We wait for a good many things that are not worth the waiting when we get them.

There were seven hundred and forty different students at the Normal School last year.

Dr. Eveland has accepted the election as President of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport.

James Magee and John W. Evans landed at London last Monday, after a very pleasant voyage.

Did you ever notice how town folks admire their country relatives in the good old summer time?

The latest New York fad is calling cards for dogs. It hasn't struck Bloomsburg yet, but probably will shortly.

Vanity Fair, March and Two-step by Chas. P. Elwell, on sale at all music stores. Second edition, 25 cents.

Good horses are scarce, plugs are abundant. The remedy ought to be apparent. Are you planning for plugs or horses?

Prof. Claude M. Stauffer of Hazleton, a former graduate of the Normal School, is now directing the Carlisle Indian Band.

Hud Mann has resigned his position at Rishton's drug store and will go to Philadelphia this month to enter the College of Pharmacy.

Hon. W. T. Creasy will address an open meeting of Benton Grange, No. 88, at Benton on Saturday evening, August 5th at 6.30 o'clock.

Edwin J. Hadley's moving pictures, the finest in America, will be exhibited in Bloomsburg, for the benefit of the Wheelmen early in October.

A. Bruce Fry of Scranton and Miss Margaret O. Bowman, of Orangeville, were married by Rev. T. H. Tubbs of Light Street on Saturday.

Nothing More Dangerous.

Bass fishing is better this season than for many yeers past. Scarcely a day passes that good catches are not reported and the fish are all of good size.

Mrs. Polly Heinbach died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Keifer in Catawissa township Saturday afternoon. She was seventy-eight years old.

Margaret F. Laubach, formerly of Bloomsburg, now conducting a millinery establishment at 110 South 13th Street, Philadelphia, sailed last week for Paris.

While ascending a flight of stairs at the Magee Carpet Mill on Tuesday Miss May Eveland an employee fell and fractured her right arm between the wrist and elbow.

Chas. P. Elwell will continue to teach during the summer months. Instruction in pianoforte, violin, harmony and composition. Send for circular or call at 233 West Third street, Bloomsburg. If Dave Williams, formerly of the Normal School, who for the past two seasons, has been pitching for Altoona under the name of Bennett, is critically ill at his home in Scranton. It is thought that he will not recover.

Rev. J. A. Reber has resigned the pastorate of the Reformed churches at Millville, Mainville and Salem, the same to take effect Sept. 1st, when he will move to Killinger, and accept a charge.

Ray Yohe made a trip to Milton on Saturday to buy a horse for his mail route. Horses, it seems are very scarce hereabouts, and there are few for sale in the West Branch towns. He returned home without buying.

Henry Stetler has succeeded Harry Deitrick as manager of Columbia Park. The former's merry-go-round is being set up in the park and will add to the varied lot of amusements to be found at the popular resort.

Theodore L. Smith suffered a painful injury at Jacob Brobst's Carriage manufacturing shop Monday. His left hand was caught in the gearing of a drill press, and the flesh on the fingers was severely torn by the cogs.

A new bulletin has recently been published by Uncle Sam, entitled, "Milch Goats," which will prove of value to those of Our Folks who are interested in that subject. Write to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and ask for Bulletin No. 68, Bureau of Animal Industry.

The camping party, composed of Ben Gidding, Neil Chrisman, Art Sharpless, Prof. J. T. Goodwin and D. J. Tasker, arrived home Saturday evening from a two week's outing along Muncy Creek, near Muncy. They are wearing a good healthy color, and all report a fine time.

A freight wreck about a mile above East Bloom delayed traffic on the Penna. Railroad for several hours Saturday afternoon. The wreck was the result of a sudden application of the brakes in order to avoid running into a landslide. The cars buckled and several of them were derailed. Only one car was damaged beyond repair. Fortunately they were all empty.

Harold Kline has purchased one of the recently invented McFann's Cotton Candy Machines, and is doing a rushing business on Market Square each evening. The device is a decided novelty. It is equipped with a gasoline burner, requires only two feet of space, and spins sugar into cotton candy of any desired color or flavor. The process is highly interesting and the confection is delicious.

Colonel Ricketts who owns nearly all the land around Lake Ganoga, Ricketts and the adjacent territory, is getting under way extensive improvements and enterprizes, and will construct several large dams, to impound the waters on the mountain top, install a series of turbine wheels and furnish electricity for light, power and heat for towns in the Wyoming Valley. Enough power can be generated there to operate all the trolley cars and light all the houses there.

The local base ball team was ruthlessly handled by Milton at that place on Tuesday. The exhibition from a Bloomsburg standpoint it is said by those who were there was pitiful to behold. Parsons, formerly of Bucknell University was on the slab for Milton, and he struck out thirteen of our heavy hitters. This explains in a measure why the boys failed to score. Milton only secured five hits off of McCloud, who pitched for Bloom but he gave eight passes to first base which together with nine errors in the field, netted Milton twelve runs.

Your glasses may be partly right, and proportionately helpful; but if they are not exactly right you are not getting all the benefit you should. ONLY medical eye specialists can determine exactly what lenses are needed. Henry W. Champlin, M. D., Oculist.

The Superior Court of Pennsylvania has handed down an opinion reversing the decision of the Court of Northampton County, in the suit brought by A. D. Bosger, a merchant at Alliance, against the borough, to recover the amount of a bill of goods furnished a family when the latter were quarantined because of the prevalence of small-pox. The Court holds that people quarantined are to support themselves if they are able to do so; if they are not able, then the poor authorities of the county are to look after them.

An exchange says a law should be passed to protect people from their own folly. It takes the position that nine out of ten persons who purchase goods from installment houses pay two or three times what the goods are worth. It quotes an instance where a woman purchased a rug from an agent representing an installment house, and paid him one dollar and agreed to pay fifty cents a month for twelve months. The rug—the identical rug, was displayed in the window of a local store marked "$2.40." The woman bound herself to pay seven dollars.

At a meeting of the board of governors of Bloomsburg Wheelmen held Tuesday evening extensive interior improvements to the club house were considered. It is proposed to have an auction sale in the course of a month or so to sell off all the carpets and furniture in two of the rooms, and re-carpet, repaint, repaper and returnish the same with Mission furniture. The board of governors has decided that nothing is too good for the Wheelmen, and when these contemplated improvements are completed the club house will compare favorably with the homes of far more pretentious organizations in larger cities.

THE CHOICE OF A SCHOOL.

Many of our readers are now selecting the school which they will attend during the ensuing year. We offer a word of advice. SELECT THE BEST. Nothing else is so good as the best. It's true of schools especially.

It is our opinion that the Literary Institute and State Normal School at Bloomsburg, Pa., has no superiors, and few equals. Send for a catalog. Write the Principal. State how far you have gone in your education, what you desire to prepare for; whether for teaching, for college, for business, or a course in music. You'll get help and good advice. Do it today.

Cheer Up.

The weather for the past few days has certainly been most delightful, just of the sort that should cheer up and gladden the hearts of all mankind. There may be hindrances to the full enjoyment of the charming weather. Stocks may not be increasing in value as rapidly as you had hoped for; progress in the matter of constructing the East Fifth Sewer may seem unnecessarily slow, and trade may be discouraging, but cheer up and look pleasant. What's the use to worry? Think of it. A few short years shall pass and you'll be sleeping under where the green grass is waving and the gentle zephyrs will blow above you, and the little birds will trill their notes down by the brooklet's side, and the old world will move on just the same. Cheer up.

Senseless on Top of Box Car.

Lying senseless on top of a box car, Conductor Charles Brennan, of Centralia, rode twenty miles Friday night, although the train proceeded at high speed, swinging around sudden bends and sharp curves.

Brennan was conducting on a Philadelphia & Reading freight running between Tamaqua and Newberry. While bound for the latter place, he was standing on top of the car at Gordon, twisting a brake. Suddenly the brake stick broke, one end striking him over the eyes.

He fell unconscious on his back on the narrow plank walk. His peril was not discovered until the train arrived at Shamokin. He was restored to consciousness and sent to his home at Centralia to recuperate.

Must Not Stun Bullheads.

The following notice is being sent out by Game Warden Shoemaker, of Laceyville, and it would be well for all fishermen and those engaged in the business of catching bait to examine it.

Section 29 of the Act, approved May 9, 1901, says "that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prohibit the taking of bait fish by means of minnow seines for angling or scientific purposes. Hence any person who catches minnows or bait fish in any other manner than by minnow nets or rods, hook and line is liable to a fine of $25."

Hence the old method of getting little bullheads by means of striking the stones and stunning them is a violation of the law and instructions have been sent out to arrest anyone who is found getting them by this method.
