has handled the solo work of the choir in a manner that has fully displayed the natural excellence of her singing.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heimiller, of Catharine street.

The COLUMBIAN joins with the many friends and acquaintances of the young couple in extending hearty congratulations.

GIANTS WON.

It was a great fight the Normal team gave the Cuban Giants yesterday afternoon and it was not until the closing innings of the contest that the dusky individuals were able to take a firm hold of the bit. Up to the seventh inning it was clean, fast and thrillingly exciting, but here the Normal took a tumble, several of the players seemed to lose control of themselves and from that time on, things were easy for the Giants.

There was some great work in the early stages of the game, and the finish of several of the innings was of the sort that causes hair to raise on various heads, bald or otherwise.

Lynch pitched for Normal, and it was his superb control and headwork in the box that kept the Giants down to six hits. He has been doing good work right along, but he never shone more brilliantly than yesterday, and that the Normal lost is no fault of his.

Durlin caught till the latter part of the game, when after having twice collided with third baseman Schmalz, he was ordered to the bench and Stone took his place. Normal only made one run, and that in the last inning after two were out, but that tally looked as big as a house. It was legitimately earned and when Titman crossed the plate the crowd went wild.

With all of Normal's apparent looseness in the field, 6 was the extent of the Giants efforts in the run getting line.

The same teams will play today and again on Monday.

Five Generations Represented.

Five generations were represented in a groupe photographed at Jonestown on Sunday. They were: Nathan Dreisbach, aged 89 years; Mrs. Isaac Fahringer, his daughter; Frank Fahringer, his grand-son; Guy Fahringer, his great grand-son; and Ralph Fahringer, his great-great grand-son. The age of the latter is seven months.

How true is the statement we know not, but it is no doubt well substantiated, that $30,000,000 go every month into Wall Street from people of the cities, towns and villages of the entire country who are anxious to get something for nothing in stock speculations .90 per cent of which goes into the coffers of the brokers and their 250,000 employees, many of whom live in houses of luxury. In one building alone are 7,500 men dependent upon stock gambling.

The condition of David G. Hackett, Superintendent of the Columbia & Montour Electric Railway, is extremely critical, and the end, in the opinion of the attending physician, is only a question of time. Twice during yesterday, he was thought to be dying, but he rallied again. His brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sponsler, came up from Harrisburg by way of Catawissa Monday night, arriving here at one o'clock Tuesday morning. A special car was sent to Catawissa to meet them.

A writer in one of the leading magazines for the month says: "Two hundred millions were spent in this country last year for dogs. If there is anything that makes me sick it is a fool woman hugging a dog." It comes pretty near being the truth. Society has put maternity out of fashion. The society woman who happens to have a child puts it out to the care of a nurse and then goes to ride in her automobile taking with her the pet pug dog. No wonder the dogs turn out better than the kids.

The terrible catastrophe at Harrisburg last week brings to mind how careless people are in not having something about them which will serve as a means of identification in case of accident. The wisdom of making some provision for showing the name and address is apparent every little while, especially in the case of those who travel. None of us know what will befall and while we all hope that no outward fate will be ours, it is not amiss that each of us guard against uncertainty as to identity in case the unexpected happens.

The Transportation of Explosives.

The disaster at Harrisburg Thursday morning as the result of the explosion of a carload of dynamite in transit has caused much discussion among railway officials as to the best method of handling high explosives so as to avoid danger to life. A meeting was held in Philadelphia Saturday to discuss plans for shipping explosives. President Baer, of the Reading, suggested the building of a special car or cars with padded sides and other means of reducing concussion to a minimum. Another official suggested that only 100 pounds be permitted to be carried in one car and that no train be permitted to join two cars together which had the allotment in it. He also suggested that not more than 1,000 pounds of dynamite or other high explosive be carried on one train.

Many people who think of Japan as only an island, small in extent and population, may change their impression by learning that the little "island" with its attachment of Formosa and Kuril islands, contains 160,000 square miles. Great Britain and Wales only contains 58,000, so that Japan is almost three times as large as Great Britain, and while Great Britain and Wales have 23,000,000 people Japan has 44,000,000, so that in the line of population and extent of territory she isn't so small. These islands are strung along the Atlantic coast, while the northern ones are in the arctic region, the southern ones are in the tropics, so that the empire contains every variety of climate and production.

Last season's championship record of the McDonald and Snyder base ball team of Wilkes-Barre, was no where in evidence in the game with Normal Saturday afternoon. If they played the games and accomplished what they claim to have done last season, their retrogression since that time has indeed been most grievous. In no department of the game did they show any form, and the first inning, during which Normal scored five runs, was about as much as anybody cared to see of the game. Long, formerly of Benton was on the slab for Normal and his performance was highly pleasing to his many friends, who had come down to see him pitch. Orrie has a bright future before him, and the next few seasons should place him in line for a league position. The game ended with the score 11 to 4 in favor of Normal.

Miss Ferguson to Wed.
