It is rumored that Armour & Co. is soon to make use of its building on Sixth Street, as a distributing station. It was for this purpose that it was erected, but it has not been doing service for the company for some years. At present the building is occupied by the Supplee-Mather Co. for their wholesale department.

School graduates must bear in mind that labor is the law in life. Anyone by industry and careful saving of a part of his earnings can prosper and become independent. Without hard work neither knowledge nor natural ability can open the door to success. Education is a great help and pleasing but without applying it with well-directed and persistent effort it is of no avail.

The White House Restaurant on the corner of Main and Centre, passed into new hands on Monday, when Joseph Ziegler and Will Bachman purchased from Harry C. Millard the stock and fixtures. The new proprietors will take charge as soon as the license is transferred. Mr. Millard who has conducted the place for the past two years will retire from the business, and engage in some other calling, probably in Berwick.

The A. A's clipped another scalp on Saturday, when by virtue of good pitching on the part of one Mr. Mackintosh, a temporary sojourner in our midst, they trimmed Nescopeck 10 to 3. The up-river lads, made things decidedly interesting for five innings, and it looked as though the result would be in doubt until the finish. But they lacked the staying qualities. Ludwig weakened, and when the fifth ended the locals had eight runs to their credit. Nescopeck secured but two hits and eleven of their batsmen fractured the air.

Passengers on the last car to Catawissa Sunday night had a long tiresome ride. The pole for want of lubrication, refused to stay on the feed wire, and at least thirty stops were made, and one hour and ten minutes were required to run from the Square to the Catawissa bridge. Before starting back, the motorman climbed on top of the car and poured some of the oil from the headlight on the base of the pole, and the return trip was made in half an hour. The car is due to reach here at eleven o'clock, but it didn't get in till nearly one.

A story of the folly of patronizing the mail order house comes from Candor, N. Y. A farmer there recently purchased of a mail order house in the west some blankets for which he paid $1.95 each. It was afterwards found that these blankets had been made at the Candor factory and sold to the mail order house. And when they were sold again to the Candor man they were readily identified as Candor goods by the manufacturers' tags thereon, which were printed in the Candor Courier office. And the price of these blankets if they had been bought in Candor by the farmer would have been only 90 cents each.

INSANE MAN'S CRIME.

Commits a Bloody Double Crime on the Mountain Near Plymouth.

A murder and suicide was committed in Jackson township Luzerne County, a few miles from Plymouth on Sunday. The victims were James J. Farrell, a well known resident of Plymouth, formerly assistant chief of police, and John Lee, formerly an engineer on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railway. Farrell accompanied by his two children went over the mountain to visit a cousin named McNally. Another cousin named James Lee, who had been an inmate of an insane asylum, but recently discharged as cured, suddenly took a fit of the old malady, and without any warning he rushed at the children with a razor, but they succeeded in getting away. Lee then discovered Farrell lying on the grass in the shade some distance away. He made a rush for him and cut his throat, and turning around he took the same razor and cut his own throat. Both men died instantly.

Berwick-Nescopeck Bridge.

The construction of the Berwick-Nescopeck bridge will proceed from both sides of the river.

G. W. Stebbins of Wilkesbarre, will start work from the Berwick shore and Charles Reimard and Brothers of Bloomsburg, will begin on the Nescopeck side.

Each of the gentlemen have been awarded the contract for a part of the structure by the York Bridge Company and work will be in progress simultaneously from both sides.

Each contractor will put a large force of men at work and this arrangement will greatly expedite the construction of the substructure and completion of the bridge.

A representative of G. W. Stebbins, who will start from the Berwick shore was in Nescopeck recently. He stated that Mr. Stebbins will be here personally the fore part of the week to arrange to start the work. The York Bridge Company is manufacturing some tools and equipment that will be necessary in addition to the tools that will be transferred from Nescopeck Creek Bridge when that is completed in about ten days.

Rabbi Rosenberg to Leave Danville

Rabbi S. Rosenberg, who has had charge of the B'ne Zion congregation at Danville since last September, has severed his connection with the synagogue and next month will sail for Europe.

On Friday night last Rabbi Rosenberg preached his farewell sermon. He is a man of fine education and his work in Danville proved acceptable to his people. The Rabbi will remain in Danville for a few days.

The B'ne Zion congregation has heard several applicants, but they have not yet chosen a successor to Rabbi Rosenberg.

Rabbi Rosenberg, last fall conducted a class in French in Bloomsburg. He had a number of pupils, all of whom made rapid progress.

Received With Fire Works.

E. W. Lanninger, inspector at the Berwick Steel Plant, who recently went to Pittsburg to be married, arrived home last week. A committee of six friends met the train at Nescopeck, and amid fireworks galore escorted the bride and bridegroom to the ferry. Upon their arrival at the Berwick shore two rows of red lights, which had been placed from the river to their hotel, were lighted and the bridal party made its way through the blaze of light and the incessant explosion of fireworks to their destination. At the hotel they were again greeted by hundreds of friends of the bridegroom.

Woman Shot in Dispute Over Steak

George Adams, a butcher, has been held in jail to answer the charge of shooting Mrs. Charles Bush, of West Hazleton.

While the woman was purchasing meat at Adams' wagon a quarrel arose over the quality of a steak. Adams, it is alleged, drew a revolver and fired at the woman, the bullet striking her in the head, but glancing off. Mrs. Bush was not seriously wounded.

John R. Bennett's Will

The will of the late John R. Bennett, the patent lawyer, who lost his life in the Lake Shore train wreck at Mentor, Ohio, has been probated at Danville. The will was made in Paris on August 1, 1903, and is very brief. Mr. Bennett bequeathes all his property to his wife, with the exception of $25,000, which he gives to his sister. The estate amounts to over half a million dollars.

PURELY PERSONAL

S. H. Beishline of Hazleton is building a summer house at Fowlersville.

Editor C. A. Rasey of the Berwick "Enterprise," spent a portion of Sunday in town.

Guy Sleppy of Scranton, is in town with his parents. He is enjoying a month's vacation.

Mrs. Kate Blodgett departed on Monday for a visit with relatives and friends at Gettysburg.

William H. Clark of Florida, is spending two months with his brother and sisters on Market Street.

Fred Drinker, wife and family, of Philadelphia, are visiting relatives in town. He is employed on the Phila. "Record."

Miss Adele Altmaier who has been visiting her brother Dr. Altmaier, in town, returned to her home in Hazleton on Saturday.

Master Kent Kirkby, son of Rev. and Mrs. D. N. Kirkby, of Newark, N. J. is visiting Misses Mary and Martha Clark.

St. Columba's Church was the scene of a pretty nuptial event yesterday morning when, Miss Tillie Casey, daughter of Mrs. John B. Casey, was united in marriage to Edward Purcell, of Alexandria, Virginia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Murphy, and was witnessed by a large company of invited guests. The bridal party was made up of Miss Anna Tooley of Danville as brides-maid and M. J. Pursell of Philadelphia, as best man. The ushers were E. J. Shelby; D. F. Curry and O. J. Flynn of Philadelphia and Will Bachman, of Bloomsburg. Chas. P. Elwell, presided at the organ, and during the ceremony, Mrs. J. F. Tooley, of Danville, rendered a beautiful solo.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The happy couple were escorted to the 2,36 D. L. & W. by a large number of friends. The carriage created much merriment. It was gaily trimmed and their trunks and dressing cases, were so burdened with lumbermen's colors, and cards, that scarcely any portion of the material with which they were made was visible. Chas. B. Ent, fantastically dressed, and tooting a long tin horn, rode a horse ahead of the bride and groom's carriage.

After a brief tour Mr. and Mrs. Purcell will take up their residence in Washington, D. C.

Wholesale Dealers Cannot Bottle Beer.

Judge W. F. Sadler at Carlisle handed down an opinion in the case of C. P. Stambaugh, wholesale liquor dealer of that city, which will be read with interest by liquor dealers all over the state. Some time ago one of Mr. Stambaugh's bondsmen presented a petition to the court asking permission to withdraw from Mr. Stambaugh's bond on the ground that Stambaugh had not the right to bottle and sell beer under wholesale license.

Judge Sadler decided that under wholesale license for the sale of spirituous and vinous liquors Mr. Stambaugh did not have the right to bottle and sell beer. The court gives Stambaugh fifteen days in which to discontinue the bottling of beer, and should he not comply with the order of the court at the expiration of that time his license will be revoked.

Chairman Hall Issues Convention Call

The formal call for the Democratic state convention to be held in Harrisburg on August 16 for the nomination of a candidate for supreme court judge and "transact such other business as may properly come before it in the interest and welfare of the Democratic party" was issued on Thursday by Chairman Hall.

An exchange says: "When tired, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at the very best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal, go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with more brilliancy than usual, go home and light the whole household. Home is the best place of all."

According to a last Sunday's theatrical paper, Sarah Bernhardt says, man's attire is ridiculous. It may be so, but the lady must admit that she can't see through it.
